A New Swindle on the Farmers.

Swindlers have struck a new scheme for beating the unhappy granger. A well dressed man calls at the farm house and wants to buy a good horse. A horse is shown him. Prices are made and, after bantering, a bargain is struck, and the buyer pays $10 down to secure the bargain and leaves to return in a week for the horse. The next day another well dressed and gentlemanly man calls and takes a fancy to the same horse. The farmer cannot sell it because it is sold, but buyer No. 2 wants the horse bad, as it will just match his other horse which he has in New York or Chicago, or some other place. He offers $10, $15 or $25 above the price for which it was sold to No. 1. The farmer cannot sell the horse, but buyer No. 2 will be back in a few days, and if the farmer has the horse he will be glad to pay the $25 extra for the animal. When No. 1 comes for the horse the farmer wants to keep the animal to sell to No. 2, so he offers No. 1 his money and $10 more back for his bargain. No. 1 takes the money, is $10 ahead, half of which he gives to No. 2, and the farmer still owns the horse.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Excursion to the Jersey Coast.

Of all the excursions offered to the people of this section none possess more merit than those of the Pennsylvania Railroad to the attractive resorts of the New Jersey coast. The dates of these trips are opportunely fixed, the limit of the tickets cover the usual vacation period, the points of destination, Atlantic City, Cape May, Sea Isle, or Ocean City are not only the choicest seaside resorts of the land but they have individual attractions which suit every taste; the rate is so liberal as to come within the means of every one and the means of transportation is of the highest grade.

These characteristics have made these trips exceedingly popular and have afforded many of our people a delightful holiday tour, arranged, as it were, to their order.

The first trip of this season was a brilliant success and the second, which will occur on July 25th will doubtless be still more successful as it comes to a date nearer the height of the seaside season.

Excursion tickets will be sold as heretofore at $10.00 from Pittsburg, and correspondingly low rates from other stations, valid for return trip ten days, and the special train of Pullman Parlor Cars and Day Coaches will run on schedule as below:

 on the radical cure of spermatorrhoea or incapacity induced by excess or early induration.

The celebrated author in this admirable essay clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' success in practice, that the alarming consequences of an early loss may be entirely cured by adopting a simple, safe and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent and sent on a plain envelope to any address, post-paid, on receipt of four cents or two postage stamps. Address,
