People In Centre County Preparing For Eternity.

BELLEFONTE, July 21.—It has lately been rumored around here that there is throughout Centre county, as well as in Bellefonte, a certain secret mutual organization that preach and are preparing for the end of the world, which they confidently believe will be next year, 1890.

The majority of the adherents are professors of Christianity, and members of different denominational churches, and no special church is represented more than another.

BEAVERTOWN.—Abner Aigler has been repairing material for an addition to his barn, which he is about to erect.

Peter S. Bobb lost a valuable horse by death recently. The animal died of lung fever.

Miss Jane Getz arrived here from Russia two weeks ago and is making her home with her sister, Mrs. Mandel Friedman.

John Hetrich has purchased a brand new threshing outfit and will now doubtless run out wheat etc., by the thousand bushels for our farmers.

Edgar Smith and Elmer Wetzel have opened subscription schools. Rev. Mumma and his congregation held communion services on Sunday.

By the time this is seen in print, the oats will all be cut and the greater part of it stored away.

On Saturday forenoon as John A. Fetterolf was coming home from the Seven mountains, just as he had passed Lick gap, a large buck deer bounded out of the bushes into the road not over ten yards ahead of him where he stopped, and looked at the veteran slayer of his species, without the least visible sign of fear.

"I am the man that stood one whole night up in Wolf swamp with my back against a pine tree keeping an old she panther with her cubs at bay, with nothing to defend myself but this trusty old barlow."

Considerable growling is heard concerning the course taken by our County Commissioners in awarding the contract for rebuilding the bridge across Middlecreek, known as Kahley's.

W. M. BOYER, Administrator.

W. P. Taylor, agent for the Pennsylvania Bible Society has canvassed the town and sold many bibles.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles M. Aurand, Williamsport, Md., are visiting friends here. He preached in the Lutheran church on Sunday evening.

Farmers are busy with their oats. Some have finished garnering the excellent crop.

News are scarce. The folks at the writer's home all unite in returning warm thanks to Hon. G. Alfred Schoch and lady for a mess of exceedingly fine plums of rare quality.

THE BUCKTAILS. Sergt. W. H. Rauch, of Philadelphia, Secretary of the Regimental Association of the "Bucktails," or First Rifle Regiment, P. R. V. C., has issued and mailed to each comrade on the roll a "postal" card, measuring seven by twelve inches, notice of the coming reunion at Philipsburg, Centre county, on the 21st and 22nd of August next, and special suggestions added, each with an appropriate comic illustration, as follows:

"No old army habits contracted in camp allowed." Illustrated by a party of five playing draw poker, using a drum as the table.

"Be sure and bring the ladies." Illustration—The hind leg of a pig fastened to the end of a rope and a fat lady holding on at the other end, and both moving forward in the same direction—the pig in front.

"Prepare for a royal reception by the people of Philipsburg." Illustration—A No. 11 boot with a foot inside and a suspicious business position.
