A Girl's Story of the Battle.

We have just read with a great deal of interest a book entitled "At Gettysburg, or What a Girl Saw and Heard of the Battle," by Mrs. Tillie (Pierce) Alleman of Selinsgrove. It is a thrilling little volume of 118 pages and is replete with anecdote, history, and pathos. We the most thrilling little volume we muddle. have ever read. It is alike interis descriptive of incidents unrecog- are a first lien on real estate. nized in general history. Lake Borland, New York, entitled "At Gettysburg, or Whata Girl Saw and Heard of the Battle," by Mrs. Tillie (Pierce) Alleman, of Selins Grove, Pa. Mrs. Alleman before her marriage was a well known lady of our town, and is a daughter of Mrs. Lake Borland, New York, entitled conclusions reached.

This matter is of no little importance to every county in the State, and every municipality as well, as likely to derange our tax system throughout. It is a pity, therefore, and other outbuildings.

The Grove Meeting.

The long looked-for grove meeting west of Middleburgh in Bower's grove commenced Saturday evening August 3d. The first sermon was preached by P. F. Jarrett, who took for his text Heb. 1st chap. 14th verse, He showed the people, very beautito the Saints of old and how they are ministering to his people of to-day. Sabbath morning bright and clear, and by 9 o'clock a number of persons had reached the grove. Wish ing to follow the blessed Master's example, we opened our exercises children. Several of the brethren made able addresses which were relished by all. At 2 o'clock we were again treated to a sermon by Rev. P. E. Jarrett, who preached a grand sermon from St. Luke's gospel 9:67. He pictured to us how awful it was to once profess to be a follower of receipt our Savior and then again return to the ways of the world. After another delightful prayer and speaking meeting. Rev. Runyan made a appeal to the unconverted from St. Luke 19:41-42.
