FOR STATE TREASURER HON. HENRY KLINE BOYER, OF PHILADELPHIA. FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR JAMES MIDDLESWARTH, OF ADAMS TOWNSHIP.

Written for the Post. A Trip to Southern Battle Fields.

After the closing exercises of the G. A. R. Encampment at Gettysburg, I in company with Capt. Austin Curtin and Dr. Theo. Christ, both survivors of the 45, P. V., started for the Historic Battle fields of those cemeteries, and desirves honors South Mountain and Antictam. Changing cars at Gettysburg Junction we boarded the handsome and comfortable cars of the C. V. R. R. passing through the Cumberland Valley—one of the most beutful in Pennsylvania. The towns of Carlindon Pennsylvania. The Carlindon Pennsylvania and the pennsylvania. The towns of Carlindon Pennsylvania. The towns o South Mountain and Antietam. Changing cars at Gettysburg Junethe time of the battle and they had either left the town or gone to the cellars to escape from our fire. On Saturday Sep. 14, our special train from Philadelpha via Harrisburg arrived with a large number of comrades of the 9th Burnside's army borough, arrived on the Summit in Fox Gap at 11 A. M., where we were sayder county. met by a concourse of several thousand citizens from Frederick, Middletown and Boonesboro, Md. An elegant lunch was served free, and after the feast Major General O. B. Wilcox, our old Division Commander was escorted to the stand where he ch delivered the memorial address, dedicating a beautiful monument on this historic field to commemorate the bravery, heroism and virtue of and Major General Jesse L, Renn, our Corps Commander who fell and expired in front of his Corps near the pired in front of his Corps near the pired in front of his Corps, near the close of the battle. The monument was then unveiled. Other addresses were delivered by Major General J. F. Hartranft, Comrade Lieutenant Spooner, M. C., from Rhode Island, Comrade Steevens of 100 P. V. V., Middleburg and others. The services were attended by twenty comrades of Reno services an hour was spent in renewing the acquaintance of 27 years ago, and discussing the various positions on this historic field. Comrade Shoch and Lwalked over to Lumer's Gan.

Schoeh and myself remained and visited the Stone Bridge where our Regiment and the 51 N. Y., suffered so terribly in the famous charge made on this Burnside's Bridge.
We also visited the right of the line where Sedgwick, Mansfield, and Hooker did such hard fighting at the Dunkerchurch Mumma house, Rouloff house, and Sunken Road, now called the Bloody Lane. We noticed many marks of the conflict and found some bullets and pieces of shells denoting the amount of de struction caused by the armies here. The people of this region are and mostly were loyal to the Union-only five Confederate soldiers were furnished by Sharpsburg, a town of over one thousand inhabitants. The National Cemetery at this place is beautiful and tastefully laid out and adorned by Nature's choisest'shrubbery. 4688 soldiers are buried here; 2230 graves are marked "unknown." The U. S. Government takes care of those cemeteries, and desrves honor for this act to dead comrades.
