Wittenmyer is digging out the lot immediately behind the jail and purposes to build a store-house upon it and to use it as a dwelling. Tom Harter's Middleburgh paper has 1150 subscribers. Good, if you get several times that you deserve them.—Lewis, Selinsgrove Press. Thank 'ee Bro... want to save money buy clothing of me. I promise you a rare but will give you a hat that will pay you, L. OPFENHEIMER, Selinsgrove. O. Lehr, pastor of this U. S. church, has moved his family into the property lately occupied by Reitz, who moved into his recently purchased of Middleburgh. C. Aurand has just received New York and Philadelphia assortment of Ladies Hats, Plush, Velvets, and fancy etc., which she offers at reduced prices. A new board of the Tribune has been organized and the paper will be published the first of the year. Had to note this evidence of Joe. Joe will make it hum. In Bolinger, of Beale, Juniata, aged 80 years, the other-shouldered his rifle and started to hunt turkeys. Surprise of his family he reth a big gobbler which he brought through the heart. Smith and Jacob Gilbert will double harness hereafter—entered into a copartnership practice of law on the 1st of Oct. These gentlemen are lawyers and will make a name. P. M. Schoch will lead Central Juniata this fall in big hogs. So that would dress fifteen pounds if they were killed they are acknowledged to be the best and best proportioned raised in Snyder county. He expects to keep them and they will be an ob- ject to every person who has the study of "hogology" in mind.

P. M. Schoch is getting to be quite a liberal advertiser and his business shows it. WANTED.—Two good girls for a small family, one as cook, wages $3 per week; the other as child's nurse, wages $2 per week. Address Mrs. FRANK S. MARR, Nov. 7. 3w. Lewisburg, Pa. Nowadays a woman who flirts achieves a notoriety that is hard for her to escape. It clings for years, and it leads many people to lend a more than willing ear to any rumors affecting character. The fact should be a valuable warning to the sex. Any of our readers wanting a pure article of rye whisky, especially for medical purposes, can be accommodated by addressing Marks & Enders, Middleburgh, Pa. Prices from $2 to $3.50 per gallon, according to age and quality. The following letters remain dead in the Middleburgh Post office. Pastor, M. E. Church, Peter Bailey, J. C. Bainer, D. M. Kope, Abraham Cheathans, Miss Sara Bowersox, Miss Sue A. Meyers. J. W. SWARTZ, P. M. John Steese, attorney-at-law, of Orbisonia, Pa., stopped over and shook hands with his many friends here Monday on his return home from his father's funeral, Charles Steese, of Limestone township, Union county, who was buried on Sunday. It was once supposed that scrofula could not be eradicated from the system; but the marvelous results produced by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla disprove this theory. The reason is, this medicine is the most powerful blood-purifier ever discovered. The consciousness of having a remedy at hand for croup, pneumonia, sore throat, and sudden colds, is very consoling to a parent. With a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, one feels, in such cases, a sense of security nothing else can give. General Clinton B. Fisk is not devoting much time to politics just at present. Suggested by the late Johnstown disaster and the many casualties all over the country he is busy with the New York Accident Insurance Company of which he is president, organizing it in this state. The directors of the First National Bank of Middleburgh met on the 1st, and finding over fifty per cent. of the capital stock paid in, they concluded to open the doors of the bank for business on or about November 27th instead of January 1, as was at first agreed upon. The bank will be a great convenience to the people in the west end of the county and it is hoped will receive their encouragement in word and deed. An exchange says: Take a United States bill of any denomination and hold it up to the light and you will see two lines running entirely across it length-wise. Upon examination you will find these to consist of a silk thread, a red one and a blue one. Every genuine bill has this mark of genuineness. Without these marks, a bill may be put down as a counterfeit no matter how good the engravings on it. No paper mill dare make that sort of paper, and that is the government's only protection for its currency. Deibert, our Photographer has reopened his gallery, two squares north of the Court House, (see his sign) and is now ready to accommodate you with fine re-touched photographs at the following rates: Cabinets 2 for $1.00, 5 for $1.50, 8 for $2.00, 14 for $3.00. Card-de-visite, or album size Photos, $1.50 per doz. or six for $1.00. 25 cents extra charge for every additional face above two on each negative—two persons are same price as one on negatives. A deposit demanded on all negatives. DEMERT, the Photographer, Please call and see the fine Photos.

Harry Dean, of Harrisburg, went hunting a few days ago up in Huntinton county. Game was scarce, but he was bound to have some sport, and so he opened battery on a flock of tame turkeys belonging to Adam Gerlach, killing five and wounded four, and he also killed the farmer's dog. He thought it was rare fun until the indignant farmer had him landed in jail, when he changed his mind. He got off by paying $25 and the costs and although he has less money now he knows more.—Lewistown Democrat. TAX NOTICE.—The undersigned tax-collector for Franklin township will sit at the Court House, Middleburgh, on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, Nov. 14, 15, and 16, from 1 P. M. to 6 P. M. to receive taxes. If paid then five per cent. will be deducted from school and school building taxes. All county and poor tax not paid by the 19th of December, five per cent. will be added. All taxes of 1888 not paid by January 1, 1890, will be collected according to law. AUSTIN GIFT, Col. ROLL OF HONOR.—The following persons have paid their subscription to the Post to the dates opposite their names. Should any mistakes occur in these credits or on your paper please notify us: Mrs. J. Witmer, Monroe twp.; Clara Heim, Washington; John Hepner, Freeburg; Alice M. Ritter, Monroe twp.; W. H. Harman, Middlewarth; Emma G. Bailey, Middlewarth; Howard Sechrist, Port Trevorton; Elizabeth A. Herrold, Union twp.; Oliver P. Wertz, Northumberland; Annie S. Ramer, Monroe twp.; Peter L. Greybill, West Perry twp.; Agnes Stroup, Middlewarth; Geo. W. Hoke, Kratzerville; Ida C. Aurand, Kramer; Daniel Weiser, Chapman twp.; Mary Shirk, Perry; Samuel H. Lash, McClure; Ida C. Gill, Perry twp.; Charles Renninger, Mifflintown; Violetta Bowersox, Middleburgh; Henry Buffington, Middleburgh; A. A. Benny, Hartley twp Union Co.; J. H. Stuck, Middlecreek; Maggie Reitz, Middlecreek; Amos Snook, Lowell; Rachael Snook, Beavertown; Solomon Harp, Sunbury; Kate N. Weller, Shamokin Dam; Jonas E. Keister, Adams twp.; Cora A. Thomas, Adams twp.; Irvin Noll, Selinsgrove; Ada Wolf, Freeburg; Harry H. Haupt, Sunbury; S. E. Wallace, McKees Falls; Isaac Aurand, Lewistown; Amanda Brindle, Harrisburg. The above is an accumulation of licences granted during the past few weeks. We will be more prompt hereafter. C. C. Seebold has sold his interest in Seebold & Runkle's store to Peter Reigle, Jr., of West Beaver twp.

MIDDLECREEK.—For a long time nothing was noticed in your worthy paper from our quiet little village. We are still here and all alive, most of the farmers are through with their corn and some have commenced plowing. R. S. Meiser, our thrifty merchant, is doing a booming business. S. Steininger was seen hauling off several organs last week. Solly knows how to put up a good organ, and how to sell it. In the future E. F. Goss will be boss of Middlecreek, he having traded the town lots from A. H. Ush on his house and lot. E. F. has now in course of construction a house which will be a credit to the town after it is finished. Seanly & Goss have moved their saw-mill on the Maurer property where they will soon commence taking out the lumber. Married last week:—Harrison Stuck and Maggie Reitz, Amos Snook and Rachael Pouch. On Saturday two of the party of hunters, who had camped in the mountains last week, passed through our village reporting having killed a large doe. Judging by the size of their knap-sacks she must have been a "Jumbo." Look out for cheap venison as Paul is now planning a magnificent hunting expedition for the near future. For the several last days a parrot comes regularly to John Wender's residence, helping himself to some sweet apples which are hanging on a tree close by the house. Several plans were made to capture "Poll" but as yet none succeeded. It is now rumored that the turkey that John shot had "light" feathers and was too heavy to carry home. Mrs. John D. Goss, who had been sick for the last few weeks, is recovering slowly. At this writing Mrs. E. F. Goss is on the sick list. Some forty copies of the Post are weekly distributed at this office. Any place that can bear, for the size of the place, will please report. BOONESTEAL. CENTREVILLE.—Hallow E'en was on hand Thursday evening, and with it the young cabbage and corn fiends as usual. A query to some who the young ladies were that gadded around town that same evening in male attire. We could name the young lasses but we do not wish to give them away. Mr. John Mohr and wife spent several days recently in Williamsport and Jersey Shore. Seersucker coats and screen doors will not be needed until the moon changes next April. Dr. D. R. Rothrock, wife and child, of New Berlin, visited Grand-pap Walter's on Saturday. Fred. B. Bolig and wife were among friends in Fremont over Sunday. C. D. Slagle, a student of Central Pa. College, New Berlin, preached an earnest sermon to our people in the Evangelical church on Sunday evening. S. F. Sheary was to Lewisburg on business in the fore-part of the week. Dr. E. W. Tool, of Freeburg, was in town on Monday. Two minds with but a single thought, two hearts that beat as one. So sang the poet of old, and so say we to-day when we chronicle the marriage of A. B. Sheary and Miss Kate Seebold which happy event was solemnized on Tuesday evening of this week by Rev. J. A. Earnest at the Lutheran parsonage, Mifflinburg, from whence they started east the following morning to spend their honey-moon. May their minds contain but a single thought, to "love, honor and obey", to be a helpmate one to another. May their hearts beat as one; in strong affection, to be in happy accord in all things. May joy, peace and good will preside over this family circle, and may no cloud obscure their sunshine of happiness, and, as time rolls on and silver their now youthful locks, may they have a number of little pedagogues to cheer them in their declining years.

TROXELVILLE.—J. E. Fetteroff and Isaac Hackenberg were up to Little Valley last week to put up a stove mill for Joe Knepp. This week they are up there again to teach a new set of hands to operate the same. Last Friday "masher" Yost, Chas. P. Erb and Dan Knepp went to Lewistown to buy themselves each a cap. They claim to have made money by the operation. Last week "Inch" Bill Thomas and Phares Fetteroff each shot a deer. Squire Jim Middleswarth says that the one Fetteroff shot was fatter than his hogs generally are when butcher day comes around. Corn is all husked, the fodder nearly all stored away, and the farmers are now giving their attention to fall plowing. The grain fields that were sown in time look splendid, but the late sowing looks poor. In fact, some fields don't show up a green sprout yet. The indications are that next week the seven mountains will be full of hunters. To-day (Monday) Alph. Troxel, James A. Wagner, David L. and Ner M. Middleswarth will improve the hunting road so that nobody need be afraid of getting arrested for cruelty to animals. CALIFORNIA JOE. LOWELL.—Mrs. Katy Ritter's sale was well attended and a good deal of stuff was bought as relies. The party of hunters that took to the mountain last week report good luck, W. H. K. said two of them came very near seeing a deer, and Amos shot a turkey off the fence and when he went to get him he was gone. The other six hunters shot the leg off a rabbit and then killed it with a board. Our old vet., L. J. Romig, received a voucher last week for $650 back pension, which he is deserving. Mrs. Henry Baumgardner was relieved by death of a long spell of suffering and sickness last week and her remains were laid to rest at Baker's church. She leaves many friends to mourn their loss. Howard Shambach and family of Paxtonville Sundayed with his father-in-law W. G. Wagner. Chas. Young has about 20 acres of corn yet to husk. Chas. Houser has accepted a position from Pardee as boss over one axe. So it has been reported. Geo. Dunn has now in his possession the celebrated "what is it." It resembles a mule mixed with the buffalo. He has it for sale or trade. Lovers of curiosities will profit by calling on him. U. No. PAXTONVILLE.—Oliver McAfee is weatherboarding his house. It looks very much better and more home-like. "A shed is better than nothing" is the common remark, and that's what the P. R. R. Co. thought, for they have just finished building a shed for the accommodation of travelers at this place. We think a respectable house is absolutely necessary and the business of our little town is deserving of one. Miss Clara Graybill of Juniata county, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Irvin Graybill. A protracted meeting has commenced in the Evangelical church. Rev. L. S. Reichard is preaching the Word. He is a deep, earnest man; devoted to the cause of Christ. Come and hear him. The meetings will continue during the week. If you want your last winter's hat turned over and made prettier than ever, give Miss Dolcie a call, where it can be done without money or price. You would be surprised were you to step into Chas. Boyer's store just now. You would find just what you have been wanting this long, long time, and that at lowest prices too. He has just returned from the city with a full line of beautiful goods. Give him a call. CLAIRE. D. K. Haas of Shamokin was in town this week.

Hot Words. The following gratuitous notice to the ability of the Alexander Detective Agency appeared in last week's Sunbury News. There is not much poetry but lots of the other stuff in it that will draw blisters on somebody's back: "We don't profess to know much about the detective business, but we don't believe any good detective on his arrival would march into the bar room at the dam and throw back his coat so that every one who cared could see the big metal shield with "A Special Officer" engraved upon it, and say that it was absolutely necessary to keep three men on the case, who did nothing but insult the women at the dam, and accomplish nothing in the way of finding the murderer. We formed an opinion of one of the pseudo detectives when a reporter of a Sunbury paper interviewed him at the Clement House. The reporter was shown to the room of the detective and at once stated his business, when he took a revolver, a silver mounted pair of nippers and a knife from his pocket and put them on the table, with the remark that "these things bother me when I am talking to anyone." The blustering crank wanted to impress the poor, little country reporter with his importance. If the great detective had known the feelings of "awe" that coursed through the reporter's breast he would not have consented to the interview. The truth of the matter is that they were wheedling all the money they could from the father of the murdered boy, and have no proof against young Deitrich, who will of necessity be allowed to go forth from the jail. The great trouble about it will be that as long as he lives he will have the stigma of being confined in prison and accused of a murder, notwithstanding his innocence, and all because a triangle of cranks come here and think they have to arrest some one. One detective would accomplish more in a week than the three men did all the time they were here. The Honest Newspaper. Philad. Times: Public newspapers have become so intimately interwoven with the progress of our civilization that they must be honest to command public respect. They are the great educators of the people; they expose hypocrisy and crime; they are the accepted champions of public and business integrity; they are largely the guardians of the purity of society, of politics, of public morals, and they must be thoroughly honest to be equipped for this responsible mission. The honest newspaper criticises public wrongs in political power with equal fidelity, whether committed by friend or foe, and it defends its cause only by giving the whole truth to its readers. The time was when the blind party organ was the political teacher of the age but that period has passed away forever. The honest newspaper must be honest alike in its convictions, its teachings and its business. It must be honest in its appeals for patronage as well as honest in its appeals for honesty in the public and private circles which it criticises. It must be honest in its circulation; honest with its advertisers; honest with all who have business relations with it. SHAMOKIN DAM.—The Shamokin Dam, school house is nearly completed and makes a fine appearance. H. A. Schuck, of Wolverton's Law office, Sunbury, Pa., is spending the week in Philadelphia. The Post is acknowledged to be one of the best weekly papers in the state. X Capt. William Harding Dead! Capt. William H. Harding died at his home in Fremont on Tuesday night. Will be buried at Allentown. Full particulars next week.
