The Old Doctors

Drew blood, modern doctors cleanse it; hence the increased demand for Alteratives. It is now well known that most diseases are due, not to over-abundance, but to impurity, of the Blood; and it is equally well attested that no blood medicine is so efficacious as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"One of my children had a large sore break out on the leg. We applied simple remedies, for a while, thinking the sore would shortly heal. But it grew worse. We sought medical advice, and were told that an alterative medicine necessary. Ayer's Sarsaparilla above all others, we used it with marvelous results. The sore healed and health and strength rapidly returned."

— J. J. Armstrong, Weimar, Texas.

"I find Ayer's Sarsaparilla to be an admirable remedy for the cure of blood diseases. I prescribe it, and it does the work every time." — E. L. Pater, M. D., Manhattan, Kansas.

"We have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla here for over thirty years and always recommend it when asked to name the best blood-purifier."—W. T. McLean, Druggist, Augusta, Ohio. " Ayer's medicines continue to be the standard remedies in spite of all com-petition." - T. W. Richmond, Bear Lake, Mich.

After Delinquents.

An exchange is authority for the following. We make no comment, except to say, no doubt, many fail to pay for the paper they receive regularly, through negligence, and others refuse to pay their subscription for it in ignorance of the postal law. It is for those who would take a paper out of the post office regularly, and when pressed to pay for it, refuse to do so.

"A newspaper man in Ohio recently brought suit against forty three men who would not pay their subscriptions, and obtained judgment in each case for amount of each claim. Of these, twenty eight made affidavit that they owned no more than the law allowed, thus preventing attachment. Then under the decision of the Supreme Court, they were arrested for petty larceny and bound over in the sum of $600 each.

All but six gave bond, while six go to jail. The new postal law makes it larceny to take a paper and refuse to pay for it.

The Pennsylvania Dutch.

The true story of the Pennsylvania Dutch can be told in a general way, in a few words. Their fathers were just awkward enough, in the early settlement of the state to locate and build their homes where the natural flow of milk and honey is most abundant. As to good morals, sobriety, honesty, hospitality and industry they compare favorably with any class of people on earth. Governors Heister, Wolf and Snyder, Ritner and Shunk were all Pennsylvania Dutchmen, and their public records are as free from taint of corruption, of fraud, as any of their predessessors or successors. Among the most successful and leading merchants, manufacturers and business men of the city of Philadelphia, and including, lawyers, doctors, journalists and educators the Pennsylvania Dutch are second to no other class, and in the fields of science they are equally prominent and second to none.

But in several respects they are comparatively slow and none-progressive. They are also entirely without representation among professional religionists for expediency only. They hardly ever turn up among the great political corruptionists, demagogues and frauds, whilst among the ex-bankers, and boodlers, who during recent years migrated to the north side of St. Lawrence there is not a single representative of the Pennsylvania Dutch persun.-Mauch Chunk Democrat.

it? I only said Mrs. Allen was a very well informed woman, and I wished you would follow her example."

Mrs. Ler. "Yes, and last week you said you wished I could manage to look as stylish as Mrs. Allen,—and she makes all her own clothes. But she has what I haven't."

Mrs. Ler. "What is that?"

Mrs. Ler. "Ghat is going on, and is bright and entertaining in conversation. But I could do as well as she does if I had the same source of information. She lent me the last number of her Magnation is the lent me the last number of her Magnation is the lent me the last number of her Magnation is the lent me the last number of her Magnation is the lent me the last number of her Magnation is the look of the day, than I would pick up in a month by my occasional chais with friends. It certainly covers every topic of interest, from the news of the day down to the details of homsekeeping; and everything is so beautifully illustrated. too. Every time Mamie goes over to the Allens" she comes back and teases me to get you to take Demorest's Family Magnatine, as the stories are so good. Even the boys watch for it every month, as a place is found for them also in its pages; and Mr. Allen swears by it. It is really wonderful how it suits every member of the family?"

Mrs. Ler. "I see that W. Jennings Demorest, the publisher, its East 14th Street, New York, is offering to send a Specimen Copy for 10 cents, so we can't lose anything, as each number contains a 'Pattern Order' entitiling the holder to any Pattern she may choose, and in any size—which alone makes each copy worth 30 cents; and I just want a jacket pattern like Mrs. Allen's. The subscription price is only $3.00 a year; and I mast say I can't see how they can publish so degant a Magnatine for so little money."
