Egypt. I have been reading ming in my New Testament of a canean voyage in an Alexandrian twas this very month of November. I was lying in a port not very far et on board that vossel were two picked passengers: one, Josephus, the as we have strong reasons to the other, a convict, one Paul by the was going to prison for upsetting or, as they termed it, "turning the paide down." This convict had gained a federic of the Captain. Indeed, it that had been shipwrecked three slready; he had dwelt much of his saidst capstants, and yardarms, and and storms; and he knew what is talking about. Life's Chances.-Who Will Be the Next.

tality tables answer the question with reasonable accuracy. Here are a few figures collected by the Boston Globe:

We have on earth about 1,000,000,-100 people, the males and females being about equally divided. Of each the age of 17. The average ength of life is 33 years. One peron in 1000 lives to be 100 years old; in 100 reach the age of 65, and not more than 1 in 500 lives to see 80. Every year 33,033,033 persons die : 91,842 die every day, 3,730 die every hour, 60 every minute, and 1 every second. Each tick of the clock should remind us that a human life is ended. In addition to these facts there are others of equal interest. A married person lives longer than one that is single, and tall men live longer than short ones. Before the age of 50 women have more chances of life than men, and fewer chances after that age. The number of marriages is in the proportion of 75 to every 1,000 individuals. Marriages are more frequent after equinoxes—that is durng the months of June and Decem-

Those born in spring are generally of a more robust constitution than thers. Births are more frequently by night than by day, also deaths. The number of men capable of pearing arms is calculated at one-fourth of the population.

Paul a There are 3,064 langue world, and its in habitate world. There are 3,064 languages in the world, and its in habitants profess

With these points before him the m young man who was sworn off and children, resolved to capture his share of the ness and world's good things this year will cape safe have something to think about. Scmeti There are many chances that he will mercial see this year go out, and there are masts fall also many chances that he will go out first. His very determination to join in the rush for the prizes most desired by all men is against him. Haste, worry and disappointment are filling our asylums and graveyards. The contented worker, whose ambition is moderate and whose habit neither injure him nor anybody else, has a better chance of reaching old age than his competitor who wants the earth. Tick goes the clock. One man dead! Who will be the next? Perhaps the man who heard the clock!
