The 32nd Annual Session of the Snyder Co. Teachers' Institute.

MIDDLEBURGH, PA., DEC. 2-6, 1889.

The Institute was called to order by Supt. Herman at 10:40 A. M., after which the Institute sang a hymn entitled "All hail the power of Jesus name." The organization then took place which resulted as follows: Vice President, J. F. Keller; Secretary, H. S. Stetler; Assistant Secretary, H. C. Haas; Treasurer, D. S. Thursby. The time of Institute hours was then fixed, from 9-12 A. M., and 1:30-4 P. M. Evening exercises to commence at 7 P. M. sharp.

The roll was then called and found 66 teachers. The Institute then sang the national song, "America," then stood adjourned.

MONDAY AFTERNOON.
Opened by music—song entitled "Music in the air." No instructors having arrived, the Supt. made a brief address—giving very excellent and impressive facts in reading. Dr. Waller, Jr., of Bloomsburgh, having arrived, addressed the Institute, subject, "The Civil Service Commission in relation to the Public Schools." After roll call to which 98 teachers responded, the Institute stood adjourned till 7 P. M.

MONDAY EVENING.
Music by the Band, rendered very excellent. A recitation by Miss Annie Kaempfer. Music by the Band. Address by Dr. Waller, subject "Six weeks away from home." Recitation by Miss Anna Lumbard. Music by Band. Adjourned.

TUESDAY FORENOON.
Opened with music by Institute, entitled "Sun of my soul." Divine exercises were conducted by Dr. Waller. Prof. A. M. Wonder took up the subject "What knowledge is of most worth." Committee on resolutions appointed namely: Prof. A. M. Wonder, Miss Agnes Sholly, Mr. A. L. Spangler, Mr. M. I. Potter, Mr. T. G. Arbogast, Dr. Waller continued his talk on the "Civil Service Commission in relation to public schools." Roll called and 107 teachers responded. Music. The Institute then had an intermission of 5 minutes, after which Prof. Meyers, Supt. of Mifflin county, made a short address on the subject—"Attendance of Pupils," and how to teach numbers. Music by Institute. Address by Supt. B. W. Peck of Fulton county, subject: Arithmetic, easy way or method to add and multiply. Music. Adjourned.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON.
Music. Address by Prof. Bible on Reading. Music. Address, G. W. Brown on Penmanship. Address by Prof. Meyers on History. Music. Prof. B. W. Peck continued his talk on Arithmetic. Dr. Waller took up the subject of Physiology. Roll call 108 teachers responded. Adjourned.

TUESDAY EVENING.
This evening was devoted to a literary and musical entertainment by Prof. Bible, who amused the large audience in his own inimitable style. His selections were interspersed with music by the Middleburgh Band, and the entertainment proved a most enjoyable one.

WEDNESDAY FORENOON.
Music. Divine Exercises conducted by Prof. Meyers. Roll call, 100 teachers responded. Address by H. S. Stetler on "Spencer's views on moral Education." Responded by Dr. Waller. Music. Supt. Meyers, "Experiment in the school room." The Institute was then granted an intermission of five minutes by Supt. Herman. After which G. M. Brown resumed the subject of Penmanship and drawing. Music. Prof. Waller then took up the subject of "Professional Reading. After which the Institute adjourned.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.
Roll call to which 107 teachers responded. Music. Supt. Peck of Fulton county, then took up the subject of Recitations. Prof. Brown continued the subject of Drawing. Music. Queries were then answered by Supts. Peck and Herman. After which Dr. Waller made his farewell address to the Institute. Music. Adjourned.

WEDNESDAY EVENING.
Music by the Band. Recitation by Miss Carrie Wittenmyer. Poem by Wm. E. Houseworth, followed by a recitation by Miss Kaempfer. Solo by Prof. Billhardt, entitled "The Sailor's return." Prof. Perrine then delivered his lecture on "American Humor," followed by brass band music. Adjourned.

THURSDAY FORENOON.
Opened by song—Divine exercises conducted by Rev. Orwig. C. E. Smith of Selinsgrove then took up the subject of—"How to teach fractions," followed by a "Round" music, entitled, "Who will buy my posies." Roll called, to which 105 teachers responded. Prof. Bible then continued his talk on reading, or rather elocution. Music. Prof. Peck took up the subject of school government. The election on examinations on permanent certificates took place which resulted as follows: M. I. Potter, J. H. Willis, C. E. Smith, J. O. Felker and H. S. Stetler—followed by song.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.
Opened by music—Thursday afternoon was set apart for directors' day. Their organization resulted as follows: Chairman—Dr. Tool. Sec. M. K. Hassinger. Supt. Herman addressed the directors—on County Uniformity of Text books. After listening to the opinions of a number of directors, a motion was made by Dr. Shindle, that each board of the county should elect one of their body to meet in the court house Monday evening of court week to make some arrangement to adopt a uniformity of text books. The matter passed unanimously. The following topics were then discussed by directors: "Location of school houses" by Dr. Tool. "Qualification of teachers as judged from a director's standpoint," by Dr. Shindle. The factors of a successful life, by F. E. Bower. The directors were then addressed by Prof. Bible, followed by music. Supt. Peck then addressed the directors, after which he made his fare-well address to the Institute. Mr. Kepler then read an essay, "Fireside Education," followed by the famous "Round." Roll called, to which 105 teachers responded.

THURSDAY EVENING.
Music by Band. Recitation by Miss Anna Lumbard, followed by a duet by Miss Freyman and Master Gilbert. After the band had played another selection, Rev. Steek of Shamokin, delivered his famous lecture, entitled, "The hero recognized and unrecognized." Music by Band.

FRIDAY FORENOON.
The opening exercises were conducted by Rev. Orwig. M. I. Potter took up the subject of "Thoroughness in teaching," responded by Supt. Herman. After the Institute sang the song entitled, "Chime again beautiful Bells," the committee on permanent certificates made the following announcement, "that the examination would take place in Selinsgrove on the first Saturday in March, 1890, that the average per cent. should not be less than 85 per cent., that in no one branch should be below 75 per cent., and that a thesis, of at least 700 words, should be prepared from which the penmanship would be judged." Prof. Bible then read "Katie Lee and Willie Gray" and continued his talk on reading, pronunciation and drawing. The following resolutions were then read and adopted.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.
WHEREAS, It has pleased our Heavenly Father in His all-wise Providence to call from our midst a true friend and fellow teacher, John A. Steek. Therefore be it Resolved, That in his death, we the members of Snyder county Teachers' Institute were bereft of a devoted teacher, and an ardent worker in the cause of education.
"None knew him but to love."
None named him but to praise."
Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathies, to the bereaved parents who, in their affliction, have lost their only and beloved child. Therefore also be it
Resolved, That we invoke the blessing of heaven to aid the sorrow-stricken parents and friends in bearing their troubles and trials our Heavenly Father has seen fit to visit upon them. Therefore be it further
Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the county papers and that a copy of these proceedings be sent to the bereaved family.
G. N. APP, J. E. WACHSSELLER, W. D. JARETT, ANNA LUMBARD, JENNIE WENDE, Committee.

REPORT OF COM. ON GEN. RESOLUTIONS.
WHEREAS, We the teachers of Snyder county met in the 32nd annual Institute at Middleburgh, having at heart the educational interests of the county, and acknowledging the great benefits received from our efficient instructors and lecturers adopt the following resolutions:
Resolved, That in our County Superintendent Chas. W. Herman, we recognize a competent, zealous and active official, one ever alive to the duties appertaining to his office and is worthy of the confidence and hearty co-operation of directors, patrons and teachers.
Resolved, That we feel grateful and extend our most sincere thanks to Prof. Bible, Meyers, Brown and Waller for their untiring efforts to make our Institute a success.
Resolved, That the evening lectures by Profs. Waller, Bible, Perrine, and Rev. Steek, have been most interesting features of our Institute, and that we are greatly indebted to the lecturers for the pleasure and profit derived from their efforts.
Resolved, That we gratefully acknowledge a debt of gratitude to Prof. Billhardt, the very efficient instructor of music, for conducting the exercises in vocal music. To Mrs. Prof. Herman for rendering her aid on the organ and to Mr. Steek for his organ. That we cordially express our thanks to the Middleburgh band for the excellent music furnished so conducive to the success of the Institute.

Resolved, That we sincerely thank the citizens of Middleburgh and vicinity for the hospitality and kindness shown during our stay in their midst.

A. M. WONDER, MISS AGNES SHOLLY, A. L. SPANGLER, M. I. POTTER, T. G. ARBOGAST, Committee.

The Supt. having divided the county, by townships, for holding Local institutes, and appointing committee of each district to decide upon dates etc., agreed upon the following dates:

Perry and West Perry townships, Jan. 24, 25, 1890, at Fremont; Franklin, Centre townships, and Middleburgh, at Middleburgh, Jan. 3 or Feb. 1; Chapman and Union townships, at Port Trevorton, Jan. 10, 11, West Beaver, Beaver, Adams and Spring townships, at Adamsburg, Dec. 21, 22; Washington and Middlecreek townships, Freeburg, Feb. 14, 15; Monroe and Jackson townships, Shamokin Dam, Feb. 7, 8; Selinsgrove and Penn townships, at Selinsgrove, Jan. 17 and 18. After Prof. Billhardt thanked the teachers for their kindness bestowed upon him and their obedience, Supt. Herman addressed the Institute, followed by roll call—98 teachers responded, closing with music, "All Hail the power of Jesus name."

A Lady's Perfect Companion

Painless Childbirth, a new book by Dr. John H. Dye, one of New York's most skillful physicians, shows that pain is not necessary in Childbirth, but results from causes easily understood and overcome. It clearly proves that any woman may become a mother without suffering any pain whatever. It also tells how to overcome and prevent morning sickness, swelled limbs, and all other evils attending pregnancy. It is reliable and highly endorsed by physicians everywhere as the wife's true private companion. Cut this out; it will save you great pain, and possibly your life. Send two-cent stamp for descriptive circulars, testimonials, and confidential letter sent in sealed envelope. Address Frank Thomas & Co., Publishers, Baltimore, Maryland Nov. 14, 1888.

Rupture cure guaranteed by Dr. J. B. Mayer, 801 Arch St., Phila. Pa. Ease at once, no operation or business delay. Thousands cured. $5 for circulars.
