Some of our farmers are through ploughing for their spring crop.

The boys of the calithumpian band, furnished Johnnie Wagner with some choice music the night of his wedding. Johnnie was well pleased, and furnished lots of cigars for the occasion. Their wishes are that he may never die, or a tree fall on him or any of his family.

Perry W. Treaster has broken ground for his new house, which he intends putting up this winter.

Boys, if you say you will not do a thing for the year, stick to it, and don't do it. Such a thing as to use mint lozengers to kill the smell of some "O be joyful," which you had taken before you went to see your girls is rediculous.

W. G., you don't make a bad police on certain occasions, as you are only called upon on criminal cases, the State should present you with a badge of honor.

Mr. Bowersox' team of mules ran away the other day and ran into Joseph Goss' spring-wagon and smashed things up considerably. Joseph received some severe bruises and is confined to his house from the result.

eve passed off very pleasantly and satisfactorily. Mrs. S. Bowersox and Mrs. J. S.

Hassinger spent several days very pleasantly in Sunbury and Milton. Miss Amanda Weirick is spending the holidays in Harrisburg.

Alta Schambach, Evora Attig, Will and Ira Harner, and Charler Howell put in smiling faces on Xmas, fresh from the "city.

J. R. Swengle from C. P. College and F. U. Gift from Bloomsburg Normal are spending their vacation at home. We hear the guns "banging" in the woods every day. Our boys are learning to be skillful hunters. They must make a good appearance for they obtained a dinner consisting of pie and doughnuts free gratis. Perhaps there were some other attractions—ask Ira and

Two Germans, with their tools, on their way to Johnstown for work were found dead above the water house on Sunday morning, horribly mutilated. A third partner jumped the train here on Saturday evening. These two men were seen sitting by a pile of warm cinder at the R. R. waiting for a train. It is supposed they fell asleep and the train killed them in the night. One had a home, wife and child in Philadelphia. The other was single. Their partner that left on Saturday eve ning was hunted up and found. He took the married one home on Monday. The township Overseers prepared them both for burial and buried the other man here in the graveyard. It was a very sad and pitiful
