

"Try Ayer's Pills"

For Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout, Stephen Lansing, of Yonkers, N. Y., says: "Recommended as a cure for chronic Constipation, Ayer's Pills relieved me from that trouble and I have from Gout. If every victim of these diseases would heed only three words of advice from the inventor, they would be cured."

"I have derived great benefit from Ayer's Pills. Five years ago I was taken with rheumatism that I was unable to do my work. I took three boxes of Ayer's Pills and was entirely cured. Since that time I am never without a box of these pills."—Peter Christensen, Sherwood, Wis.

Rheumatism.

No medicine could have served me in better stead.—C. C. Rock, Corner, Avoyelles Parish, La.

C. F. Hopkins, Nevada City, writes: "I have used Ayer's Pills for sixteen years, and I think they are the best pills in the world. We keep a box of them in the house all the time. They have cured insect bites, headaches and rheumatism. Since taking Ayer's Pills, I have been free from these complaints."

Pleasant Occurrences.

Written for the Poor. Christmas has come and gone; and with it many merriments on this Evangelical circuit. Exercises were conducted in the following churches: Smithgrove, Middleburgh, Paxtonville, Kratzerville, and Centreville, all of which proved to be a grand success; but the grandest success was that of giving Rev. S. Aurand, pastor, a birthday surprise on 2nd Xmas, Dec. 26th. When Brother Aurand and family returned home from Middleburgh, where they had received quite a donation, which the kind friends had brought into their neat little Chapel for them, they found their house occupied by the energetic members of Smithgrove. After Brother Aurand was escorted by one of the numbers into the parlor, he was asked to occupy a very handsome rocking chair, which he did, after which Miss Lillie Smith delivered the following presentation address: "It becomes my pleasant duty to address you at this time in behalf of your many friends who have come here to do you honor. We are working with you in the great cause. You are our leader. We have sworn allegiance to the church. You have been sent among us to preach the word of God. When you are discouraged we will encourage you, for encouragement is an element to success. We know that the best of lives are beset with difficulties, trials, and hardships. We have come here to renew our pledge of friendship, not only to profess but to prove. The people among whom you labor appreciate your christian zeal and energy, your exemplary character, and as a token of our esteem for you, I present to you this chair, in behalf of your friends. The present is very suggestive. It is indicative of rest. Time has already sprinkled your head with its snows, that elastic step has given way to the measured and careful tread of old age. That strong arm that so long defended the truth, has lost some of its strength. When your body must yield to nature's demands may you find rest and comfort in this chair. Old age is beautiful. The morning of life may be full of expectations; the noon may be fruitful of good works; but the evening of life is the time of calm repose and holy meditation."

To this our venerable father responded. He said: "Friends of Smithgrove—I cannot find words to express my gratitude for this token of your appreciation of my feeble efforts in laboring among you as your pastor. I always enjoyed myself among you. For 34 years I am in the ministry. I have labored on different fields, and was always kindly treated, but nowhere have I labored with greater satisfaction than in my native county among my friends. And now in the evening of my life, for you have well said that 'time has already sprinkled my head with its snows,' and I may soon have to retire from efficient work in the ministry. This, my 32nd birthday will ever remain one of the most pleasant spots of my life. I shall the more enjoy this beautiful chair as I may rest my weary limbs in it. I again say, thank you."

Scarcely had the excitement subsided when a party from Kratzerville dropped in upon us, also bringing a number of valuable presents, which we would like to mention, but space will not permit. After being permitted to enjoy a bounteous meal the day was spent in pleasant conversation and music. Ere our dear friends took their departure, we sang that grand hymn, "God be with us till we meet again," after which the writer led in prayer, followed by another short address by Rev. Aurand, in which he said, "I am as firm in God's service as ever."

How very true, indeed. Although 34 years of his life have already been spent in the itinerancy, yet he travels this circuit with as much ease and vigor as the youngest. Long live our father in the ministry, and give him many more such birthdays.

Allow us, his associate on this circuit, to state that the dear people may not forget us, but also gave us many valuable gifts for which we are very thankful. Our prayer is, with Bro. Aurand and family, long live the people of Middleburgh circuit, for they have all been very kind to us.

Fraternally,
L. S. REICHARD, J. P.

P. S. After this article was nearly written, Bro. Shirey and family, of Pleasant Point, dropped in upon us and gave us quite a donation. Paxtonville also remembered us at their Xmas anniversary. Thank you
L. S. R.
