The gubernatorial contest.

At this stage of the game the contest for the nomination for Governor seems to be between Delamater and Hastings, with Delamater in the lead. They are both young men comparatively, and pleasant, agreeable, able gentlemen.

A Card.

FRIEND HARTER.—I have received a number of letters from my friends of different parts of the county asking me whether or not I would be a candidate of the third term for the Assembly at the coming primary election.

Mr. Helfrich's business venture in the South will require all his time, and he wisely declines the nomination for a third term to the office he so satisfactorily filled.

Troxelville.—Daniel C. Hackenberg bought six acres of land of the Troxel Brothers, and is now busy putting a box on to move in April.

More sickness than there is at present at this place and vicinity no community cares to have.

Mrs. Daniel M. Moyer is down with a cancer. Her physician says she cannot live over two weeks.

On Sunday in the absence of Rev. J. M. Stover, Rev. R. F. Hassinger preached in the St. Luke's church at this place.

Jacob D. Shradler sold his Millin county farm to James R. Treaster, of Milroy. Consideration $2,250.

Ammon, what makes your wrath boil over so? Is it because "Masher" and "Trapper" can go where you must stay away? Just wait till you have lost your milk teeth, then your days are dawning.

Greenhoe & Goss took an invoice of their stock last week, and found that they have goods to the amount of $4,351.96.

CENTREVILLE.—The gripe and other ailments are in a prosperous condition in this town and vicinity. Many people are sick, though I don't know of any serious cases.

Merchant C. M. Showers, J. C. Swineford, and C. A. Hendricks celled among friends in Laurelton one day last week.

C. F. Berger and Cal. Woolly spent last week amongst relatives in Port Trevorton.

The hens are doing their duty once again. Eggs are only 15 cents per dozen. Cap, the huckster, says it will give a man the egg-gripe to buy them at that price.

Prof. A. B. Sherry and wife were in Millinburg on Saturday.

It is about time that we have a little snow for a change.

Dr. G. C. Mohr and Merchant J. C. Raudenbush, of Laurelton, accompanied by their wives, mingled among friends here on Sunday.

Rev. Minsker of Central Pa. College, New Berlin, preached a soul-stirring sermon in the Evan. church, Sunday evening.

Bo. WIDDEL.
