Send in orders early for Spring lection tickets. The Musical Convention

The Musical Convention, held in Middleburgh, was a grand success, notwithstanding the heavy rain and snowstorms, which prevailed during last week. The class was a large one, and contained many fine singers and musicians. The choruses rendered were of the highest grade. and Snyder county can be proud of the talent displayed on this occasion.

The class organized on Tuesday morning, and after three days drilling were able to render some of our best standard choruses and many other difficult Four Part Songs. Not enough praise can be given to Snyder county papers abound in these singers for their zeal and perseverance. #### FIRE AT FREEBURG.

Between twelve and one o'clock on Tuesday night the people of Freeburg were awakened by a loud explosion. In an instant the flames burst through the windows of the store-house owned by Mrs. Elizabeth Mertz and occupied by B. J. Bickel, general store. In less time than it takes to tell it, the burning building was surrounded by an eager anxious crowd to save what they could but found it uscless, and an effort was made to save the adjoining dwelling house of Mrs. Mertz, but the flames spread rapidly, the dwelling caught fire and the inmates scarcely escaped with their lives. The next building was J. B. Shirk's tin store which was completely gutted, though its contense were removed with little damage to the goods, but the building, though still standing is ruined.

What caused the fire is a mystery are still in the grasp of the grip, but Mr. Bickel was away from home and by all apperance they are all going the clerk closed the store about 11 o'clock. The loss to Mrs. Mertz in W. H. Hoffman, telegraph student household goods and the two buildof this place has gone to Virginia ings is estimated at $2500 and had 45 dollars per month. We are sorry el is estimated at $3000, fully insurforts to make this undertaking a to lose Mr. H. and wish success in ed in companies represented by W. H. Snyder. Mr. Shirk's loss is about $400 and is covered by insurance.
