THE OHIO LEGISLATURE.

Providing for the Appeal of Election Contests to the Supreme Court.

As an outcome of the Marquis-Lampson contest Mr. Laylin has introduced a bill in the General Assembly which provides that contest for Circuit and Supreme Court judges and all State officers shall be appealed from the Canvassing Boards to the Supreme Court, which has exclusive original jurisdiction; the appeal to consist of a resolution of the Canvassing Board setting forth the grounds upon which it is impossible to agree. The contestee must answer in fourteen days and the contestor reply to the answer in five days from the time the answer is filed. Depositions may be taken before a Notary, and the testimony of the contestor must be filed within twenty days from the reply and the testimony of the contestee within twenty days after.

It provides also for oral testimony. The Supreme Court is given power to render judgment of induction or ouster. It can also require the contesting elector, if he is not the claimant, to give bond for costs; and further it may determine what portion of the cost may be taken from the State Treasury. The bill provides that the court must hear the contest, if practicable, before the term of office in dispute begins. If either party to the contest be a member of the Supreme Court he can not of course sit.

Local self-government and home rule have found Representative Heffner to introduce a bill taking the power of appointment of the Columbus Board of Elections out of the hands of the Governor and placing it in the hands of the Mayor. The Board is delegated power to appoint its own Secretary.

Other bills introduced were: To establish uniform time throughout the State; to provide that the State shall pay convicts having spoken to support 60 cents a day; making it a misdemeanor for a husband or father to abandon his family and providing a punishment of 1 to 3 years' imprisonment; requiring Common Pleas Judges to appoint Boards of Visitors to penal and charitable institutions in each county in the State.

WOMAN SUFFRAGISTS UNITE.

The Three Organizations, at a Meeting in Washington, Pool Their Issues.

Heretofore there have been three National Women's Suffrage Associations working for the same object. There were the American Woman Suffrage Association, the National Women's Suffrage Association, and the National American Women's Suffrage Association. Hereafter the last named organization will be the only one in existence, the first two having decided at meetings at Washington to consolidate with the third. The combined organizations held a meeting at which 100 delegates were present, representing 25 States and two Territories. Officers were elected as follows: President, Elizabeth Cady Stanton; vice president at large, Susan B. Anthony; recording secretary, Rachel Foster Avery; corresponding secretary, Alice Stone Blackwell; treasurer, Rev. H. Spofford; chairman of executive committee, Lucy Stone. The public meeting of the National American Woman's Suffrage Association, as the consolidated organization is called, began Wednesday.

ADDING A CRIME TO A WRONG.

Thirty Masked Men Surround a Negro's House and Wound a White Woman.

A party of masked men, numbering about 30 and posing as whitecaps, surrounded the house of Dennis Davis, colored, at Brook Hill, a small village six miles from Frederick, Md., and calling for Mrs. Rebbeca Bruchey, white 40 years old, they accused her of unlawful intimacy with Davis and threatened to kill her. She opened the door a little way, when a Colt's revolver was fired by some one and the bullet struck the woman in the left breast below the heart, coming out under the right arm. She was probably fatally wounded. No arrests.

LUNGED THROUGH A BRIDGE.

Narrow Escape of Passengers From a Horrible Death—An Engineer Killed.

The engine and baggage car of the Galveston Express plunged through a bridge over Salt Fork creek, six miles south of Wichita, Kan. The passenger coaches were left on the brink. Roadmaster E. Peters, of Newton, was killed; Engineer Wand and Fireman Smith each had a leg broken; the Express Messenger, name not learned yet, both legs broken; Miss Cain, of Udell, four ribs broken; Josiah Ericksen, of Topeka, arm broken; Edward Whitney, of St. Louis, fractured collar-bone, and several other passengers suffered from cuts and bruises.

VICARIOUS ATONEMENT.

Young Man Serving Out a Penitentiary Sentence on a Salary.

In the case of Samuel Landis, charged with receiving stolen goods, taken from the Erie Railroad, which is on trial at Urbana, it was developed that James Shehey, who was a saloon in Landis' saloon, is now serving time, having been induced by Landis to plead guilty to receiving the goods in his absence. Landis is paying Shehey, who is a young man, a salary for serving the time which should be served by himself. Several convicts were taken to Urbana to testify in the case.

A DEAL OF ABOUT $1,000,000.

The English Syndicate Buys the White Rubber Interest of the Country.

A cablegram from England was received by rubber men of Trenton, N. J., to the effect that the English syndicate, with whom many of the representatives of the Trenton rubber men have gone to negotiate, had agreed to the terms of the Trenton men, with what modified, for the sale of the entire rubber interest of this country. The manufacturers met on Wednesday night and approved of the modification, and the deal may now be considered consummated. The amount of the deal will be about $1,000,000.

Robber Walton in Canada.

Superintendent Fuller, of the Pacific Express Company, has received a telegram informing him that F. A. Walton the clerk who stole $35,000 of the company's money at Ft. Worth, Tex., some days ago, has been traced to Toronto, Can. No arrest has been made, but Superintendent Fuller says that if it can be proved that Walton carried any part of the stolen money into Canada he can be tried there for grand larceny and extradited. Mr. Fuller also says there will be no let-up in this matter until Walton is definitely located, captured and punished for the crime.

TO PAY LAMPSON'S SALARY.

A Warm Discussion in the Ohio House—The Dow Law.

When the senate bill to pay E. L. Lampson, the unseated lieutenant governor, his salary and contest expenses came up in the house much violent opposition to it was developed on the Democratic side, although the chairman of the finance committee announced that at Mr. Lampson's urgent request the amount had been cut down to $800 from $1,800. Nearly all morning was taken up in the discussion of the matter. The dispute was all on the Democratic side, the Republicans saying not a word.

The wives of all the deceased members have been voted their husbands' full year's pay, and several members even denounced this. The bill finally passed with 21 nays.

A bill was introduced providing for the excension of the land option feature of the Dow law to counties. Now it applies to towns and townships.

WAR IN AFRICA.

A Vessel Blown Up and Over 200 Arabs Perish.

In his struggle for the recovery of the throne of Uganda, Mwanga was assisted by Europeans. There was very severe fighting. During the battle a dhow on the lake conveying some Arab chiefs with munitions was blown up and all on board perished. In the dhow were twelve Arab chiefs and 200 fighting slaves. The battle occurred at the capital of Uganda. Only three Arabs escaped. The victims include members of most of the leading Zanzibar families. It is not known who were the Europeans who aided Mwanga, but it is surmised that they belong to Jackson's and Gedge's caravans.

Suit Against Potter Palmer.

Francis Duffy, a New York newspaper advertising solicitor, has sued Potter Palmer, of Chicago, for $15,000 damages for the loss of his overcoat, it being stolen from a peg in the Palmer House billiard room. He says that in one of the pockets was a list of newspaper advertisers, with their ratings—the most complete in this country—and that it was stolen. He sues more for its loss, placing its value at $15,000.

LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

Movements and Prices at Central Drove Yards, East Liberty, Pa.

CATTLE.

With favorable weather and a goodly attendance of buyers the market was fairly active, and, while all admitted that full last week's prices were obtained, some salesmen quoted an advance of 10@ 5c. The most of the offerings graded from fair to medium. But few common and the same was true of prime heavy-weights; good to prime export cattle, weighing 1,500@1,600 lbs., may be quoted at 4@4.90@@; good 1,200@1,400 do. do. 4@4½; fair 1,000@1,100-lb. do., 3.65@3.90c; little thin steers and heifers, of which there were but few on sale, ranged along from 2½@3½c; these were in demand by buyers wanting something cheap and within the past week or two stock of this character has improved as much as any other kind.

SHEEP.

Included in the sales were the following: Deck Ohio lambs, 65 lbs, at 6c; deck common sheep and lambs, 60 lbs, 5.05c; deck common Pennsylvania sheep, 70 lbs, 4½; 1 car good Ohios, 110 lbs, 6c; deck good 80 lb Ohio lambs at 6½c; deck do do., 84 lbs, 6.6c; 1 car good Ohio sheep, 150 lbs, 6c; 1 do do., 88 lbs, good, 5. 9c; deck good Ohio sheep and lambs, mixed 70 lbs, 5½c; deck good Ohio lambs, 88 lbs, 6.85c. There was a carload of good Chicago-bought sheep, weighing over 100 lbs., sold on Saturday at 5.70c. Philadelphia buyers, for some reason or other, do not take very kindly to these Western sheep, especially when they have but little competition, as was the case Monday.

HOGS.

The supply was light; market more active and stronger, and on the better grades an advance of 5 to 10c was realized; medium weight Philadelphia hogs sold at 4.3½ to 4.4 c; good light Yorkers, 4½ to 4.30c; common Yorkers, 4.10 to 4. 5c; common barnyard stock, of which there was considerable on sale, was dull at 3.90 to -c. The pens were pretty well cleared early in the day, notwithstanding Eastern buyers generally were disposed to complain that the market was too high as compared with the Eastern markets, but with a goodly attendance of country buyers sellers were enabled to bring the former up to the rack, and that, too, without much trouble.

How to Dress for the Ball.

THE dancing dress to-day is a thing of gauze and other sheer materials. Glimmer of gauze and sheen of silk are for the time veiled by materials like the flimsy gauzes of Indian weave, "floating air" and "woven mist," but made in the land of France, and called by the less poetic name of chiffongnes. A few dresses for married ladies are made of brocades and satin, but for young women the embroidered lisses and tulles, or the spangled gauze, which look as if they might have belonged to the wardrobe of an Oriental princess, are made into graceful dancing gowns called "Josephine dresses," with simple, straight full skirts of gauze over satin, and low, square-necked bodices, which might have been modeled after the familiar portraits of the beautiful Empress.

The severe style of this dress, with its high sash of soft surah, is considered especially suitable for a debutante, though in such a case the square neck is veiled with lace. There is a decided objection among mothers to the adoption of the extreme decollete styles worn by the older women of society, by girls in their first or second season. In many cases the evening bodice for young girls is merely pointed and filled in with lace, while the sleeve is entirely omitted or is an elbow sleeve. Other dresses for young ladies are draped with figured net or gauze and caught up with rosettes and garlands of ribbons in the flat effect now usually seen.

LITERARY NOTES.

How Uncle Sam makes his paper money is described and explained by Franklin P. Smith in an illustrated supplement on "The Bureau of Engraving and Printing," which appears in the number of Harper's Weekly February 12th.

"Mrs. Martha J. Lamb, Editor of the Magazine of American History, is a member of 16 learned societies, a life member of the American Historical Association, and a fellow of the Clarendon Historical Society of Edinburgh, Scotland."—Book Chat, N. Y.

The "Valentine number" of Harper's Bazar, to be published February 14th, will contain appropriate poems by Bessie Chandler, W. R. Mason and Marian Douglas. Kate Upson Clark will contribute a short story, entitled "Cupid and Minerva," illustrated by A. B. Wenzel; and Dora Reade Goodale another, entitled "A Back-door Romance."

Hark! to the sound of humanity's wail's!

Headaches and humors, a merciless flood,
Weakness of lun s and disorders of blood.
Yet there's a helper that certainly saves,
Thousands of people from premature graves.

Protect Your Lungs.

Winter is harder on the Lungs than on any other part of the body. Its chilling breath comes dangerously close to their warm and delicate tissues. Its icy hand almost touches them. The one thing, therefore, to do in winter, above all things else, is to protect the LUNGS. But if through carelessness or by unavoidable exposure, you should contract a Cold, or be laid up with Pneumonia, or Bronchitis, or Pleurisy, or that dreadest of all Lung diseases, Consumption, do not delay a moment, but get a bottle of PE-RU-NA and commence taking it at once. You will be both surprised and delighted at your rapid recovery. If your Bowels happen to be out of order at the same time regulate them with MANALIN, a wonderfully gentle but effective laxative. Only $1 a bottle for either.

Prepare for Spring

Now is the time to attend to your personal condition in preparation for the change to spring season. If you have not "wintered well," if you are tired out from overwork, if your blood has become impure from close confinement in badly ventilated offices or shops, you should take Hood's Sarsaparilla at once. It will purify and vitalize your blood, create a good appetite, and give your whole system tone and strength.

"For a first-class spring medicine my wife and I think very highly of Hood's Sarsaparilla. We both took it last spring. It did us a great deal of good and we felt better through the hot weather than ever before. It cured my wife of sick headache, from which she has suffered a great deal, and relieved me of a dizzy, tired feeling. I think every one ought to take something to purify the blood before the hot weather comes on, and we shall certainly take Hood's Sarsaparilla this spring."—J. H. PEARCE, Supt. Granite Ry. After Dangers of the "Grip."

[From The Sunday Globe, Boston, Mass, Jan. 5, 1890.]

"Boston papers facetiously remark that 'La Grippe is seldom fatal unless you use all the remedies recommended for it.' They are correct. The writer fully believes that the end of the poor 'grip' victim, if he tried all the patent medicines that have adorned (?) the pages of our leading newspapers as 'sure cures for La Grippe,' would be like Mark Twain, who for his famous cold tried every remedy advised by friends, until his stomach became so weak he began to vomit, and continued until, as he avers, 'he was like to throw up his immortal soul.' We notice one of the leading advertisers of the day has been conspicuous at this opportune time by the absence of any claim to cure the 'grip.' They certainly deserve a 'chromo,' and we feel like giving them a free 'ad' for their compassion upon our readers. The more so for the reason that probably more people have used their remedy, that good old family medicine, Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, for this foreign influenza, than all others combined. And why not? Certainly no other will relieve catarrhal colds, coughs, bronchial troubles, or neuralgic pains, as promptly as that same old Anodyne Liniment, and the above are all symptoms or results of La Grippe. Herein lies the real after dangers from this epidemic of influenza; it leaves the mucous membrane linings of the nose, throat and bronchial tubes tender and very susceptible to the catarrh, bronchial troubles and pneumonia, which come with February and March in our northern climate. We shall still pin our faith to a remedy for this after trouble which acts promptly to allay inflammation; for therein lies the chief danger from throat and lung troubles. And surely a remedy that has the friends that Johnson's Anodyne Liniment has, after eighty years' trial by a critical public, and has been used for the 'grip' more extensively than all the advertised remedies, deserves, as we said, a medal, and has before it we hope a prosperous year as an octogenarian."

JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT WAS ORIGINATED BY AN OLD FAMILY PHYSICIAN, IN 1810.—All who buy direct from us, and request it, shall receive a certificate that the money shall be refunded if not satisfied. Retail price, sent by mail, post-paid, 35 cents. Six bottles, $2, express pre-paid to any part of the United States; duty also paid to Canada. If your nearest druggist or general storekeeper does not keep Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, urge him to get it for you. If he will not, send to us. Do not fail to send for our pamphlet.—I. S. JOHNSON & Co., 22 Custom House St., Boston, Mass.

JEWELS AND LACES.

"Oh, girl with the jewelled fingers,
Oh, maid with the laces rare!"

What are your jewels and what are your laces worth to you if, from undergoing the trying ordeals which fashionable society imposes on its devotees, and which are enough to test the physical strength and endurance of the most robust, you break down, lose your health and become a physical wreck, as thousands do from such causes?

Under such circumstances you would willingly give all your jewels and all your laces to regain lost health. This you can do if you will but resort to the use of that great restorative known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Thousands of grateful women bless the day it was made known to them.

For all those derangements, irregularities and weaknesses peculiar to women, it is the only remedy, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper and faithfully carried out for many years.

As an invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine, "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, exhaustion, prostration, hysteria, and other distressing, nervous symptoms, commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.
