THE PRIMARY.

On Tuesday of next week the Snyder County Republican Standing Committee will meet and designate the time for holding the primary election.

It seems to be the desire of not only most of the candidates but of the people as well, to have it take place in May instead of March as heretofore.

Here we are at the end of February, and should the primary be held in March it would allow candidates less than a month to canvass the county over roads that will be almost impassable.

The campaign for the general election will be plenty long enough from Saturday, the 31st of May, (which will allow the necessary sixty days from the 1st of April) to the 11th of November.

Refusing candidates the time (which means the privilege) to canvass the county may result in a nomination in haste that may be repeated at leisure, and the Standing Committee will be looked to for granting a fair field, a fair fight, and plenty of time.

CENTREVILLE.—We will find out this (Tuesday) evening who will be our next township officers. But you need not be an office holder to become a lawmaker, nor need you be a politician to become a statesman.

Every voter is a king, and his realm is as wide as his knowledge and influence extends.

Miss Ella B. Sheary of Millinburg, was the guest of her brother S. F. Sheary several days last week.

Mrs. Nathan Schambach of Port Trevorton paid a week's visit to her parents and friends here recently.

Prof. J. E. Bond whose slack rope performance on Christmas and New Year, had won the favorable attendance of the people of the surrounding country, will again be on hand next Saturday, 22nd, and perform a feat never before attempted in this place.

He will walk a tight rope backwards and forwards, stretched from the highest buildings on Main Street, besides other performances, as lying at length, hanging by the neck, feet, arms and teeth, also slack rope and trapeze performances. Fail not to see his grand leap for life.

John D. Bogar of Port Trevorton, was in town on Friday, visiting his many friends on a political errand.

D. R. Smith of Laurelton, who by the way is one of the overseers of poor of Hartley township, was here on business, Thursday.

Prof. C. A. Walter of New Berlin, was here with his parents and lady friends over Sunday.

J. F. Benfer and C. F. Berger, accompanied by their "dears", spent Sunday with friends near Globe Mills.

Sawyers H. F. Mohr and W. L. Snook of Centre county were home with their families over Sunday.

Prof. H. A. Walter, teacher of the Grammer school was home with his parents at Smithgrove over Sunday.

Miss Minnie Reichly is a visitor in town, the guest of grand-mother Reichly.

PAXTONVILLE.—Rev. L. S. Reichard of the Evangelical Association preached his last sermon for this conference year last Sunday morning.

A full house testified for the high regard in which he is held by the people. He has acquitted himself nobly during the year as pastor, and we would be pleased to have him again. May success attend him through life.

Mrs. A. S. Hassinger left for her future home in Elkins, West Virginia on the 11th. She was accompanied by Miss Clara Hassinger.

A spelling bee at Moyer's school house was one of the events to please the boys and girls. It was well attended. P. Erb of near Bannerville came in time to prove himself a good speller. Come again.

W. D. Harner of Shamokin has come home to stay awhile. His best girl looks "awfully pleased."

One of our young men enjoys the rare pleasure of having "moonshine" night and day.

Carrie Derr of New Berlin and Jane Brunner of Millinburg are visiting their parents.

Valentine day was remembered by some of our people.

Quiltings are all the go just now. Shouldn't wonder we will hear of weddings soon. One thing is sure—the champion quilters are enjoying "high livin'." Minecopic, chickens and gossip is the regular bill of fare.

Miss Annie Strunk, a former resident is visiting friends and acquaintances.

Among the comers and goers, we noticed Miss Sallie Ocker of near Middleburgh, Miss Wagner of McClure, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Howard Schambach, Miss Clara Graybill of Richfield is visiting her sister.

Wm. Boyer of Fremont spent a few days at the home of Chas. Boyer, CLAIR.

NEW BERLIN.—News is scarce this week.

Our people seem mostly to be over the Grippe.

Our public schools will render another selection of literary work on Friday evening, February 28. County Superintendent B. R. Johnson will then lecture upon some important subject. He was not here two weeks ago as announced.

The Excelsior and Neocoman Literary Societies will conduct a joint meeting in the college chapel next Saturday evening. The program will consist of song, choruses, dialogues, &c.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Evangelical Church will have a religious entertainment with band opening in their church next Sunday evening. Prof. H. N. Conser who has traveled through entire western and southern Europe will speak on Mission work in Europe.

Prof. A. E. Gobble will go to Schuylkill Seminary at Fredericksburg on Thursday a week to deliver a lecture.

The District Convention of the Y. M. C. A. will convene at Williamsport, Pa., from Friday, Feb. 28, to Monday, March 3. The District comprises the counties of Centre, Lycoming, Clinton, Northumberland, Montour, Union and Snyder. Our college organization will be well represented.

Our worthy steward Irving Lenker has gone home to see his "pa" and his "ma." But he sees some other worthy attractions.

A Lady's Perfect Companion.

Painless Childbirth, a new book by Dr. John H. Dye, one of New York's most skillful physicians, shows that pain is not necessary in Childbirth, but results from causes easily understood and overcome. It clearly proves that any woman may become a mother without suffering any pain whatever. It also tells how to overcome and prevent morning sickness, swelling limbs, and all other evils attending pregnancy. It is reliable and highly endorsed by physicians everywhere as the wife's true private companion. Cut this out; it will save you great pain, and possibly your life.
