

Emphatically a NEWS-PAPER for the People. Its columns are always open for a discussion of topics of interest to its patrons.

It is not an "Organ." It wears no "color." It never dodges a issue. And never sold out. Guaranteed circulation 1800. Subscription $1.50 a year.

ITEMS of LOCAL INTEREST

C. Gutelius' prices on clothing lower than ever. Rev. C. O. Lehr is conducting a tract meeting at Oriental and meeting with good success. F. Renninger, of Halstead, Mass., is here visiting his parents. Adam B. Renninger's. Edward Bolig and Jacob Herman repairing and re-painting the edge across Middlecreek between Middleburgh and Franklin. There will be preaching in the Zion church on Sunday morning evening by Rev. I. P. Neff. Sunday school promptly at 9 o'clock. To restore, thicken, and give you luxuriant growth of hair, to keep color natural as in youth, and to move dandruff, use only Hall's Hair Renewer. My, Oh, My! I guess it does to go to Garman's for your shoes. Why here is a pair that I bought for 95 cents and they ask me $1.50 for the same shoe at other places. List of letters remaining uncalled in the Middleburgh Post Office: F. Dem, Joseph Middleburgh, Delia Martin, William Hoar, Henry Isaac, Mike Biniski, Sydney B. Lawrence. J. W. SWARTZ, Post Master. Mr. R. A. Simpson, of York, Pa., to be at the Eagle Hotel, Middleburgh, opposite P. R. R. depot, day, November 21st, from 10 o'clock a. m., to Saturday noon, the day of Consultation and examination free to all. Notice.—Will the party of Middleburgh, who owns cattle, please keep them at home. No gate or bars can be left open five minutes until they are in. They are a nuisance and will be treated as such if not kept from premises. GEO. S. SNYDER. Husht do in dime lava an forenuff ma si-sholl g'sana? Say; husht do? Woo? Am Joe Lumbard si naww ivver mowl? SCHEDULED AT ONCE.—50 good, sober, busy men, on a sawing and prop-making many years, and good prices paid. Men of family preferred. Cheap. Call on or address, C. K. SOBER, Glen Union, Pa. NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.—The unpaid tax collector of Franklin township will be in Middleburgh on Nov. 14, and 15 of November to receive school, school building and special tax issued by the supervisor to pay the Hare damage and AUSTIN GIFT, Col. Lecture will be delivered at Benavon on Thursday evening, Nov. 7. Subject: "How did the Universe originate and when did the World become a habitable Earth." Rev. G. C. Hasskarl. Proceeds from lecture to go to the Evan. Lutheran Church. Admission 15c. M. Moatz, accompanied by his Mrs. L. N. Myers, started for Ohio, on Tuesday. Mr. Moatz intends locating in Akron, a first-class citizen, sober, industrious, reliable, just the kind of the West is in need of, and we wish success. Mrs. Moatz and children expect to follow in the future.

For fine Photographs, go to Deibert's gallery 2 squares north of Court house. Nov. 13, pd. The prohibitionists cast twenty votes in Snyder county on Tuesday, and sixteen of these come from Spring township. J. C. Schoch, of Franklin township, has been confined to his house for several weeks with gastric neuralgia of the stomach. Notice is hereby given that all persons hereafter found trespassing on any of my land will be dealt with according to law. J. D. Hare. As I just received another lot of boots, and wish to close them out, it will pay you to call, see the stock, and hear the prices. W. I. GARMAN. Call and see my $1.65 boot. W. I. GARMAN. "One touch of Nature makes the whole world kin." Diseases common to the race compel the search for a common remedy. It is found in Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the reputation of which is world-wide, having largely superseded every other blood medicine in use. The consciousness of having a remedy at hand for croup, pneumonia, sore throat, and sudden colds, is very consoling to a parent. With a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, one feels, in such cases, a sense of security nothing else can give. JOSHUA, 7th CHAPTER.—The people of Selingsgrove are sorely oppressed with taxes and they complain that everything is turning against them. A lecture on "How did the Universe originate and when did the World become a Habitable Earth?" The true answer by Rev. G. C. H. Hasskarl, Ph. D., member of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, and member of the National Academy of Theology. The lecture will be held for the benefit of the Evan. Lutheran church of Adamsburg, Pa., and to be delivered at Adamsburg on Wednesday, Nov. 12th, 1890. Doors open at 7 p. m. Admission 15 cents. A good Hanging Lamp will be given to the person who holds the lucky number on Friday, Nov. 28, '90. Any person who purchases $5.00 worth of goods with cash or produce until said date will be given a card containing a number which entitles the holder to a chance for the lamp. The lucky number shall be sealed in an envelope and not a person including ourselves shall know what the number is until above date when it will be made known. RUNKLE & WALTER. When you go to Milton you should not fail to drop in and see J. R. Smith's display of furniture, carpets, lamps, draperies, &c. In fact it would be worth a trip to go and see it. It is simply bewildering. Their prices are also surprisingly low as their wholesale and retail figures almost touch elbows, thus enabling purchasers to buy almost at cost, besides having it delivered free of cost to any part of Snyder county. Their advantages are a large stock to select from, low prices, and obliging clerks.

AN OFFICIAL VOTE OF SNYDER COUNTY FOR 1890. Table with columns for DISTRICTS, GOVERNOR, SENATE, HOUSE, SHERIFF, TREASURER, COMMISSIONERS, AUDITORS, and COUNTY OFFICERS. Lists candidates and their respective vote counts across various districts.

ROLL OF HONOR.—The following persons have paid their subscription to the Post to the dates opposite their names. Should any mistakes occur in these credits or on your paper please notify us: M. S. Wendt, April 1, '91; I. N. Jarrett, Oct. 1, '91; Amos Oberholtzer, Nov. '90; A. K. Oberholtzer, Nov. '90; Perry Hassinger, Nov. 1, '90; H. K. Mosser, Nov. 1, '90; Anna Herman, Nov. 1, '90; Amos Bowersox, Nov. 1, '90; Levi P. Treaster, Nov. 1, '91; C. H. Ush, Nov. 15, '90; Jacob Heeter, April 1, '91; A. R. Smith, Sept. 1, '91; Jesse Kline, Nov. 15, '90; C. W. Bingaman, Nov. 1, '90; C. F. Bingaman, Aug. 1, '91; Josiah Bingaman, Dec. 1, '90; James Aurand, May 1, '91; C. G. Bingaman, Jan. 1, '91; D. F. Hassinger, Jan. 1, '91; Levi Fisher, Nov. 1, '91; Mrs. Clara S. Lilley, Jan. 1, '91; W. H. Wagner, Oct. 1, '91; Y. W. Romig, Nov. 1, '90; Kallbach & Spangler, Sept. 1, '90; B. H. Custer, Aug. 1, '91; Josiah Bingaman, Sept. 1, '91; J. W. Dreese, April 1, '91; John A. Deirich, Nov. 1, '91; John Smith, May 1, '91; Mina E. Walter, Dec. 1, '91; Hurley Fisher, Nov. 1, '89; H. H. Herbst, June 20, '90; Israel Sanders, Jan. 10, '91. BEAVER SPRINGS, Oct. 27.—I am very much gratified to inform the many readers of your valuable paper that according to announcement, the Silver Metal Contest held in the Lutheran church at Adamsburg, Pa., on Sunday evening, October 26th, was a grand success in every known particular. The audience room was crowded with attentive listeners, and very many whose hearts were in the work, and with the contestants, could not be there on account of the threatening rain. The program as announced was carried out to the letter with good results. Many hearts were touched to the extent that eyes were filled with tears—thus openly showing to the contestants that the seed sown had taken root. The future will show whether it is lasting or not. The contestants proved themselves worthy of the work assigned them inasmuch as they did credit to all their different pieces. The judges, Rev. Dr. Born, Rev. Landis and H. J. Mitchell, were almost unable to decide to whom the medal belonged, as the contestants so ably performed their parts, and their manner of address, elocution, gestures, etc., were to a great extent nearly perfect and produced the same good impression upon the audience—several of them having tied. It resulted however in conferring the honor upon Miss No. 8, who was greatly surprised upon receiving the medal. We are sorry that not all could get it—only one out of the eight. The remarks by Rev. Dr. Born upon the presentation of the medal were very impressive and we trust have made a lasting impression upon all present. Time and space will not permit to enter into detail, but will add that this was one of the most successful and instructive entertainments yet held in Adamsburg. A LISTENER. A Card. BEAVERTOWN, PA., Nov. 5, '90. ED. POST. Dear Sir:—I take this method of expressing my regrets at the seeming general offence caused by the now famous anti-Atkinson placard. For the sake of the Republican party and in deference to its future prospects I frankly acknowledge that I was hasty in expressing my prejudice against one of the candidates, but hope that it may not result in anything more serious than a local unpleasantness. I would further say that the Delamater and Waters Club of Beavertown had nothing whatever to do with the anti-Atkinson banner, neither is it in any way responsible as a club for the demonstration made by me. JNO. P. KEARNS.

MIDDLEBURGH.—Henry Martin, the great bicyclist, and W. H. Gill, teacher and student in telegraphy, of Beaver township Sundayed with their parents. Mrs. Alice J. Bingaman left on Monday for Wilcox, to make it her future home with her husband, James Bingaman. It would be well for some of our young gentlemen in this vicinity to remember the Sabbath instead of playing ball and chasing rabbits. They should remember that they must give an account of themselves in the coming future. James Vanzandt, of Middleburgh is the successor of A. J. Morgart as store-keeper and gauger at Shawyer's distillery. Mr. Morgart was transferred from there to Huntingdon. A certain young teacher from this vicinity came in quite late on Saturday night. Squire, chase him home. MR. PLEASANT MILLS.—Two of our boss coon hunters, both armed with guns and a dog, were out for a general coon hunt one evening last week. The dog struck a trail which they thought was a monster coon. They tracked it for several miles across the mountain, when they found it perched on a lofty tree. The senior member of the party shot and killed it on the first shot. The junior member picked it up and remarked, "as is over an grouser! Yusht habe ene amohl." But when the old coon hunter got hold of it he found it to be a monster "tom cat." Mr. R. S. Meiser has at present two millers in his mill and is doing a rushing business. work on a new barn. Philip Nace and G. F. Broscius, Esq., made a business trip to Northumberland county last week. BEAVERTOWN.—Our boys indulged in the usual amount of fun in celebrating Hallow Eve, turning topsy turvy door steps, and things in general about town. Rev. G. C. Hasskarl will preach his first sermon as pastor of the Lutheran Church on Sabbath evening. A. B. Specht has run pipes across the street and into his dwelling house and store room in order to warm them by steam from the engine in his foundry. Jacobs from Huntingdon performed the job. Cornhusking will soon be over, a number of farmers have already finished. The School directors have placed shutters in the gable ends of the town school rooms, and have placed brick chimneys in place of the old wormout sheetiron. David Bouch finished sowing his last field of rye on Saturday, Nov. 1. Oliver Sanders returned from Bellevue, Ohio, where he had been working all summer. A. B. Specht's two horses came running through town at a lively gait on Saturday afternoon with the front part of the wagon. His son Willie had loaded the wagon with wood about a mile from town, then let the team stand in the road while he drove the cow out of the field. The coupling pole was broke, the wood lost, and the doubletree broke by running against a post at the east end of town. Mr. Specht has painted and papered the inside of the Town Hall, and things are beginning to look very attractive for the music Convention to be held the last week of the present month. Word has been received from Bellevue, O. that Thomas Moyer a former citizen of this county died very suddenly at his home at that place two weeks ago. Irvin Kinney moved into the house with his mother to-day (Tuesday.) The indications are that a full vote will be polled to-day. FRANKLIN. DIED. Near McClure, on October 30, Miss Matilda, daughter of John and Anna Lehr, aged 53 years, 8 months and 8 days.

What He Saw in Heaven. From the Centre Hall Reporter. A correspondent in Bellefonte writes: Quite a religious sensation has just developed in the village of Julian, Huston township, this county. About two years and six months ago an illiterate farmer, named Mattock Fry, who could neither read nor write, apparently died. The undertaker was sent for, the man was laid out and put in his coffin, but 15 hours afterward he revived, and in 24 hours from the time the doctors pronounced him dead, the man was able to sit up and talk. He then told those present that he had died and had gone to heaven, but had sent back to fill a certain mission, and that he would now live for two years and six months, and at the expiration of that time to the very day he would tell his story. Time passed and frequently Fry would have an attack of his old trouble, heart disease and it seemed as if he could not possibly survive, but each time he recovered. On last Sunday the two years and six months were up. For the past two weeks Fry advertised that he would tell his story of Sunday evening in the United Brethren church at Julian, of which church he is a member. When the time came the building was crowded to its utmost capacity by those curious to hear what would be said. Among the audience were several clergymen. The hour arrived and the heaven-visitant waded into the pulpit and at once surprised his hearers by pointing the finger at a chapter in the Bible. The man had never been known to read before; he could not even write his own name. But the surprises did not end here. For one hour and fifteen minutes the man talked. He described heaven, its appearance, the golden gates, the streets of pearl; he told of friends seen and recognized; described the great white throne; and in addition propounded the scriptures more plainly than was ever heard in that church before. While he was talking he told his listeners to ask him any questions they wished to and he would answer them. Accordingly, a whole volume of questions, the answers to which would have puzzled the best theologians of the present day, were asked, and in not one instance did he fail to give a full and satisfactory answer. The sensation created among church people is great. Many persons had driven miles to hear the man talk, and now the only theme of conversation in that locality is of Mattock Fry's visit to heaven, as every one now truly believes. There is nothing gained by fighting a man like Joe Lumbard, and we are tempted to say to him as uncle Toby did to the wasp: "Go devil; there is enough room in this world for you and me." No matter what he is charged with he comes out with a flat denial. We have two school directors who are willing to swear that he offered them five dollar bribes in the superintendency contest, and to how many more he offered money and offices we do not know. But he says we want to reflect upon the school directors. How he wiggles! He says a man from Centre county told him that we were not to be depended upon what we wrote when cornered. We left Centre county when a mere boy—fresh from the farm—went to Ohio and paddled our own canoe ever since. The people of Snyder county know ten times more of us than the people of Centre county, and we believe our friends are quite as numerous in this county as Joe Lumbard's. He denies his statement to us as to his manner of dead-heading his subscription list. Upon our honor, we would no more believe Joe Lumbard under oath. He calls us a runt. We might retaliate but we want to assure him that this "runt" is at all times entirely able to take care of itself in any manner, shape, or form against a pot-bellied glutton, and don't you forget it.