

"KILLED."

"Killed" again! It has more lives than a cat, this Republican party.

History teaches that every great measure requires some time to get into popular appreciation, and the people are exceedingly apt to be caught and swayed at first by the objections to a strange policy before they fairly understand it.

It would be safer for Democrats and Free Traders to take it for granted that the Republican party is going to be stronger after this defeat than it was before.

BEAVERTOWN.—Rev. J. N. Wetzler and his congregation celebrated the Holy Communion on Sabbath, the 9th.

The Pawnee Indian Medicine Co. have been selling medicine, fancy bead work, &c. and gave exhibitions in the Town Hall during the last week.

George Dreese, Sr., purchased a lot from Edward Freed on the corner of Market and Orange streets for $500, and Jacob F. Herbster has the contract for erecting a 28x23 feet house with a 16x18 feet wing to it, all to be complete and ready for occupancy by the first of April next.

Miss Julie Romig has built a 12x16 feet addition to her house to be used for carpet weaving therein.

John Hetrick, Archie Middleburgh, and I. N. Wentzel returned from their W. Va., hunting expedition well pleased with their trip.

Rev. E. Swengel, of Lewisburg visited friends in this town over Sunday and preached in the Evangelical church in the evening.

Squire W. H. Coleman placed a new shingle roof on his barn last week.

FRANKLIN.

Luther's Day at McClure.

Christ's Lutheran Sunday school of McClure, observed Sunday, Nov. 16, as Luther's Day, with the following order of exercises:

INTRODUCTION. Hymn—The Lord is my foundation, by the School. Invocation—by the pastor, A. K. Zimmerman.

Hymn—A little child, by the infants. Essay—Origin of Luther and the battle hymn, by Dora Bratton. Hymn—Refuge, by the School.

Recitation—by Miss Bertie Dreese. Hymn—Praise the Father, by the infants. Essay—Birth and Childhood of Luther and his first hymn, by Dora Bubb.

Hymn—Nothing shall ever grow old, by the School. Recitation—By Charlie Lambert. Hymn—Gladly sing, by the School. Address—By the Pastor.

Hymn—Little Light, by the infants. Benediction—By the Pastor. The exercises were interesting, instructive and entertaining; they were all well rendered, including singing, and especially do the Misses Bratton and Bubb deserve much credit for the manner of their recitations.

The pastor's address was listened to with marked interest and attention and so with all the other exercises. He spoke of the conversion of Luther and the spirit of God as the propulsive force to actuate the immortal champion on to victory and success.

MEMBER. KRAMER.—Philip Roush and Jacob Hummel shot two wild turkeys weighing 14 and 16 pounds respectively.

A. D. Kramer returned from his hunting trip to W. Va., with lots of tales. J. A. Smith is building a new house.

One of our town houses is rented to a young man without a wife. Do you suppose he'll keep bachelor's hall?

Eber Bolinger and Charles Mitchell went to Glen Union, Pa., but Mr. B. was compelled to return home on account of his wife's illness. He reports work plenty and wages good.

Our people are trying to raise a singing class at this place. Our hunters are taking the rabbits by the dozen.

Quite a number of our young people will eat at their own table by next spring. BOWEN.

LOWELL.—The farmers are busy preparing for corn in the spring. Ulysses Herbster is confined to his bed with typhoid fever.

Grand-mother Nerhood is improving slowly from her late illness. John H. Romig is talking of moving himself and kit, to Middleburgh to work on Jerry Crouse's stove mill.

It is supposed that J. J. Steely does not need any advise in regard to the putting up of trespass notices. But, probably, he would take advice from the party who tore them down.

Tom please bring home all the fore-quarters of venison you can get, and if you can not make use of them yourself, you have plenty of friends who can.

The question is, "why are some men allowed to hunt on grounds that have trespass notices up, and others are not?" Ask, the owner and you can find out in very few words.

Hog cholera is killing the fat hogs off in the lower end of Millin county at a wonderful rate. One man lost 30 head, another 15, and so on. Some few cases have been reported here. U. No.

THE SUN. FOR 1891.

Some people agree with THE SUN's opinions about men and things, and some people don't; but everybody likes to get hold of the newspaper which is never dull and never afraid to speak its mind.

Democrats know that for twenty years THE SUN has fought in the front line for Democratic principles, never wavering or weakening in its loyalty to the true interests of the party; it serves with fearless intelligence and disinterested vigor. At times opinions have differed as to the best means of accomplishing the common purpose; it is not THE SUN's fault if it has seen further into the millstone.

Eighteen hundred and ninety-one will be a great year in American politics, and everybody should read THE SUN.

Daily, per month, $0.50. Daily, per year, 6.00. Sunday, per year, 2.00. Daily and Sunday, per year, 8.00. Daily and Sunday, per month, 0.7. Weekly Sun, one year, 1.00. Address THE SUN, New York.

HISTORICAL PUBLISHING CO., 2911 Market Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Is an effective remedy, as numerous testimonials conclusively prove. "For two years I was a constant sufferer from dyspepsia and liver complaint. I doctored a long time and the medicines prescribed, in nearly every case, only aggravated the disease. An apothecary advised me to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I did so, and was cured at a cost of $5. Since that time it has been my family medicine, and sickness has become a stranger to our household. I believe it to be the best medicine on earth." —P. F. McNulty, Hackman, 29 Summer St., Lowell, Mass.

FOR DEBILITY, Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Is a certain cure, when the complaint originates in impoverished blood. "I was a great sufferer from a low condition of the blood and general debility, becoming finally so reduced that I was unfit for work. Nothing that I did for the complaint helped me so much as Ayer's Sarsaparilla, a few bottles of which restored me to health and strength. I take every opportunity to recommend this medicine in similar cases." —C. Evick, 12 E. Main St., Chillicothe, Ohio.

FOR ERUPTIONS. And all disorders originating in impurity of the blood, such as boils, carbuncles, pimples, blotches, salt-rheum, scald-head, scrofulous sores, and the like, take only Ayer's Sarsaparilla. PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. Price $1; six bottles, $5. Worth $5 a bottle.
