Congress Majorities for Ten Years.

There has been an unbroken line of Democratic Houses of Representatives since 1874, except in 1880 and 1888, so that the election of a Democratic House at this is neither an astonishing nor an astounding event. In 1874 the country was surprised, but in 1890 it is merely a repetition of the invariable "off year" rule for sixteen years. The loss of the House in 1874 did not prevent the election of a Republican President in 1876, although the contest was severe and close. The Democratic House of 1878 made possible the Republican victory of 1880. The Democratic House elected in 1882 had a plurality of 81. In the light of present knowledge of how Mr. Blaine was counted out in this city in 1884, the precedent continued to hold good then, but was broken by fraud. It was most assuredly the election and proceedings of the Democratic Congress in 1886 which swept the Republican party back into power in every branch of government in 1888, and if history repeats itself, the Democratic House now elected will be the means of bringing about a Republican victory in 1892. The policy of the government cannot be changed. A Republican President and a Republican Senate stand in the way of any measures of free trade which the Democrats in their elation might be tempted to pass, and long before 1892 the McKinley bill will have proven its merits in practical operation, so that the voters of the country will look back in wonder at what they did in 1890. -N. J. Press.

BEAVERTOWN, Nov. 25, 1890.

Ed. Post.—The prospects for a successful Musical Convention could not be better. Monday night at the opening concert the class numbered about sixty, to which number were added some twenty more at the time of this writing. The exercises were excellent, and if the treat given to the audience on Monday night was the result of only one rehearsal, what may we not expect at the regular concert evenings. Friday and Saturday, when the class will have had the advantage of almost one week's training. This, with the special features, reserved for the concerts, will make them the finest ever heard in this neighborhood, and our music loving Snyder county people should not lose this opportunity of hearing good music rendered with the right understanding.

MONDAY NIGHT'S PROGRAM.

Gathering Home—Chorus by Class. Piano Solo—Chauncey Keeley, Selinsgrove. Soprano Solo—Miss Mary Wiest, Freeburg. The Trumpet will sound—Chorus by Class. Baritone Solo—Paul Billhardt, Middleburgh. Solo for Euphonium—Calvin Stetler, Middleburgh. Address—Mr. Billhardt, Middleburgh. The beautiful Summer—Chorus by Class. Soprano Solo—Miss Emma Arnold, Freeburg. The Flower-dance—Chorus by Class. Cornet Solo—Herm. Hassinger, Middleburgh. Dream on (Serenade)—by Class. The soloists and class were rewarded by an attentive audience with hearty applause. Mr. John Hazel, of Williamsport, the famous Cornetist, will play several solos on Friday and Saturday evenings, and the Middleburgh Band will assist in Saturday's concert. Don't miss it.

MIDDLESWARTH.—The sale of Mrs. Deobler was well attended. Estates were served by two hucksters. The butchering season has begun and fresh sausages are enjoyed by many. Thursday will be Thanksgiving day and our schools will have a holiday. Quite a number of our young folks are taking a course of catechetical instruction under pastors Zimmerman and Wetzel in the old and new Lutheran Churches, Troxelville.

Boys, what ceased your attraction in Centerville? Were you insulted by some of the pretty girls.

Last Friday evening Berge's school had a spelling match and the young folks enjoyed a good time. Some of the boys indulged in their usual way of vulgarity. Now boys, don't you think it would be more mannerly of you to behave like boys than to go and interrupt those who strive to benefit the community. Girls, where did you find that demijohn, or was it a pint flask that one of the gentlemen passed around?

Snyder County Teachers' Institute.

The 33rd annual session of the Snyder county Teachers' Institute will be held in the Court House, Middleburgh, Pa., December 1-5, 1890. The following instructors have been secured: J. P. Welsh, Prin. Bloomsburg S. N. S. D. A. Harman, Supt., Hazleton, Pa. Henry Houck, Deputy Supt. Public Instruction, Goo. P. Bible, Lock Haven, Pa. Supt. E. U. Amiller, New Bloomfield, Pa.

TO THE TEACHERS. The County Institute is provided for you. It is designed to aid you in your work—to make you stronger, more energetic and more efficient in the discharge of your duties. Books, teachers, school houses, etc. are but means in the educational work and the Institute can be only a means to the teachers. Let us make the best of it. Every thinking teacher must be an inquiring teacher. We hope to enlist a number in the actual work of the Institute. The following subjects are suggested for discussion: Self Activity and Growth.

F. C. Bowersox. Civics and how to teach it. G. W. Walburn. Character, the chief aim in teaching. R. F. Hassinger. The Responsibility of the Teacher. Jas. F. Keller. Penmanship. G. G. Brown. Practical Arithmetic. I. W. Teats. Current History. M. I. Potter.

E. O. Excell's "School Songs" will be used during the day sessions. Teachers who have copies will please bring them along. The Middleburgh Band will furnish music during the evening sessions.

The Directors will meet in convention Thursday afternoon. We should have a large representation. Deputy Supt. Houck is expected to be present to address the convention and he should be greeted by a large number.

LECTURE COURSE. Monday evening—Geo. P. Bible. Literary and musical entertainment. Tuesday evening—Hon. Henry Houck.

Wednesday evening—C. E. Bolton. Subject: "America's War for the Union."

Thursday evening—Rev. J. R. Dimm, D. D. Subject: "The Philosophy of True Education."

This is probably the strongest course ever presented before a teachers' Institute. We expect crowded houses for every lecture. Tickets can be secured at the Post Office.

CHAS. W. HERMANN, County Superintendent.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is an effective remedy, as numerous testimonials conclusively prove. For two years I was a constant sufferer from dyspepsia and liver complaint. I doctored a long time and the medicines prescribed, in nearly every case, only aggravated the disease. An apothecary advised me to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I did so, and was cured at a cost of $5. Since that time it has been my family medicine, and sickness has become a stranger to our household. I believe it to be the best medicine on earth." -F. F. McNulty, Hackman, 29 Summer st., Lowell, Mass.

FOR DEBILITY, Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is a certain cure, when the complaint originates in impoverished blood. I was a great sufferer from a low condition of the blood and general debility, becoming finally, so reduced that I was unfit for work. Nothing that I did for the complaint helped me so much as Ayer's Sarsaparilla, a few bottles of which restored me to health and strength. I take every opportunity to recommend this medicine in similar cases." -C. Evick, 14 E. Main st., Chillicothe, Ohio.

FOR ERUPTIONS Ayer's Sarsaparilla

And all disorders originating in impurity of the blood, such as boils, carbuncles, pimples, blotches, salt-rheum, scald-head, scrofulous sores, and the like, take only

DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. Price 25c; six bottles, $5. Worth $5 a bottle.

THE SUN.

FOR 1891.

Some people agree with THE SUN'S opinions about men and things, and some people don't; but everybody likes to get hold of the newspaper which is never dull and never afraid to speak its mind. Democrats know that for twenty years THE SUN has fought in the front line for Democratic principles, never wavering or weakening in its loyalty to the true interests of the party it serves with fearless intelligence and disinterested vigor. At times opinions have differed as to the best means of accomplishing the common purpose; it is not THE SUN'S fault if it has seen further into the millstone. Eighteen hundred and ninety-one will be a great year in American politics, and everybody should read
