CATARRH CURED.

Only Three Things Necessary to Cure any Case of Chronic Catarrh—Time, Patience and the Proper Remedy—Everybody has the Time—All Can Get the Remedy—Patience Alone is Wanting—Synopsis of a Lecture on Catarrh by Dr. S. B. Hartman, of Columbus, Ohio.

WHAT DOCTORS SAY OF CATARRH.

Whether chronic catarrh can be permanently cured or not is a question about which there is a great difference of opinion among the professional few, and also among the non-professional masses. The majority of physicians dislike to undertake the cure of this disease because they know that only the most tireless patience and faithful obedience on the part of the patient, as well as skillful treatment on the part of the physician, will be rewarded with success. Hence it is that a great proportion of the medical fraternity hesitate or refuse to treat chronic catarrh on the plea that it is incurable.

WHY SOME PATIENTS FIND NO CURE.

Hence it is also that so many patients fail in finding a cure because of their unwillingness to continue treatment long enough. Many people who have had chronic catarrh for five, ten, and even fifteen years, will follow treatment for a few weeks, and then, because they are not cured, gives up in despair and try something else. These patients never follow any one treatment long enough to test its merits, and consequently never find a cure. It is a well known law of disease that the longer it has run the more tenaciously it becomes fastened to its victim.

CHRONIC DISEASES RECOVER SLOWLY.

Some doctors go so far as to say that it will take as long to cure a disease as the disease has run; but while I do not believe that this is necessarily true, yet it is beyond dispute that the longer the catarrh has run the more difficult of cure it becomes. It seems to be very hard to get patients to understand this fact and submit to the inevitable.

PALLIATIVES DO NOT CURE.

The difficulty with which catrrrh is cured has led to the invention of a host of remedies which produce temporary relief only. The unthinking masses expect to find some remedy which will cure them in a few days, and to take advantage of this false hope many compounds which have instant but transient effect have been devised. The people try these catarrh cures one after another, but disappointment is the invariable result, until very many sincerely believe that no cure is possible.

LOCAL APPLICATION CAN NOT CURE.

The various kinds and modes of local applications, such as sprays, atomizers, douches, inhalants, fumigations, creams, ointments, lotions, gargles, etc., etc., have in many cases a soothing effect on the inflamed surfaces, and are sometimes useful to assist a cure; but neither of them nor all of them together ever did or ever will cure a case of catarrh. These things may give temporary relief, but it is useless to expect a cure of them. Catarrh is not a local disease, hence can not be cured by local treatment.

CATARRH IS A SYSTEMATIC DISEASE, and therefore requires persistent internal treatment, often for many months, before a permanent cure is effected. The mucous lining of the cavities of the head, throat, lungs, etc., are made up of a network of minute blood vessels called capillaries. The capillaries are very small elastic tubes, which, in all cases of chronic catarrh, are congested or bulged out with blood so long that the elasticity of the tubes are entirely destroyed. The nerves which supply these capillaries with vitality are called the "vasa-motor" nerves. Any medicine to reach the real difficulty and exert the slightest curative action in any case of catarrh must operate directly on the vasa-motor system of nerves. As soon as these nerves become strengthened and stimulated by the action of a proper remedy they restore to the capillary vessels of the various mucous membranes of the body their normal elasticity. Then, and only then, will the catarrh be permanently cured. Thus it will be seen that catarrh is not a blood disease, as many suppose, but rather a disease of the mucous blood vessels. This explains why it is that so many excellent blood medicines utterly fail to cure catarrh.

THE ONLY HOPE OF SUCCESS

in the permanent cure of a case of chronic catarrh is to devise some remedy that will stimulate the nerves which supply the capillary blood vessels. I know of but one remedy that has this most desirable effect, and that remedy is Pe-ru-na. This remedy strikes at once at the root of the catarrh by restoring to the capillary vessels their healthy elasticity. Pe-ru-na is not a temporary palliative, but a radical cure. Its action is necessarily slow, but permanent.

CATARRH IS CURABLE.

In the majority of cases (especially those of less than two years' duration), catarrh can be cured in a few weeks by the proper use of Pe-ru-na. Some cases are cured by six bottles, others by four, and we have not a few testimonials who have professed a cure from even one bottle of this remedy. Where a case of catarrh has existed for five or ten years a permanent cure can not be reasonably hoped for in less than three or four months, and in some rare cases the continued use of Pe-ru-na for one year has been necessary to effect a permanent cure. But, unless the case is very old or complicated, a speedy and permanent cure is sure.

THESE ARE FACTS

based on many years' use of this most excellent catarrh remedy. No one could be more anxious than myself to discover some catarrh remedy that would cure in less time, but it seems to be an impossibility to do so. It is not only true of catarrh, but also of all other chronic diseases, that it takes time and persistent treatment to cure.

A CURE GUARANTEED.

To all those who conscientiously follow the above advice a cure is guaranteed. There need be no failures. Each bottle of Pe-ru-na is accompanied with complete directions for use. The remedy can be had of any Wholesale Druggist in the United States and most Retail Druggists. A pamphlet on catarrh of value to those who are about to begin treatment sent free by the Pe-ru-na Medicine Company of Columbus, Ohio.

HUNDREDS OF LIVES LOST

Awful Destruction by Floods in the Far West.

Yuma, Ariz., March 1.—Over 250 houses are in ruins in this place and 1,400 people are homeless. It is feared that hundreds of lives have been lost in the Gila Valley. No reliable reports can be obtained from that locality, as the roads are impassable and all the wires are down. Above Yuma the river is seven miles wide and below the town water covers the country in one grand lake over fifty miles across. Over 1,000 persons are being fed daily at the Southern Pacific Hotel, and the town has provisions sufficient for eight days more. The blockade of west-bound trains, it is expected, will be raised in about four days, but it will be at least two weeks before they can go east.

Floods in Mexico, Too.

City of Mexico, March 2.—The port of San Felipe has been flooded by a storm. One schooner, one lighter and 13 smacks have been wrecked.

Eighteen houses have been destroyed and many families made homeless. A number of lives have been lost and many cattle have been drowned.

A Successful Stratagem.

Among the hill tribes of the Anglo-Indian frontier cunning is quite as highly esteemed as personal prowess; but even these masters of stratagem are occasionally outwitted. A Hindoo traveler who had occasion to pass through their country recently laid out all his money in several large diamonds, which he bound round his head with a soiled rag, made to look like the bandage of a wound. He then put on ragged clothes, and loaded a donkey with loaves of spiced bread, such as the mountaineers like, putting a good dose of opium in each. He soon fell in with half a dozen brigands, who paid no attention to the ragged traveler, but pounced upon the bread and ate the whole of it. The opium soon put them to sleep, whereupon the traveler took what money they had, their arms, and the best of their clothes, and went his way in peace. But he took care not to travel by that road again.

Knowledge is Power.

It said that knowledge is power, but it takes a good deal of it to know how to get along without work. A knowledge of the human system and its needs enabled Dr. White to produce the most wonderful cough remedy ever offered to the sick and afflicted. It is called Dr. White's Pulmonaria, and is sold by druggists everywhere. Three sizes—25 cents, 50 cents and $1.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury,

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure to get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co.

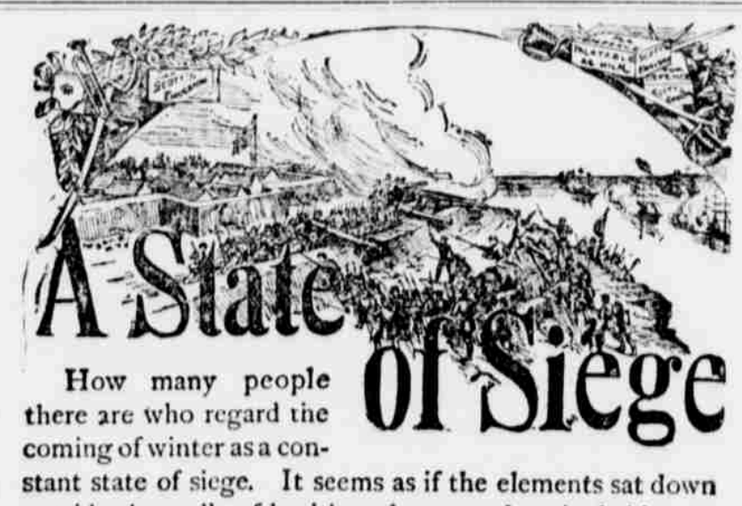
A State of Siege



How many people there are who regard the coming of winter as a constant state of siege.
