

BANNERVILLE.—The funeral of Mrs. Mary Hook, wife of Reuben Hook, of Millin county, took place on Wednesday, Feb. 25th, at the Samuel's Church. The Revs. Zimmerman and Lawyer officiated. It was largely attended by friends and neighbors, Charles Smith, of Banner-ville was undertaker, and he always gives perfect satisfaction, is always ready when called upon and is reasonable in his charges.

Mrs. Rebecca Lepley, of Banner-ville is on the sick list.

Ammon Spigelmoeyer contemplates running a picture gallery. He takes a good picture.

John O. Goss started for Big Valley on Wednesday, the 25th, to his saw-mill.

The school boys, of Bannerville had better keep a little quiet in school for the director is near at hand. Miss Tudy will do what's right.

J. O. Goss, our enterprising lumberman of Bannerville, means business on his farm as well as elsewhere. He is giving it a heavy coat of McClure fertilizer (lime). Geo. Swangor (his farmer) will have something to do this spring.

SPARKLING EYES.

SALEM.—The Jackson and Penn township Local Institute met at Salem on Friday evening, Feb. 27, at 7 o'clock, when the following officers were elected: President, Chas. W. Landis; Vice President, Jacob Kuster; Secretary, A. A. Yoder. A song by the school and literary work by the scholars. The various subjects assigned to the teachers were thoroughly discussed.

Miss Lottie Spangler visited her friends in Middleburgh.

Eggs are plenty and the price is declining.

Wallace Rau, who has been ill for some time, is still confined to his room.

C. K. Fisher on Tuesday wielded the birch in the Salem school as a substitute for A. A. Yoder, who was visiting the school he taught last year.

Charles Klingler, who had gone to Kansas, returned on Saturday.

F. C. Fisher says he likes to sling the girls at a ball better than slinging the yard-stick in Geo. M. Witmer's store.

Institute was well attended on Friday evening. The house was filled beyond it's capacity.

Geo. M. Witmer is doing a very good business. He is always paying the highest prices for produce etc.,—especially so since he added J. P. to his name.

The School's school debating society is prospering and the boys all seem to take an interest in it as every meeting thus far was well attended.

The Salem school is preparing for an entertainment which will be held in the near future.

On Thursday evening last, about the time the people had all retired, some miscreant passed through this village yelling and screaming which frightened the neighbors in the neighborhood. It might be well if justice would meet it out to them for their misbehavior.

CROSSGROVE.—Farmers are making preparations for their spring work.

The Fairview reporter made a slight mistake—instead of Fairview it is Moundview.

The party at Wm. Knapp's was well attended—on the outside.

Pitty, don't you know that you are violating the law by carrying a revolver.

The Institute at Kaldpetzers' was a success on Thursday evening and good music was given.

R. A. Wagner is making preparations to move on the farm of Mr. Helfrich in Spring township.

To the Sparkling Eyes correspondent: Mistakes will sometimes occur. Such was the case with Mr. Jacob Peter's funeral—it being at the St. John's church instead of the Ridge church.

Mr. Schambach and the wife of Howard Schambach were the guests of W. G. Wagner's on Sunday week.

Jacob Smith, of near Bannerville, left for Altoona on Monday.

Johnny visited his old place again on Saturday evening.

Calvin H. Ulsh lost a valuable horse one day last week.

The funeral of Mr. Tobias Baker took place on Tuesday, March 3rd, at the Baker's union church and was largely attended.

It is not good if a man has to much business. Such is the case with Ezra. He does not know whether to work on Smith & Co's stove-mill or clerk for Alex. Knapp in Stone Valley.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

DR. R. J. KENDALL, Co.,
Bellevue, Pa., Nov. 27, '90.

Gentle: I would like to make known to those who are almost persuaded to use Kendall's Spavin Cure the fact that I think it is a most excellent Liniment. I have used it on a Blood Spavin. The animal went on three legs for three years when I commenced to use Kendall's Spavin Cure. I used ten bottles on the horse and have worked him for three years since and has not been lame.

Yours truly,
W. L. A. CURT.

DR. R. J. KENDALL, Co.,
Enochsburg Falls, Vt.

Gentle: In praise of Kendall's Spavin Cure I will say that a year ago I had a valuable young horse become very lame, hock enlarged and swollen. The horse would not move but I procured Kendall's Spavin Cure and purchased it from its inventor, W. L. A. CURT, of En-ochsburg Falls, Vermont. I bought a bottle and used it on my horse and in a few days he was able to move and in a few more days he was completely cured. I bought a second bottle and before it was used up my horse was cured and has been in the team doing heavy work all the season since last April, showing no more signs of it. I consider your Kendall's Spavin Cure a valuable medicine, and it should be in every stable in the land. Respectfully yours,
E. GENE DEWITT.

Price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietor.
