Thursday, Feb. 11, 1892. A Crisis for Young Men.

Presuming that one party is as good as another so far as the people are concerned, it is not the little political contests in townships, counties and districts that makes thinking men Republicans and Democrats.

Presuming that all young men are intensely loyal, they must view with abhorrence the despicable act, and the men as well, who inspired the opposition to the bill in Congress...

Republican Administration? England is to-day, through our enemy as it was in 1774, 1812 and 1862, and every line of dissent to our administration from American papers is caught up with avidity by the British journals...

Until such manifestations cease on the part of leading Democratic journals little hope of Democratic ascendancy can be entertained, for every generation is more pronounced American, and the coming man will 'little note nor long remember' the counselings of corrupt political figure-heads who place party above patriotism.

Robbie, youngest son of H. F. Charles, of Water street, one day, in the forepart of last week, fell from the hay left to the ground and was picked up in an unconscious condition.

The new express agent, James Moyer is filling the bill at the Selinsgrove station. Miss Mary Noetting, of Market street, had a very enjoyable leavetaking last Friday evening.

believe this was the first one in town since '92-leap year has set in. Miss Clara Moore spent last week at Fisher's Ferry, visiting Mrs. Kate Campbell.

BEAVER SPRINGS. Last Thursday and Friday a party of hunters were out in search of bear.

J. R. Moyer purchased the Bachman property at Beavertown from H. I. Romig. J. D. Benfer bought the Adam Specht mansion.

Andrew H. Ush sold his mill property to H. W. Ush. Miss Carrie Ush, who has been staying in West Virginia for the last two months, returned home.

Misses Maude and Annie Smith, of Milroy, are visiting friends at this place.

J. O. Kemper has invented and is preparing a first-class rubber goods for gossamers, etc., which he will soon place upon the market.

The prospects for a new lodge of L. O. O. F. are very promising and will be instituted shortly.

Wm. P. Gross has rented a farm in West Beaver and will move there this Spring.

J. O. Wagner, M. D., while out riding fell off his gig and broke one of his ribs. Dr. Smith attended the injured man.

SHOEMACKER CO.'S Electro-Gold String Pianos.

AMONG the most important points of superiority of these magnificent Pianos is that longer than those of other makes they remain in tone, and that, while many instruments, which at first give satisfaction, become flat and wry the Shoemaker Piano is still staunch and true.

I do not present the Shoemaker instrument in competition with the low-priced and absurdly misnamed "cheap" Pianos, this county and adjoining ones have been flooded with; but to those who appreciate a Piano insusceptible of further improvement—an instrument to do credit to their taste—I confidently offer the SHOEMACKER PIANO as unexcelled by any in the world and at the lowest prices, which will yield me a just profit.
