LOOK OUT!

The Democrats in this District have apparently abandoned all hope of defeating Hon. Thad. M. Mahon, our candidate for Congress, and are now concentrating their forces upon Wm. H. Haekenberg, our candidate for State Senate, hoping by a vigorous onslaught at this point to break the line and capture our Leader. Republicans, have your guns double-barreled and await the attack!

The Durham "Globe" is a Genuine Article.

Chas. R. Kurtz, of the Centre Democrat, Bellefonte, Pa., has written a letter to Durham, North Carolina, asking if there really did exist such a paper as the Durham Globe, and if any such article as was printed in the Post a few weeks ago did appear in it. The reply came that the Durham Globe did exist and that the article was genuine, but that the editor was from the North and that his articles were written to make Republican campaign fuel. So much for the defense. Now, does our friend Chas. R. Kurtz for a moment imagine that such an unsavory person, as they would have us believe the editor of the Globe is, would be allowed to exist in as hot a town as Durham for twenty-four hours if he were unpalatable to the tongue of the Solid South? Would they not lynch him as they do their "damned niggers" if he had the temerity to come among them only to misrepresent them? Would they not sack his office and throw his presses into the river if he came from the North and persisted in misrepresenting the true condition of affairs in their homes? These are hypothetical questions and we proposed them to the editor of the Bellefonte Democrat as a political expert. They are founded on circumstantial evidence and there might be some doubt if we had nothing else to go on, but the editor of the Post was three below the Mason & Dixon line within the last three years, and we here and now state that the South is full of such unwhipped Rebels and the editorials in the Durham Globe is the kind of stuff they like to read. Men who would yell themselves hoarse over "Dixie," and jump into the river to escape the sound of "John Brown's Body" or "Rally 'Round the Flag."

Men who would wink at our country's flag, and bow in humble supplication to the "stars and bars." Most of these Rebels, however, are confined to the "Colonels" and "Majas," who, like Job's war-horse, smelled the battle from afar, who assisted in conscripting the poor devils, drove them into line to be maimed and killed, while they did the shooting with their mouths outside of bullet range and now want Grover Cleveland elected so they can run the White House another four years! The loyal citizens of the South are to-day confined to the soldiers—the boys who carried the muskets and who fought as only our boys know they did fight. In all our travels in the South we haven't met a single private who didn't submit to the results of the war with a willingness that was surprising, and we have the deepest sympathy for these poor fellows who fought for what they thought was right, and who now bear the scars of battle. But we haven't even a little respect for the blustering "Colonels" and "Majas" who voice the sentiments of the Durham Globe and who were not there to see the thing done.

We are sorry that these things exist, but there is no use in the Republican party burying its head in the sand like an ostrich to escape danger. The South is solid for Cleveland, and it can't be broken this year.

Grover Cleveland's pension record and his effort to return the Rebel flags makes him solid with the South, and we have not a word of condemnation for the man who endorses those actions and votes that way, but he who thinks different must point his musket the other way if he expects to hit the mark.

The Durham Globe is a genuine article!

Ideal American Manhood.

Nothing is more demoralizing to boyhood and youth than the example of a dissolute or dishonest man who wins high success and honor in life. It is the most pernicious form of bad example. An antidote for it we have to-day in the life and achievements of Benjamin Harrison.

Whether we contemplate him as the diligent student at school and college; as the devout worshiper in the house of God; as the patriotic citizen taking an active interest in public affairs and using his eloquence and effort for the cause of human liberty; as the citizen soldier who refused to persuade others to go to battle unless he was permitted to go himself; as the zealous, courageous officer, rising from the rank of colonel to that of general by his gallantry on the field of battle; as the able lawyer, after the close of the war, making his way from the bottom to the very top of his profession; as the faithful, successful statesman in the Senate of the nation, forcing respect from his enemies, winning admiration from all; as the unassuming, upright, efficient President of the Republic, personally directing with promptness, energy and consummate skill in most trying situations the ship of state safely out of perilous shoals and rocks into water deep and smooth—in whatever capacity we regard him, we see the same kindly, manly character—the ideal American citizen, father, husband and man.

In no situation in his career has the nobility of his nature appeared to better advantage than now, as he sits with solicitous care at the bedside of his invalid wife. Though a leader in the momentous pending campaign he does not allow a thought of his personal political interests to come between him and that loved sufferer.

It is worth repeating that the life of Benjamin Harrison contains the most powerful and wholesome lesson that can be held up before American youth. It points the way to success impossible to reach except by the path of honor and of duty which he has trod.

Monday of last week was the reopening of the town schools and again the tone of the old bell from its lofty perch resounds the old familiar ring, calling together those who are to hold the supremacy in years to come.

"What do you think of McVeagh?" Tom. Wise asked your correspondent the other day. "What do you mean by such a question," was asked by your scribe. "Why, don't you know he has declared his intention to vote for Cleveland?" "Very well, Tom, we can spare him, if you people can spare Gen. Sickels." This was an absolute damper for Tom, and he vamoosed.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salva and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedial drugs that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity on their merits. D. C. Kepler, Druggist, Paxtonville, Pa. Oct. 1, '92, ly.

DR. R. A. SIMPSON'S WILL BE AT

Home Office, Oct. 3 to 17
Eagle Hotel, Middleburgh, Pa., from Friday, Oct. 21, at 10 o'clock a. m. to Saturday noon.

Dr. Simpson will examine any one who may call upon him free of charge. Knowing that hundreds are living out a miserable existence with, out medical aid, some because they have passed through the "old order" without relief, and some perhaps, because they may not know where to apply, he feels justified in making these facts public. Satisfied that a number will seize upon these plain truths and be fully rewarded by a cure.

Our system of practice may need some explanation. The remedies are principally vegetable, discarding entirely the use of Calomel or Mercury, Tartar, Emetic, Arsenic and Antimony because they are disease-creating agents of the worst description. We are opposed to the use of general blood-purifying or "cure-all" drugs, which are injurious to the constitution and often dangerous to life.

Dr. Simpson treats successfully chronic or long-standing diseases of the head, Throat and Lungs, Kidney and Heart, complaints; Inverate diseases of the stomach that have defied all other methods; those fearful diseases of the nervous system arising from whatever cause; Scrophulous, Dropsy, Fits, Fever, Sores, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Ill-Conditioned Ulcer, Cancer removed without the use of the knife and cured. Asthma, Hay Fever, Rose Cold, Winter Cough, Chronic Diarrhoea, etc. All may be cured by this wonderful system, if not too far advanced. None and incurable diseases cured when all other methods have failed.

Ladies who are suffering with diseases strictly confined to their sex can consult the doctor with the assurance of a speedy cure without suffering themselves to the very often unnecessary examination. The doctor particularly invites all cases that have been given up by other physicians.

Mr. Reuben Grubb, of Liverpool, Perry county, Pa., had a cancer on his lip for several months and was completely cured by the treatment of Dr. R. A. Simpson, of York, Pa.

Miss Annie Kewin, of Liverpool, Perry county, Pa., had for many years a malignant ulcer on her lip near the ankle, and although under the treatment of different doctors, the sore grew worse. It was cured by Dr. R. A. Simpson, of York, Pa., in four months. No scraping of the bone or cutting.

For many years Mr. Charles Allison, of Glen Rock, York county, Pa., had a cancer on his face below the eye. Dr. R. A. Simpson, of York, Pa., removed it by his chemical process. He is now well and cured.

Dr. Simpson invites any one who doubts any of these statements to write to the parties and ascertain for themselves. These are only a few of the many testimonials obtained. The doctor invites correspondence from a distance. If you write enclose 4 cents in stamps. Remember the dates and call early. Jan. 31, 1892.

SHOEMACKER CO.'S

Electro-Gold String Pianos

AMONG the most important points of superiority of these magnificent pianos is, that longer than those of other makes they remain in tune and that, while many instruments which at first give satisfaction, become flat and wavy, the Shoemaker Piano still stands true. It is impossible to overestimate the advantages derived from the use of the Electro-Gold Strings. Ordinary iron-wrapped or so-called metal-plated strings, which all other makers are still compelled to use, are immediately affected by atmospheric action, gradually destroying the power of the strings to prolong and sustain the tone, rendering them liable to easily snap and break. The remedy of this has been successfully accomplished by the use of the ELECTRO-GOLD STRINGS, which are fully guaranteed against rust and emit a superior quality of tone. Do not present the Shoemaker instrument in competition with low priced, absurdly misnamed "cheap" pianos, this county and abroad, flooded with; but to those who appreciate a Piano insusceptible to atmospheric action, and whose cases are so constructed as to be absolutely proof against atmospheric action, and at the best prices, which will justify a just price.
