MENTOR.

TROXELVILLE.

The hunting party, consisting of the following gentlemen: John Mohn, J. K. Snyder and Daniel Smith, of Centreville, S. E. Banner and A. F. Solomon, of New Berlin, F. H. Brouse, of Buffalo X Roads, J. G. Middlesworth and Geo. I. Kline, of Port Ann, Uncle Rob, Middlesworth and the writer, returned from White Deer on Saturday with a fine "old fawn" which dressed the usual weight, and was shot by Centreville's veteran deer hunter.

Also all pheasants and two green snakes. Another deer was wounded by Mr. Brouse but it escaped. Deer are not over plentiful and the foliage is too thick yet, which, together with dry weather, makes it bad for hunting at present. Another thing that makes hunting unpleasant at White Deer—the woods are full of poison; three of our dogs ate some and resulted in the death of two, but the other was saved by Dr. J. K. Snyder, a specialist in such cases. The method employed by these white-livered rascals is to boil pork, saturate it with some kind of poison and place it on twigs along the roads and paths which the dogs follow returning to camp. I am told that a party at Milton offers $1,000 reward for any information that will lead to the detection of the low-lived, white-livered son-of-a-gun who does this dog poisoning.

Some of our farmers have finished husking corn.

The two schools to be held in the new school-house have not opened on account of the school-house not being finished yet. The remainder of the schools of the district opened on the 10th of this month. The building is expected to be finished this week.

CAL. JOE.

A reported outbreak of cholera at Helmetta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera but a violent dysentery which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. Mr. Walter Willard, a prominent merchant of Jamesburg, two miles from Helmetta, says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysentery. It is certainly one of the best things ever made. For sale by G. M. Shindell, Middleburgh and Dr. Sampsell, Penns Creek, druggists. Oct.

It is not unusual for colds contracted in the fall to hold on all winter. In such cases catarrh or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold. Can you afford to risk so much for so small an amount? This remedy is intended especially for bad colds and croup and can always be depended upon. For sale by G. M. Shindell, Middleburgh and Dr. Sampsell, Penns Creek, druggists. Oct.
