

PAXTONVILLE.

Our Christmas entertainment in the Evangelical Church proved a success. Every person seemed to be pleased with it, especially Grandpa Castleton and his grand children, and Uncle Lijah and Aunt Susan. Santa Claus seemed to be very liberal to our little folks this year. Grant Brunner, Clinton county visited his parents over Christmas. Ira J. Harner, of Bloomsburg, Pa., spent the holidays with his parents. He has changed somewhat on the upper lip since we saw him last, but nevertheless he is a fine young man. Miss Kate S. Bowersox who is attending school at Bloomsburg, Pa., spent her vacation at home and seemed to enjoy herself very much. Miss Laura Harner left for Shamokin on Monday, where she intends to stay this winter. We all felt sorry to see her leave home again. Allen Gilham, of Shamokin visited relatives here a few days. R. A. M. Harner, of Hastings, Pa., is visiting in this vicinity. He expects to make his home here in our town by spring. We are glad to have them come. Communion services were held in the Evangelical Church on New Year. Rev. J. Hartzler our P. E. preached two excellent sermons for us. DOXIE.

PORT TREVORTON.

We can now cross the Susquehanna on a natural bridge, and we needn't pay toll either. The sixth anniversary of the S. of V. Camp was celebrated by a grand ball and other suitable exercises. There is a rumor afloat that Port is to have another hotel. We are sorry for this and hope that it may continue to be a rumor—otherwise it would prove another temptation for our already too wayward youths. Since Christmas Ed. Thursby is firmer than ever in his belief that Simon Steffen is the best male vocalist and cornetist in this vicinity. Our Christmas entertainments remain unsurpassed by anything, of this nature previously attempted in the history of the village. The tableaux were excellent, and were conducted in a very creditable manner. Many presents were distributed, and to say all were well pleased expresses it mildly. Christian D. Bogar's pleasure however knows no bounds. He has his at his leisure. With his gift of twenty bounds. ELDEN.

BEAVER SPRINGS.

And now we write 1893. Our thermometer registered 4 deg. below zero. Both Xmas festivals were well attended and the churches were beautifully decorated. Rev. Nickolas, a student in Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, paid a visit to his brother-in-law, Rev. Fahs. Miss Mollie Ush of Swineford, paid a visit to her many friends here last week. Last week Miss Gertie Shannon moved to Peola where she will open a room for dress making. Give her a call. The Lutheran Sunday School held its annual election of officers on Sunday. Chas. Wetzel is able to be about again. A. M. Aurand and wife visited in Altoona over the holidays. Emerson Helfrich and wife of Osceola Mills, Pa., are visiting parents here. J. I. Bingham has accepted the traveling agency for the hydraulic press. Nothing uncommon to see a man and his hat part company on these icy pavements. The ice harvest last week was the best for years. Samuel Werner, W. I. Woodling, Thomas and C. E. Keller, who are running a steam saw mill in Huntingdon county, spent the Holidays at home.

LOWELL.

A Happy New Year to all. All the ice-houses in town were filled with ice last week. T. F. Swineford had an old-fashion turkey dinner on Christmas, and it was enjoyed by all who partook of it. It kept one man busy waiting on our old friend, H. W. K., of Bannerville. Emanuel Peter intends taking a lumber job in Shade Valley, Huntingdon county. If he does he will need a large number of men to assist him. Never hire a man to do your work unless you expect to pay him, for pay he will get if he has to levy on your old hat. Johnny, be honest now. Was that candy taken from the little boy's Christmas tree, or did you get it from another party while attending the law-suit at A. A. Romig. All the pledges made by our young men in this end for 1893, you are safe to bet, will be— U. No.
