Canon Carr may now be said to be the wealthiest clergyman in England, he having inherited the vast estates of Sir William Evans, the Derbyshire Baronet who died some weeks since. The Canon was connected with the late Baronet by marriage only.

Hood's Cures

My Health is Solid

As a Duck's Foot in the Mud

Cured of Gravel and Indigestion by Hood's Sarsaparilla

Mr. Frederick Earnfred
Chicago, Illinois.

"I want to say that I have been made a new man by Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills. I was in a wretched condition and paid to one physician $42 for attendance and prescriptions, which gave me no relief. I suffered intensely from gravel, and think I have endured as much misery as any man from that complaint. I gave up hope of ever getting well and was only waiting about to Save Funeral Expenses.

Nothing would stay on my stomach. I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and found that it did me good, so I kept on till I have taken fourteen bottles, and now my health is as solid as a duck's foot in the mud. I shall keep Hood's Sarsaparilla in the house, as I consider it the cheapest and best medicine in the market. My indigestion is entirely cured, and all symptoms of the gravel have disappeared." FREDERICK EARNFRED, No. 64 South Carpenter Street, Chicago, Illinois.

THE CROP BULLETIN.

Official Statistics by the Department of Agriculture of the Wheat and Corn in the Country.

The estimated proportion of wheat on hand is 26.2 per cent of the last crop the smallest percentage in ten years. The quantity on hand aggregates 135 000,000 bushels, 36,000,000 less than last March, and 23,000,000 more than the remnant of the very small crop of 1890. A very large proportion is found in States that do not spare a bushel for commercial distribution, and only 34,000,000 in the principal spring wheat states, more than half of which is required for seed in the spring. Of the winter wheat states only Kansas and California have any considerable surplus available for commerical distribution.

The corn on hand as estimated aggregates 626,347,370 bushels, or 38.5 per cent of the last product. This proportion has been exceeded in March four times in the last ten years and the quantity has been exceeded five times. The consumption of eight months 1,001,616,640 bushels, only exceeds that following the smaller crops of 1887 and 1890. The aggregate sold from farms to go beyond county lines is 277,379,000 bushels, or 17 per cent of the crop. The proportion merchantable is 1,345,445,000, or 82.6 per cent. The value returned for merchantable corn average 42.9 cents, for unmerchantable 27.7 cents making an aggregate of $655,000,000 which exceeds the December valuation by 13,000,000 averaging 40 cents per bushel.

The amount exported in twelve months is 191,000,000 bushels; required for consumption, 390,000,000; seed used, 54,000,000; visible stocks, 79,000,000, a total of 621,000,000 against an apparent supply of 729,000,000 bushels. There is therefore an apparent excess of distribution from the last two crops, of 31,000,000 bushels, as compared with previous estimates, showing, if present estimates are correct, which cannot be positively assured, that the crops of 1891 and 1892 were underestimated by 2 or 3 per cent, which would be a very close margin on the safe side. Very little old wheat is reported on hand. The average weight of the crop per measured bushel, as calculated from the returns of millers, state agents and correspondents, is 57.5 pounds, reducing the estimated product to 494,000,000 of commercial bushels.

The crop report for March of the department of agriculture relates to the distribution of corn and wheat and the stocks remaining on farms. It is not a census of individual holdings of growers but it is based on county estimates of the percentage of last year's product remaining, made by a board reporting to the state agent. All grain, including any surplus of previous years, is included. These seperate results are scrutinized, obvious errors and inconsistencies corrected, differences harmonized and ultimate statements tabulated by states to show both percentages and aggregate quantities.

EARTHQUAKE IN RAHWAY.

Buildings Were Swayed and Destroyed in Eastern New Jersey.

The City of Rahway, N. J., was shaken Thursday morning by an earthquake shock a few minutes after 8 o'clock. It did considerable damage in the city and vicinity. Buildings swayed and the druggists sustained considerable loss by breakage. Several hundred bottles were thrown to the floor. Chemist Richter sustained a loss of $500 by the breaking of a glass jar that held a valuable preparation. A citizen, relating his experience, said: "It sounded to me like the reverberation of a thousand guns. The earth trembled and rocked. It was like the long undulation of a swell sea." A barn near the city was destroyed; loss $800.

Sunday Opening of the World's Fair.

The endeavor to secure the opening of the Fair, Chicago on Sunday, will be transferred from the State courts to the United States Supreme Court, which will be asked to issue an injunction against restraining the opening of the gates. The grounds of complaint will be that the corporation is an Illinois one and that Congress has no power to make the restriction.

THERE is great suffering among the cotton spinners and operatives of Oldham, England. There are 24,000 unemployed. Thousands of these are without food and fuel. The local authorities are overburdened with demands upon them, and private charity has been exhausted by the continual and increasing drain since last November.

The Power of Water.

"A Southern Engineer" contributes a valuable article on "Geology and the Mississippi Problem" to the Engineering Magazine. In it he says:

We find in water the only tireless agent that works in the modification of continents; and instead of being the great renovator of the land, as it is popularly conceived, it is the great destroyer. The destruction of ancient Rome has been attributed to time. But it was due simply to the moisture of the atmosphere working through chemical agencies. It was water, invisible but penetrating even the very stones of the wonderful city, that caused her to crumble to ruins, and gave to modern Rome a grade greatly elevated above her ancient grade. But it works not alone in the cities and towns. There is not a hill on earth that has not been shorn of some of its altitude by this subtle force, and there is not a mountain on earth, if not fitfully renewed by volcanic action, that has not been compelled to lower its peak before this universal leveler of the exalted. It may be a dreadful thought, indeed, but we do not know absolutely that we are not dependent on the earthquake and the volcano for keeping our continental habitat above the level of the ocean; for water not only destroys, but it has the persistency and force to carry off to its burial place in the sea all that it has caused to perish. It may take a long time at its task, but working either in its gaseous, its liquid, or its solid form, it seems to be the most persistent thing on earth, never perishing, and, however divided and invisible at times, always ready to unite its forces for a supreme effort at the degradation of a continent.

Cannot Take the Bit.

The chief of the Kansas City (Mo.) Fire Department has invented a new bridle for horses, the use of which makes it impossible for the horse to take the bit between his teeth. It has no bit to take. It is arranged with a strap over the horse's nose, and a steel curb under his jaw in such a way that a hard pull on the reins make the animal very uncomfortable indeed. The new bridle works to perfection, it is said, on a practical test, keeping the horse perfectly under control, while giving him the minimum of discomfort. One great advantage of the contrivance is that it enables the animal to eat and drink in comfort without displacing the bridle.—New York News.

How to Guess a Woman's Age.

A volume of memoirs has just been published giving the experiences of a French President of Assizes. It bears curious testimony to the inaccuracy of women on the subject of their own ages. As the writer's information is from the calender, he speaks only of the criminal classes. The only instances in which he finds correct dates given by women are when they are under twenty-five or over eighty five. At these periods of life, he says, they are to be trusted.

At all other periods the sure controlling tendency is to understate. The magistrate has been able to give a rule for guidance. He finds that female prisoners invariably state their ages as twenty-nine, thirty-nine, forty-nine or fifty-nine and from this remarkable circumstance he deduces his rule. If their ages are in the forties, they bodily set them down in the thirties, but conscience asserting itself, they keep as near the truth as they can and fix them at thirty-nine. Whether male criminals do the same the magistrate does not state.—London News.

"August Flower"

"I am ready to testify under oath that if it had not been for August Flower I should have died before this. Eight years ago I was taken sick, and suffered as no one but a dyspeptic can. I employed three of our best doctors and received no benefit. They told me that I had heart, kidney, and liver trouble. Everything I ate distressed me so that I had to throw it up. August Flower cured me. There is no medicine equal to it." LORENZO F. SLEEPER, Appleton, Maine.

The New Bread.

ROYAL unfermented bread, made without yeast, avoiding the decomposition produced in the flour by yeast or other baking powder; peptic, palatable and most healthful; may be eaten warm and fresh without discomfort, which is not true of bread made in any other way.

Can be made only with Royal Baking Powder.

Receipt for Making One Loaf.

ONE quart flour, 1 teaspoonful salt, half a teaspoonful sugar, 2 heaping teaspoonfuls Royal Baking Powder, half medium-sized cold boiled potato, and water. Sift together thoroughly flour, salt, sugar, and baking powder, rub in the potato; add sufficient water to mix smoothly and rapidly into a soft batter, about as soft as for pound cake; about a pint of water to a quart of flour will be required—more or less according to the brand and quality of the flour used. Do not make a stiff dough, like yeast bread. Pour the batter into a greased pan, 4½x8½ inches, and 4 inches deep, filling about half full. The loaf will rise to fill the pan when baked. Bake in very hot oven 45 minutes, placing paper over first 15 minutes. Have to prevent crust from becoming too dark. Bake at once. Eat warm with butter.

ALL THE SAME, ALWAYS.

We offer you a ready made medicine for Coughs, Bronchitis and other diseases of the Throat and Lungs. Like other so-called Patent Medicines, it is well advertised, and having merit it has attained a wide sale under the name of Piso's Cure for Consumption.

It is now a "Stedfram," though at first it was compounded after a prescription by a regular physician, with no idea that it would ever go on the market as a proprietary medicine. But after compounding that prescription over a thousand times in one year we named it "Piso's Cure for Consumption," and began advertising it in a small way. Its medicine known all over the world is the result.

"A SUCCESS."

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Gentlemen:—

I have suffered from catarrh for about five years and have tried several remedies without relief until I commenced to use Hall's Catarrh Cure last February. I must say this is in fact A SUCCESS. The dropping in my throat disappeared entirely after the first bottle. It commenced to operate so that I now weigh eight pounds more than my ordinary weight. I have recommended it to others and all who used it have been greatly relieved and speak highly of it. One of them said of me there yesterday and expressed his wish to publish it in that words: "If you think you can use my name you could refer any one to me as I would like to keep it in stock. Hoping to hear from you soon, I remain, Yours respectfully,
