

MIDDLE CREEK.

It is quite a while since our quiet little village was last represented in your worthy paper the Post. A number of changes have taken place, none of which are of very great importance, but still they may be interesting to some of your readers. The following has been observed: That most of the spring plowing has been done, but on account of much rain very little oats has been sown yet. That winter wheat looks very promising. That A. A. Ulsch has returned from the city with a large and well selected stock of spring and summer goods. That Mrs. Reuben Steininger, Jr., is still on the sick list. That C. B. Klingler is now ready for the painters. That Shultz & Swartz will be ready in a few days to resume their sawing at the old stand. That J. W. Klingler made a business trip to Lewistown last week. That W. H. Kline is going to plant 500 Japanese chestnut trees this spring. That you can find H. W. Ulsch in the house vacated by Mr. Wendt; Aaron Meyer in the house vacated by Jas. Bickel, the latter on the farm vacated by Calvin Gross; Joseph Knepp on his own property vacated by Mr. Anman, the latter on the property of Mrs. Bilzer who moved to Centre Twp.; Nathan Manbeck on the Yetter farm; James Snook on the farm vacated by the latter; Ammon Manbeck on the farm of P. J. Manbeck who moved to Adamsburg; Mr. Shemery on the Ulsch farm, vacated by Jos. Knepp; R. A. Wagner on the farm purchased from Abner Knepp; Mr. Furman on the farm vacated by Wagner; Aaron Knepp on the property vacated by Wm. Klingler; Phares Fetterolf on the farm purchased from Wm. Weider who moved to Traylorville. That the trout season opened on Saturday last. That James Goss moved his saw-mill on Howard Ulsch's property. That Annuller & McAulley are nearly done sawing on the Weider property.

BEAVER SPRINGS.

There is a force of men engaged in excavating the cellar for the new parsonage to be erected opposite the Lutheran church in this place. Work has also been commenced on Miss Opha Bolender's new house. A new office is being built for the tannery in this place, and James Felker's new barn will be raised on Wednesday. Harvey Landis is at home from Lancaster. The Adamsburg Normal opened last Monday with a goodly number of students. Prof. Carpenter seems to be at home in the school room, and our people are afforded a rare opportunity for educating their children. All our merchants have returned from the East with their Spring and Summer goods. W. F. Haines and Frank Thomas have bought a carload of ows which they will ship to Paxinos and sell at public sale. The query is "Who will be our next post-master?" New boarders have arrived at the homes of Samuel Sherry, C. C. Wetzel, and Rev. Fahs.

PORT TREVORTON.

The first of April made the usual changes here. One of the out-goes was D. L. Thirby who moved to Sunbury. Mr. Gooding is re-fitting the Port Trevorton House and is making a first-class hostelry out of it. J. D. Bogar recently sold a house and lot for $325. The planer on the old saw-mill of J. D. Bogar is again playing its old tune, making flooring, &c. Our public schools have all closed. The P. O. S. of A. will hold services on the 9th of April, where Revs. Davis and Lehr will preach appropriate sermons. Chas. N. Houser, our enterprising backster makes a trip to Shamokin every week to dispose of a large shipment of produce. C. W. Knights is patiently waiting for his commission as post-master for this place. N. T. Dandore and wife attended the funeral of Mrs. William Zaring at Shamokin on Saturday, April 8th. Mr. Zaring was formerly a citizen of this place and was a great deal thought of.

Moses Price Cured of Rheumatism.

The many cases of rheumatism cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm during the past few months have given the people great confidence in its curative properties, and have shown that there is one preparation that can be depended upon for that painful and aggravating disease. Honaker Bros., Lorain, Ohio, say: "Mr. Moses Price, of this place, was troubled with rheumatism for a long time. Chamberlain's Pain Balm has cured him. He says that the Balm has no equal. For sale by G. M. Shindel, Middleburgh, and Dr. Sampsel, Penns Creek."

N. A. BOWES, FASHIONABLE TAILOR!
Middleburgh, Pa.

It matters not how inferior the quality of goods; if a suit fits well it looks well; and "visa versa," if it don't fit you may take whatever goods you please and it looks cheap. Then why buy ready made clothing that fits like a coffee sack on a bean-pole and falls to pieces from looking at it, when you can get a suit of better material, lasts twice as long and fits like the paper on the wall for almost the same money by simply calling on your local tailor and leaving your measure? My rapidly increasing trade convince me that the people are "catching on," and although I have plenty to do, I, with the rest of the world, still want more. Come and see my
