

30.

MIDDLEBURGH, SNYDER CO., PA., MAY 11, 1893.

of LOCAL INTEREST

spring needs a dose of line of white vests and straw ust received at Oppenheimer's rove highest prices paid for wool ange for clothing at Dreifuss, grove.

ad a rattling frost on Monday g but no noticeable damage one the fruit.

enheimer, Selinsgrove, is paye highest price for wool in age for clothing.

o. 1 grade of Centre County 24ne Shingles for sale at Runkle ters, Middleburgh.

and see the magnificent new millinery and fancy goods at Shell's, Beavertown, Pa.

Reformed Sunday School has organized in the old Church 4. C. Gutetius Superintendent.

's axe factory at Bellefonte ut down for keeps, and the r-load of axes was shipped on y a week.

Cooper was elected superlent of public schools of Mifounty, and B. R. Johnson was cted in Union.

M. Hassinger and family of burg, Union County, visited reand friends in and around leburgh over Sunday.

se who are most distrustful of elves are the most envious of ; as the most weak and coware the most revengeful.

sons visiting the World's Fair nd the Post on file in the newsroom where they can get the direct from home during their charges at any station in the county. The Sunbury Daily comes out with a picture of its two reporters at the head of its local column. It means "before and after taking," and Billy Dewart represents the fellow that has taken it. "MISTAREN SOULS WHO DREAM OF BLISS."-The following marriage licenses have been granted since our last publication :

Jere Crouse, Selinsgrove, is selling

all kinds of fence wire at bot, n

prices and delivers it free of freight

Franklin Heimbach, Centre twp, Catherine Hackenberg. Christian Dersham, Union Co. Rose Kreamer, Middlecreek twp.

His honor, Judge McClure, amused the boys on the college campus, this week, batting "flies" beyond the walk. The Judge is an old base-ballist, and occasionally inisburg Chronicle.

A man who is blind to his own faults is blind to his own interests. He who thinks that he never was a fool is a fool now. He who never owns that he is wrong will never get right. How can a man take the blemishes off his face if he will not look in the glass.

SHINGLES ! SHINGLES !!-- We have just received 100,000 Michigan White Pine Shingles. If in need of any please call and examine. Prices are as follows : No. 1 @ $5.00 per M., No. 2 @ $3,90 per M. A. H. ULSH & SON.

Swineford, Pa.

'Squire Wells O. Holmes of Selinsgrove, on Monday received his commission as Justice of the Pencil and is now ready to attend to the duties devolving upon that office. He is a most intelligent old gentleman and will weigh out justice with an even balance.

The semi-annual encampment of and the first one that escaped instant ayton Millhonse, after serving erk in Wetzel's Cash Store [the Department of Pennsylvania, death. eford, for several months, re- G. A. R., will be held at Gettysburg ed to Reading on Wednesday from July 15 to 21. This encampment promises to be the largest one ning. held in the State for many years, R SALE AT A SACRIFICE.-1 5-ton and great preparations are being scales complete : 1 new made for a large turnout of members rd side-hill plow ; 1 new Gale and visitors. y cultivator. Call at once, will World's Fair visitors should not the best comment on the Sunday A. H. ULSH & SON. cheap. forget that J. G. Chesnutt, formerly school lesson that is printed, a colev. A. H. Spangler, formerly of Lewistown, is prepared to accomor of the Middleburgh Lutheran modate lodgers at 534 Oakley avege, has resigned his charge at nue, Chicago, a most desirable lo- ing. cation in the city, at reasonable rates. Desirable boarding can be The bill to reimburse counties in secured in the vicinity. Convenient to steam and street railways running direct to the exposition.

The metancholy days have come, The saddest of the year ; The housewife's busy cleaning house, And hubby lives in fear. He dreams of carpet, tacks and dust. His knees are raw and sore, He has no dinner fit to eat, His life's an awful bore.

Miss Mollie Ulsh of Franklin down with sore throat.

Ladies spring capes and coats now offered at first cost at Aurands fancy and millinery store.

cent residence on the lot aside of the supplying every room with water by tion, from which he never rallied, reason why she should not do the means of a hydraulic ram placed in The Williamsport Gagzette & Bulthe mill cellar where he has over six letin of Monday says of him : feet of fall which will give him over one hundred feet of rise if needed.

of the Ninth Pennsylvania Veteran Volunteer Cavalry Association will dulges playing for exercise.-Lew- be held at Hollidaysburg, Blair 7th and 8th, good to return until the the secretary, A. F. Shenck, Esq., of Lancaster. OPENING .- "Opening of the Chestnut Burr" is the title of one of E. P. Roe's best novels. It is most interesting to ladies, but not so much so as the opening of a first class millinery store, which will take place at Yutzy of Selinsgrove, president of while to sit at a desk all day long, Miss Libbie Dunkelberger's, Middleburgh, on Friday of this week where Rev. Anspach of Williamsport. On sented with a loving word will be a all the latest styles of ladie's head- Tuesday the remains were taken to tonic indeed to the woman who has wear, direct from Philadelphia, will Berwick for interment. be on exhibition All invited.

Sidney Ocker, who was struck by a train on the Mahonoy Plain railroad at Ashland about two weeks ago and hurled near over a fort foot enbankment, returned no. Wednesday of last week. He has a faithful served of the Mr. entirely recovered from his injuries. his successful work in this field is He is the eleventh person that still felt, and all sincerely regret his went down over the enbankment

Rev. I. Irvine Dead.

Rev. I. Irvine, formerly pastor of Why should not a girl "don her the Middleburgh Lutheran charge, prettiest gown and carl her hair to but of late pastor of the St. John's prefection" on the evening she ex-Lutheran Church, Williamsport, Pa., pects her lover ? It is a wish to dedied at his residence in that city on cieve that moves us to put our best pit the Sunday evening before and right wish to be judged at our best seemed to be in usual good health. | and not our worst.

A. H. Ulsh is building a magnifi. At 4 o'clock the next morning he

"Rev. Irvine was 44 years of age, naving been born at Fowlersville, The twenty-fourth annual reunion survived by a wife, but no children. If the Ninth Pennsylvania Veteran Both his parents are still alive and reside in Fowlersville. For the past two years he has presided in the pulpit at St. John's Lutheran church, county, on Thursday, June 8. Ex-cursion tickets will be issued on the 7th and 8th, good to return until the were again united. His work here 15th, and can be had by applying to has been useful and energetic and fully and well, there would be fewer has been crowned with success. He has built up his church and has gained many friends and admirers, all of whom will sincerely regret to hear of his death.

The funeral services were held at gown, standing in the door with a St John's Church, Monday evening, warm welcome home for him, may sth, and were conducted by Rev. make a man feel that it is worth the Lutheran Synod, assisted by and a rose brought home and pre-Rev. Irvine assisted in the Luth- save and add her share to the nest eran church dedication here on the egg.-Good Housekeeping. 23d day of April and seemed a pic-er, anu untimely taking off.

NO. 19. Pennsylvania at Chicago.

for an takin

nplated. es right

lend is

over-

square

Some Suggestions to Citizens of the STATE WHO VISIT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

First, All Pennsylvanians who attend the Worlds Fair are advised to Sunday after-noon, May 7, of peri- feet forward when we are, as it were, first visit the State Building. This tonitus, after an illness of a week's to be weighed in the balance ! I they can readily accomplish by enduration. He had occupied his pul- think not, but merely a natural and tering the grounds at the Fifty-seventh street entrance, near which, and just opposite the great Art Palace, However, if a girl will put on a our Building is located. All of the became ill. Later in the week it be- smart gown and curl her hair when railroads, electric, cable and horse old hotel stand in Franklin. He is came necessary to perform an opera- she expects her lover, is there any car lines leading from the centre of city, have stations at or within a same when she expects her husband? short distance of the Fifty-seventh And if a man notices that his sweetstreet enterance. heart has on a new frock and tells Second. The State Building is her how becoming it is and how Columbia county, in 1849. He is much he likes her hair arranged in the comfort and convenience of the specially designed and arranged for that fluffy way is there any reason citizens of Pennsylvania. It is prowhy he should not tell his wife the vided with general reception room, seperate parlors for women and men, If every engaged man and girl ladie's dressing room, smoking room, would study the subject of marriage writing room, newspaper room, press thoughtfully, with a view to playing correspondents' room, and ample the parts of husband and wife caretoilet facilities, etc., etc. Convenient cloak and parcel rooms have been provided upon the first floor of It is hard for us to realize that the Building, where all citizens of trifles make life. Nevertheless a the State are at liberty to leave such bright looking woman in a pretty articles as they may not wish to carry around on the grounds.

Third, The Building contains a Post Office to be open during the Exposition hours. Arrangements have been made to collect the mails hourly and Pennsylvanians who have their mail adressed to Pennsylvania State been stiching all day in order to Building, World's Fair, Chicago, Ill., will be issued prompt delivery.

Fourth. The newspaper room will contain files of all the State journals that will be sent to the Building.

competent superintendent, who will give place to ... armer stormy weather he pleased to aid our citizens with about the 2d and 3rd. Sharp, frosty advice or suggestions as to how to nights need not surprise two ar three days before the 7th or 8th, about see the Fxposition to the best advantage.

t Royal and accepted a call from ddock, (near Pittsburg) Pa.

s State for bridges swept away by big flood of June, 1889, has passthe House finally and will no ubt become a law, as it should.

Lost .-- A brass door key on the rning of last week. The finder ill oblige by leaving same with heriff Bolende.r

A concert of vocal and instrumen. I music will be given by the Musical spiration at Swengel, Pa., Saturday veing May 13th. Admission 15cts.

WM. MOYER Instructor. T. H. Shively of Mifflinburg, sensd $ $1.50 for the renewal of the Post nd encloses a note, saying : "Give he the paper that 'wears no collar' very time." Just so, friend Shively. ou shall have it.

A conductor on an Ohio railroad ook in a ticket 37 years old the ther day. It was bought by a man who missed the train in 1856, and hadn't had occasion to go over the same road again until now.

Out of the 46,000 pensioners paid from the Pittsburg agency, from pension day three month's ago to last pension day, April 4, 500 died. At that rate it can't be very long before all will be "mustered out."

It is said that daning makes the front gate produces rheumatism The girls are truly grateful that if these little pleasures are denied them and wash dishes.

A prominent horse journal recommends the following remedy for lice not kill all the lice, but it acts as a rence Burg, of Danville, perform on stimulant to the colt. There is said it. This precious marvel of mechto be no danger from the colt taking | anism is valued at $600, and Mr. Maxcold from this treatment, even in well, the company's special agent, is Every former should plant a few an inventory of requisite accomplishcold weather.

Just now disappointed applicants for postoffices and their friends of Elias Leader, of Herndon, wa are sharpening their knives prepara- killed at that place Tuesday of las tory carving into everlasting smith- week. His brother was employed i ereens the political aspirations of the planing mill, and was packing congressmen who have incurred shingles in the lower part of the m their displeasure. Unfortunately one The boy caught in some manner little postoffice cannot be divided the machinery and before he cou girls' feet large. It is also said ice like an apple so as give all applicants be rescued was whirling around cream produces freckles. Doctors a slice, and as those applicants shaft, held by his clothing. are of the opinion that hanging on neither die nor down, the political horror-stricken brother attempt future of congressmen, who are call- to rescue him, but without a upon to make postoffice appoint- his head striking the beams. they are still allowed to chew gum ments, looks about as bright as day extricated life was almost expet, in the infernal regions.

Some of our readers who take a daily paper don't look at the inside pages of the Post. They miss a rare treat. We have a summary of the world's news up to Tuesday evening of each week, Talmage's sermon of the same week the paper is printed, umn of temperance, one of religion and lots of good miscellaneous read-

consideration of the crowded con-

S. Grant Schock of Sunbury spent dition of the hospital and the im-Sunday in Middleburgh. He is possibility of furnishing suitable agent for the extensive glove man- accomodations, it is ordered by the hired the "Scotch laddy" to play missionership of Snyder county. reets in Middleburgh Friday ufactory of Peckham, Powell & Co., board of trustees that no more paof Johnstown N.Y., and has taken tients be recieved, and this order is the place of Mr. Peckham, who to apply to patients sent by their tions Bank. At first the strains own expesses while in office and will traveled thirteen years for the com- friends and to patients sent by over- werequite inviting to the boys, but serve at the old salary." We do not pany. Grant is meeting with bril- seers of the poor and by order of towards the last assistant Cashier think that the public will ask or expect the court.

> on exhibition and for sale a Hallet & wouldn't bear printing, and by the of his hire." The law has specified on colts. At this season of the year Davis Piano that is an exact duplimany of the colts become lousy, and cate of one on exhibition at the reamed Cashier Thompson cancel- ask the only Democratic officer in for such as do the following is said World's Fair. The case is of the to be found excellent : Take two very finest curled walnut, and for pounds of quassia bark, steep it in volume and tune it is unsurpassed in gum-tree block used for that Republicans draw all the law allows water, and wash the colt thoroughly by any instrument of its kind now from the top of his nose to the roots in the market-a fact which no one of his tail. If one application does will dispute after hearing Mrs. Flovery proud of it.

Wilson Leader, a 12-year-old so Round and round he was dasid. and he lived but a few hours.

Herald, in speaking of the "three sth, 9th and 10th. Temperature will year deer lay" says :

but it is not even passed yet. That ought to relieve the mind of our Middleburgh Post, who has not only eyclonic storms on and about those torn his shirt but his hair nearly all out by the roots at such an unprecedented curtailment of his privileges. you are off your eggs and hatching on an old gum shoe. There is no such bill in the House any more.

of the Danville insane asylum the is in the Senate. Look up your Legtrustees have issued the following islative Record. If you don't take order : "And now, April, 13 1893, in it, now is the time to subscribe.

purpose.

The country needs them, and it A New York paper states that a a pay both in looks and in money clergyman named Kinsman, who ne. Plant a tree wherever you boasts that he has married nearly live a place for it, and as you grow 9,000 couples, is now lecturing on you will be very glad you did it. the choice of a wife, and draws up walnuts, butternuts and hickory ments. According to his teachings, nats, and raise some nut bearing the ideal sweetheart "should delight trees. They will become valuable to attend church every Sunday, after a while, and are valuable now, should be dutiful to her parents, Any man who wants to buy a farm kind to dumb animals, rise early in would give more for it if it had the morning, wash and dress her plenty of shade trees on it. No man little brothers and sisters without knows when he may want to sell his being cross, sew on their battons near Mechanicsburg, Pa., some farm, and hence a good supply of and strings, have her hair always time in June when a milking contest shade trees proves a profitable in- tidy, her stockings neat, and neatly will take place. The contestants are vestment. Every farmer should darned, and should be a good cook." plant some tree seed in his garden The Rev. Mr. Kinsman demands so The prizes are a gold watch, silk and raise his own shade trees. Then many Good qualities for the pros- dress and a pair of gold bracelets. he can set them out when and where pective wife, that such paragons The judges are to be old and experihe pleases without trouble. It is must be scarce, and his lectures are enced farmers whose judgment will the speediest and best way to get calculated rather to discourage than be swayed by merit only, and not shade trees."

which days it will turn very Brother Allison, of the Juniata and active storms are liable about Hicks for May.

same thing ?

cases for the divorce courts.

Little Things In Married Life.

fall to the frost line after the distur-There is such a bill in the House, bances of this period. The 14th and 15th will bring sudden and extreme worthy friend, Tom Harter, of the warmth, with such tendency to dates. Watch them ! Cooler from 18th to 22d. About these days ex-Beg your pardon, Brother Bill, but pect very warm weather to end in hard storms. This is true, also, for 26th and 27th and dates touching them. May will end growing warm-Owing to the crowded condition It has passed the House finally and er, with storms brewing and moving from the west. Watch and see.

Isaac Erdly of Penns, Philip Amig of Franklin, H. S. Schnee of Free On Saburday the man with the burg, Phares Herman of Penns, and Scotch bag-pipe was in town and Peter Rauch of Perry have entered several wags pooled their issues and the race for the Democratic Com "Tar-ra-Boom-de-aye" for one The first named gentleman, Mr. plum hour in front of the First Na- Erdly, pledges himself to "pay his J. R. Smith & Co of Milton, have figures-announcing products that ful officer. "The baborer is worthy ting the one-hundredth chorus was the "hire," and it is hardly just to ed, bunch of checks with such vig- the county to work at half pay or hat he split in twain the eighteen while all the other officers filled by them

Sixth. A register of Pennsylvanans who attend the Exposition will be kept, with their names and the location of their stopping place, with the probable time of their stay, etc., ote.

Seventh. No fee, unless it be for blacking shoes, will be charged for any service in or about the Building. Eight. A cordial invitation is excended to all Pennsylvanians, regardless of race, color or nativity to make the building their headquarters and resting place while at the Exposition, and to avail themselves o the facilities that have been provided. They will find a home and a warm welcome.

A. B. FARQUHAR, Executive Commissioner.

Wall Paper.

We have just received a large number of samples of wall paper from Alfred Peats, the wall paper merchant. Chicago-together with a small Kreger added up whole colums of this of Mr. Erdly or any other faith. pamphlet on Economy in Home Decoration with advice how to hang paper.

These samples are much finer than anything we have ever seen before for the price, some of the gilt papers being as low as 5c per roll, and heavy embossed gold papers as low as 10c per roll, all arranged with wide borders and ceiling papers to match according to the latest style.

These samples are sent free to anyone who will write to Alfred Peats, Department D, 136-138W. Madison St., Chicago, or to 30-32W, 13th St., New York, and will enable anyone desiring to re-decorate their house to buy the latest style papers at about wholesale prices.

A Milkmaids' Festival will be held on the farm of Jeremiah Saboldt, a bevy of handsome young girls. by beauty or favoritism, to promote matrimony.