

The Paper on the Wall.

You've often noticed how well or how poorly it looked—and you know too, that a few dollars expended for the proper paper brings more for the money than any improvement that you can make; but then, did you know that there is a man—Mr. Alfred Peats—who has spent a fortune and years of study for perfecting the details, so that you, no matter where you live, can get the latest and most exclusive designs of Wall Paper effects, at less than half the local dealer's rates.

All this, and much more, is told about in a book called "How to Paper, and Economy in Wall Paper Decorations." It will be mailed, free, if you send for it at once to Alfred Peats—the Wall Paper Merchant Dept A, 136-138 W. Madison St., Chicago, or 30-32 W. 13th St., N. Y.

TROXELVILLE.

The weather of last week was all our agriculturalists desired, which they made good use of, and planted nearly all their corn. The rain on Saturday evening came just in the nick of time to save this community a hard day's work on Sunday lighting the mountain fire. Thus far the fruit has escaped dangerous frosts. Tom, when you come up here again to fish bring a pair of stilt along, as the paths along the creek are tramped about five feet lower than the bottom of the creek. John F. Zeschman has his undertaking establishment up and under roof, with six carpenters busy pushing it to completion. J. O. Goss built a new ice-house and woodshed combined, also a new pig sty, but where? O! where! will he get pigs. Owen says: "Ich wase by jabers much net we ich grick," at the same time scratching his head with both hands and pawing with one foot. Whenever "Trapper" Jim buys a half pound of cheese and a pound of oyster crackers, its a sure sign that Mollie will have a caller within an hour and a half. CAL. JOH.

SELINGSGROVE.

The reaper, death, has again visited our town. Wm. H. Snyder departed this life last Thursday night and was buried Sunday forenoon, Rev. C. H. Ford assisted by Rev. Yutzky, officiating at the funeral. Interment took place at Row's church. We noticed the following Selingsgroves at Sunbury last week: Mr. and Mrs. Ira Schoch, Ed. M. Hummel, H. D. Schure and Miss Lillie Schoch. Mrs. Kate Kantner left for Shamokin this week to attend the Womens' Missionary Society of the Lutheran church. Commencement of Missionary Institute will begin this year on June 4th and continue until June 8th. The following will be some of the speakers: J. R. Dimm, D. D., sermon to the graduates of the Classical department; Raymond Davis of Bucknell University, address to the Y. N. C. A.; Rev. Geo. E. Faber of Pottsgrove, reunion address to Clio Lit. Society; Rev. J. B. Focht of Lewis-town, address to Theological class; Rev. S. A. Holman, D. D. of Philadelphia, address to Alumni of Theological Dept., and Rev. S. E. Bakman, address to Alumni of Classical Dept. There will be seven graduates in the Classical Dept. and five in the Theological Dept. There were in attendance in the Classical Dept. 121 and in the Theological 8.

A Card.

Our townsman, A. J. Cosgrove, has just finished remodeling, repainting, repapering and freeseing the Second U. R. church at New Berlin, and for neat and artistic work is seldom equaled. Mr. Cosgrove is a finished artisan and always does his work satisfactorily.

DIED.

May 7, Mrs. Moses Middlewarth of Adamsburg, aged 89 years, 1 month and 23 days.

LET 'ER FLICKER! You are your self to blame. You bought a "cheap" pair of shoes from an irresponsible dealer and the first time they got wet the paper soles came off. Go To Garman's, Middleburgh, and get a pair that will last you, and depend upon it, they are the cheapest in the end. In this world a man generally pays for what he gets, and the only safeguard against robbery is to buy of a responsible dealer who holds his trade by fair dealing.

GUNS, AMUNITION, AND FISHING TACKLE.

Rods, Lines, Hooks, Reels, Flies,

If you want to catch big fish you must be provided with a good strong line, a sharp hook, and plenty of bait. No matter what bait you use, just so you catch the fish. The wriggling worm is the best bait, but the artificial bait, though less palatable to the fish, is alluring and oftentimes more successful. This is why we keep a large stock in the line of
