PAXTONVILLE.

Geo. Dobson who is working in the yards at Sunbury spent Sunday at home....The lightenning struck into the houses of Austin Gift and Harvey Mitchell on last Tuesday evening, but did not do very much damage....F. C. Bowersox and family were the guests of his mother over Sunday....Our little town was surprised by a wedding last Tuesday evening. Chas. Erdley and Clara F. Bowersox being the contracting parties. Rev. Smith performed the ceremony in the Evangelical parsonage at New Berlin. We extend hearty congratulations to the happy couple and wish them a bright and prosperous voyage on the sea of life....The graves of our soldiers were decorated on Sunday afternoon—the G. A. R. from Middleburgh, officiated, Calvin Schoch made an interesting address....Miss Kate Bowersox who is attending Bloomsburg Normal School is visiting her mother a few days....Mrs. William Keister of Williamstown visited friends here over Sunday.

DOXIE

CENTREVILLE.

Corn is about all planted here. The fruit trees show that there may be a large crop of fruit. The grass fields look as if a good crop of hay could be expected. The grain fields also look favorable. Dr. Sampsel while out on his timber tract on Jacks mountain, last week, came in contact with a black snake which he thought was something less than fifteen feet long. His snakeship got afraid of the medicine man and made his escape....C. O. Jones of Williamsport was in town on business last week....Mrs. Etta Spangler, after a few week's visit in Shenandoah, returned home on Thursday....H. K. Sanders spent last week with friends at Beaver Springs ....G. C. Spangler and wife, spent the fore part of last week with their son Charles who is employed at the West Milton P. & R. railroad station.

At the meeting of the Republican committee last week, H. C. Sampsel, of the firm of Sampsel & Stroub, was elected Chairman. Mr. Sampsel has always been an earnest, faithful republican, and his long years of loyalty to the party entitled him to this compliment, and he also possesses the necessary requirements to perform the duties pertaining to the said office....David Rauch of Sebanon was the guest of F. B. Bolig, recently....Miss Ella Shinkel, who lived the last six months, in Jersey Shore, returned home on Friday. Her many young friends were glad to see her....The holy communion was celebrated in the Ev. church on Sunday forenoon.... H. H. Baker and wife of Mifflinburg were the guests of Samuel Shrader's Sunday.

Are you insured? If not, now is the time to provide yourself and family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as an insurance against any serious results from an attack of bowel complaint during the summer months. It is almost certain to be needed and should be procured at once. No other remedy can take its place or do its work. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by G. M. Shindel Middleburgh, and Dr. J. M. Sampsel Penns Creek Pa.,

WORLD'S

Fair Accommodations!

Are you going to the World's Fair? Do you want first class accommodations? We have some new two-story flats, one mile south of fair grounds, away from noisy streets and the crowd—one block from two electric street cars which take you to the main entrance to the fair grounds. These are not unsafe, temporary buildings, but substantial homes fitted up with gass, bathrooms and closets on each floor. Rooms nicely furnished, good beds, everything new. Good meals near by from twenty-five to thirty-five cents per meal. Rates from eight to twelve dollars per week for two persons in a room. Extra cot in room at small cost per night. To secure rooms remit one-third of room rent, and state time when wanted, and receipt will be sent at once. Take Illinois Central Railroad at Chaltenham. Apply at once. For further particulars, address,
