The Free Text Book Bill.

The free text book bill, which was signed by the governor, provides: Section 1. Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that section first of an act entitled an act, authorizing to purchase school books out of the district funds, approved June 25, 1885, which reads as follows: "That school directors or controllers may purchase text books, for use in the public schools of their respective school districts, and, when so procured, the necessary books shall be supplied, free of cost, to each pupil for use in the schools of said district, subject to the orders of the directors thereof, whose duty it is and care of the books which shall be returned at the close of the annual school term in each year, or as the board may direct," be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 2. That school directors or controllers shall purchase text books and other necessary supplies for use in the public schools of their respective districts, as such new text books and supplies are required, in addition to those at present in use in the hands of pupils or owned by the school districts, out of the school fund of the district, and, when so procured, the necessary books and school supplies shall be furnished, free of cost, for use in the schools of said district, subject to the orders of the directors or controllers thereof, whose duty it shall be to provide for the return of and for the safe keeping and care of the books, which shall be returned at the close of the annual school term in each year, or as the board may direct.

The appropriation committee has decided to report affirmatively a bill appropriating $1,000,000 with which to carry out the free text book bill, which was signed by the governor.

Pension Decision.

Is a man who is able to earn a living at manual labor and who suffers from no wound or disability incurred while in actual service entitled to a pension from the government? Sec. Hoke Smith has decided by repealing of the last administration as to the construction that the pension office shall put upon the "disability not of service origin" clause to the pension act of 1890, that he is not. In the future no man will be granted a pension under that law unless he establishes the fact that he is unable by reason of his disability to earn a support by manual labor. There will, of course be concerted howl from the pension sharps over this ruling because it will reduce the pension payments something like $20,000,000 a year, and their fees in a corresponding ratio, but the taxpayers will not object to this saving, particularly when it is made without depriving any old soldier who is unable to earn a living because of his disability of a pension.

Rights of Way for Bicyclers.

1—A bicycle is a vehicle or carriage and so decided by the authorities; therefore, a bicycle has every privilege and is amenable to every law that a carriage or vehicle is.

2—Drivers have no exclusive right in the roads as against travelers by any other mode.

3—The supreme law of the road is: Thou shalt use it so as to interfere as little as possible with the equal right of any other person to use it at the same time; and thou shalt be reasonably careful that no one suffer injury thereon by act or neglect of thine.

4—To turn out to the right is a statute regulation everywhere in the United States.

5—A bicycle is amenable for danger if, through his negligence or wrong doing, anyone is injured,—the same as if by any other carriage.

6—Anyone who injures a bicycler or his machine, wantonly, mischievously or maliciously, is a trespasser and liable criminally and civilly.

7—A person has a right to ride on the sidewalk if (a) There is so much travel on the street as to make it impossible. (b) Repairs are being made rendering it impossible. (c) The streets are impassable because of mud, or any surface of danger to bicyclers.

8—A person has a right to ride on private property if the street and sidewalks are impassable for reasons as described in preceding section.

9—Bells by day and lanterns at night are almost universally required in the ordinances of the cities and towns, and in the majority of places strictly enforced.

SELINSGROVE.

The students of Missionary Institute had their annual picnic last Saturday at Shickellimay. They report having had a grand time. Rev. Havice and lady of Shannandeah visited at the home of Mrs. H's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel C. Bergstresser's last week. The commencement of Missionary Institute is in full blast this week, and will close on Thursday morning. Quite a large number of strangers are here to attend the exercises. Ex-editor Franklin Weirick made a trip to Philadelphia last week. Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Schoch have gone to Chicago to visit the World's Fair. Uriah Hatley, while working in his potato patch this morning, fell over a deer.

MONROE TOWNSHIP.

Some farmers were still planting corn last Saturday, while others were cultivating theirs. P. R. Lenig was the first trucker who brought new strawberries to Selinsgrove. George Garman is a guest of his uncle Frank Jarrett. Mrs. Izora Jarrett wife of John Jarrett is visiting at her father-in-law, Jacob Jarrett's. Wheat and grass look very promising through this part of the country. Schoch & Wagenseller are busy repairing the damages at their mill-dam. The Sunday school at Ott school house had children's day last Sunday. Mr. Hartman our supervisor, had eight teams on the road hauling gravel and rock on the washouts between Franklin Jarrett and Schoch's dam. Maud Hendricks visited her parents Levi Hendrick's over Sunday. Chestnut Ridge farmers are busy hauling their grain to market. V. T.

CENTREVILLE.

Mrs. Hophni Sampsel visited friends in Montoursville, last week. Mrs. J. W. Dreese of Herington, Kansas, accompanied by her oldest son, are the guests of Mrs. Chas. E. Sampsel. Capt. M. J. Cunningham of Lewistown, spent a few days in town last week. Miss Ella Shinkel spent last week in Millinburg. J. E. Bolig of Selinsgrove was here on business recently. We should not try to carry all our religion in our heads. There should be a higher motive in this life than mere self glorification. Thomas Bailey and wife of Hummels Wharf, were the guests of J. M. Bingham, over Sunday. F. B. Bolig, accompanied by his workmen left on Monday for Dry Valley X Roads, where he has the contract for erecting a dwelling house. The Lord's Supper will be celebrated by the Lutheran congregation next Sunday forenoon. John Shrader and wife of New Berlin were the guests of Samuel Shrader's, Sunday.

TROXELVILLE.

Amos H. Walter put up a new stable last week, and will soon commence to put up a new dwelling house. William Weader tore down the old black-smith shop that stood on the corner of his lot, and will erect on its site, a carpenter's shop. This will give this place three furniture establishments. That's right. Keep the ball a-roll-in. If a dog yelps, put it down that he is hit for sure, and no mistake about that. Memorial day was observed at this place in a befitting manner last Tuesday. This is just as it should be. Nobody needs be afraid of doing too much for our fallen heroes, who bared their breasts to rebel bullets, and suffered the pangs of hunger and death in "Libby," and other southern prison pens. Several new features were added to the ceremonies the one taking the eye of every boy between the ages of 5 and 14 years—was a squad of about 20 small boys, uniformed and equipped with a miniature musket, with "fixed bayonet," the little guns which made the little boys "mouth water." One little fellow remarked to us, "Pouch, woo hen selle glana boova selle glana bixa cricket? Ich wot ich het aw ane." I told him where I guessed they got them from, whereupon he said, "well, wons huckel-beera gept den summer, don will ich biam danner aw ane hova bis es shpoteyoro von de hausa fed wara." Mr. Miller, father of Dr. E. M. Miller of Millheim, Centre county is visiting the Dr's family at this place. This is the first time that Mr. Miller was at this place and is an entire stranger to us all. CAL. JOE.
