What Dr. Lemon Will Do.

Do you want to know the name of one of the best all-round household doctors, and certainly the cheapest that can be found in any country?

It is Dr. Lemon. Yes, an ordinary, sour, yellow lemon, which you can buy at any grocery for a few cents.

Here are some of the things Dr. Lemon will do for you if you give him the chance.

Squeeze him into a glass of water every morning and drink him with very little sugar. He will keep your stomach in the best of order, and never let Mr. Dyspepsia, whom he hates cordially, get into it.

If you have dark hair, and it seems to be falling out, cut off a slice of the doctor and rub him on your scalp. He will stop that little trouble and squeeze him into a quart of milk, and he will give you mixture to rub on your face night and morning and get a complexion like a princess.

Pour him into an equal quantity of glycerine, and rub your hands with the mixture before going to bed. If you don't mind sleeping with gloves on, that is better still, and helps the doctor considerably in his task of whitening your hands. In the morning wash your hands thoroughly in warm water and apply the doctor again pure, but only a few drops of him this time. You must not keep this up to long, or your hands will show such a dazzling whiteness as to make all the young ladies in the vicinity jealous.

If you have a bad head ache cut Dr. Lemon into slices and rub these along your temples. The pain will not be long disappearing, or, at least, in growing easier to bear.

If a bee or insect stings you, clap a few drops of the doctor on the spot, and you will find yourself the better for it.

If you have a troublesome corn the doctor can again be put to good account by rubbing him on the toe after you have taken a hot bath and cut away as much as possible of the intruder.

Besides all this the doctor is always ready to sacrifice himself in the cause of Russian tea—slice him in without sugar—or in the preparation of old-fashioned lemonade, than which no drink is more wholesome.

Altogether, Dr. Lemon is an individual few people can afford to get along without.

Mr. Cleveland calls the financial condition "the only menace to the country's welfare and prosperity." In this statement he refutes every public declaration made in the last campaign. What has become of the "robber tariff?" Where is the bogey of the Chicago platform, "un-constitutional protection?" In what recess of his cavernous intellect has Mr. Cleveland concealed these dire evils by abolishing which he and his allies told the people, five months ago, the nation alone could be redeemed from their distress and rescued from future disaster? This one admission by the President that protection to American industry is not a menace to American welfare and prosperity reveals the mockery and the false pretense by which the voters were misled last November.—N. Y. Press.

Get Away from the Crowd.

The advice which Robert Burdette gives to boys may well be taken, not only to them, but by older persons—"Get away from the crowd," he says, for a little while every day and think. Stand on one side and let the world run by, while you get acquainted with yourself, and see what kind of a fellow you are. Ask yourself hard questions about yourself. Ascertain, from original sources, if you are really the manner of man you say you are; and if you are always honest; if you always tell the square, perfect truth in business details; if your life is as good and upright at 11 o'clock at night as it is at noon; if you are as good a temperance man on a fishing excursion as you are at a Sunday school picnic; if you are as good when you go to the city as you are at home; if, in short, you are at home; if, in short you are really the sort of man your father hopes you are, and your sweetheart believes you are. Get on intimate terms with yourself, my boy, and believe me every time you come out from one of these private interviews, you will be a stronger, better, purer man. Don't forget this, and it will do you good."

Summer Excursion Routes.

The 1893 edition of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's annual book of Summer Excursion Routes has just been issued. It is tastefully gotten up and presents in a most practical and comprehensive manner four hundred popular summer resorts, from which excellent selections may be made for either limited trips or extended sojourns during the summer and early fall months.

The great variety of routes suggested, the complete schedules of rates, the graphic and exhaustive description of the different places, the explanatory maps and the illustrations, make this volume a most valuable guide.

Copies of the book may be obtained at any ticket office of the Pennsylvania Railroad on payment of ten cents, or upon application to the General Passenger Agent, Pennsylvania Railroad, Philadelphia, it will be forwarded upon the receipt of twenty cents.

STROUBTOWN.

A Sunday school was organized at Stroubtown and last Sunday the attendance was small. Mr. Decker, of Richfield, is erecting a new barn. The corn in this section looks promising. Mr. Sheaffer and wife, of Allentown, were the guests of his brother, Rev. George Sheaffer, last week. Agents seem to be very plenty in this section. They run from insurance down to washing machines. The straw-berry crop will be large. There will be singing at Zion's church next Sunday afternoon.

ADAMSBURG.

The new parsonage is under roof. The school directors of this township have elected the following officers: Anis Gross, president; Wm. Mitchell, treasurer; H. Arbogast, secretary. The plasterers have given Mrs. Bolender's new house its first coat. The Lutheran congregation will hold a festival on Saturday, June 17th, for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the new parsonage. The M. E. Church has purchased the G. A. R. Hall and will repair it. Quite a number of children are afflicted with the measles. Miss Lizzie Middlesworth is on the sick list.

PANTONVILLE.

Isaiah Bowersox and family visited friends in Union County over Sunday. Miss Lydia Prutzman left for Lewistown on Monday to remain there for a while. Mrs. John Sterner of Sunbury visited her parents (Austin Gifts) over Sunday. Miss Alice Weidenmoyer of Lewistown is home on a visit. Foster Gift who is attending school at Gettysburg is spending his vacation at home. Miss Hettie Attir is visiting friends in Potato Valley at present. Miss Edith Wertz, who was attending Millersville Normal School (being unable to remain any longer on account of sickness) returned home last week. Mother Weirick is treating her front fence to a coat of paint which is quite an improvement. J. H. Martin and wife visited his son at Danville a few days last week.

The Globe Mills Sunday school will hold a festival at the church at that place on Saturday evening, June 17. All the delicacies of the season will be served. Music will be furnished by the Smith Grove cornet band. The public is cordially invited.

SELINSGROVE.

The following were among the ministers who were brought here to attend the Annual Commencement of Missionary Institute last week: Rev. Dr. Holman of Philadelphia, Dr. Weber of Sunbury, Rev. Fortney of Rhineback N. Y., Rev. I. P. Zimmerman of Mahanoy City, Rev. S. E. Bateman, of Philadelphia, Rev. M. L. Shindel of Danville, Pa., Rev. McCool of Sioux City, Iowa, and Rev. Hilbish of Lairdsville, Pa., Rev. J. W. Swartz D. D. of Worthington Pa., is visiting his father-in-law Mr. Samuel Gemberling, Sr., on South Market St. this week. Rev. Guiney of the Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, preached for Rev. Yutz last Sunday evening. Children's day was observed by both the Methodist and Second Lutheran Churches last Sunday. Miss Katie Erhart and Miss Evangeline Dimm are becoming quite experts on their bicycles. Miss Stonecypher, a pretty and accomplished young lady of Montoursville, is visiting friends in town. Rev. H. C. Salem was away over Sunday preaching in Bucks county Pa. Dentist M. Kantner made a visit to Herndon this week. Mrs. John Lenker of Wisconsin Pa., who was visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Esquire Burns has returned home. Mrs. Rev. Dale of Blair Pa., her sister accompanied her.
