

KRAZERVILLE.

Grand-pap Jacob C. Ulrich is still on the sick list. Hope he will soon recover and mingle again among his friends. The apple and cherry crop will be light in this section this year. Farmers are busy cutting their grass and there will be an abundance of hay. H. A. Herman to day (Monday) made a fine shipment of straw-berries. His crop would have been much larger if dry weather had not set in. Prof. J. O. Herman is away on a visit and we do not know where but we hope he will have a pleasant time. Prof. I. L. Herman and family of Hartleton, Pa., mingled among friends at this place. Ex-county superintendent C. W. Herman spent Sunday with his parents. J. S. Yearick is improving his property with new out-buildings. Rev. Haas preached an able sermon in German on Sunday morning. The Evangelical Sunday school deserves much credit for the fine program it rendered Sunday night—it being their children's day. The exercises were very interesting and instructive. Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Hassinger of Middleburgh, visited friends over Sunday. We are always glad to see them. To day, Mr. Samuel Brouse, an old farmer of near town was buried. He was aged 75 years, 2 months and 8 days. He was a member of the Reformed church. Rev. Haas officiated. Samuel Teutt caught a fine bass one day last week which was the first caught and brought to town for this season. He still is at work on his patent for his new automatic fish hook. Our young folks continue to talk about the pleasant time they had at the commencement exercises of C. P. C. and tender their thanks to A. A. Hummel for services rendered as lecturer. By present appearance orange blossoms will soon be in demand. Remember Caesar on the occasion. CAESAR.

It matters not how inferior the quality of goods, if a suit fits well it looks well; and "visa versa," if it don't fit you may take whatever goods you please and it looks cheap. Then why buy ready made clothing that fits like a coffee sack on a bean-pole and falls to pieces from looking at it, when you can get a suit of better material, lasts twice as long and fits like the paper on the wall for almost the same money by simply calling on your local tailor and leaving your measure? My rapidly increasing trade convince me that the people are "catching on," and although I have plenty to do, I, with the rest of the world, still want more. Come and see my
