

MT. PLEASANT MILLS.

Rev. and Mrs. Harris of Williams-town were the guests of Nap. Brosius last week. Quite a number of our young pedagogues are attending Normal at Middleburgh. The G. C. band of this place has booked engagements for the next four Saturdays. Prof. P. Billhardt of Middleburgh will assist them on the clarinet. A new school house will be built near Aline. P. R. Shellenberger of Richfield, accompanied by Mrs. Porter of Philadelphia, and Miss Annie Woomer of Richfield, Sundayed in town, the guests of Joe Lenich. A number of our young folks attended the festival at the Summit Hotel on Saturday evening and report having had a good time. "Dutch" says he didn't reach home till the rooster began to crow. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Spangler of Middleburgh Sundayed at the Mt. Pleasant hotel. THEODORE.

LOWELL.

The grain is all cut and stored away. Some wheat has been threshed and turned out little over half a crop. The merchant is blamed for putting sand in sugar, the landlord water in whisky, but it can be proven the miller puts stones in chop. C. S. Wagner has moved to Troxelville where he intends running a stove mill. T. F. Swineford has quit the boarding-house business in Treaster Valley. Sold out to W. Treaster of Millin county. J. J. Stealy's little boy Roeder was severely scalded by upsetting a cup of hot coffee while eating. Some of our farmers are busy cutting their crop of oats. A number of our town folks went for huckleberries on Jacks mountain last week and came home with lots of room in their buckets for more. Johnny Wagner made a business trip to our county capitol last week and reports everything all O. K. U. No.

TRONELVILLE.

The harvest—which was the latest in the recollection of your scribe—is now finished. On most of the fields the wheat stood thin and was short in the straw, but the heads are large and well filled. On Friday Robt. Middlewarth & Co., and commenced their war on young chickens. Frank Ettinger is engaged as engineer and fireman for the company for this season. If Frank can handle the engine as successfully as he can handle his Winchester rifle on bears, this will be a prosperous season for the company. Phares Fetteroff, (who is a holy terror to the foxes of our wilds) is one of the hands to help manipulate the machine. "Netter's" abdominal capacity is spacious enough for at least two good sized roosters at each meal. Alph. W. Troxel, who is one of the company and who followed the threshing business for the last 8 or 10 years is so well known to every old rooster that upon his approach they scatter like a gang of bank robbers. Jere Moyer, of whose misfortune I made mention last week, is still in bed, but is slowly getting better. The oats is ripening and is fully 8 days ahead of regular time. Rain, is what every body is crying for. CAL. JOE.

KRATZERVILLE.

The post office is now at the upper end of town and Mr. Fetter, is an obliging officer. Misses Yearick and Herman were home over Sunday and report the Normal a success. Mr. Kaler and son and Mr. Biddle of Shenandoah, Pa., spent several days last week in our town at the Jackson Hotel, fishing and took along home a fine lot of black bass. Mr. Kaler bought one of B. F. Herman's fine Beagle hounds to take along to Shenandoah, Pa., as a pet to remind him of the pleasant time he spent while in our town. Quite a number of the boys will go to Shikellany the coming week to see the grand encampment of the National Guard. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herold and family of Herndon, Pa., visited at Dan Trutt's on Saturday. Miss Annie Wagner, one of our most accomplished young ladies will spend the week visiting friends at Shamokin Dam. Grand-pap Jacob C. Ulrich on last Wednesday spent his seventy-ninth birthday in bed, a speedy recovery would be our fondest wish as he had been confined to his room now for the last eight months. The young ladies of the Lutheran and Reformed Sunday School honored their boys by giving them a picnic and grand supper in G. B. Benfer's grove on last Saturday afternoon and evening, and quite a number of our people were present and all seem well pleased with the time spent. The boys tender their sincerest thanks to the ladies for their kindness and wait for an other invitation. Co. Surveyor C. L. Wetzel stopped over night one day last week at the Jackson and in the evening gave some fine violin selections at Ben. Herner's and George Klingler's. Mr. Wetzel is a fine violinist. Jolly Ike Seiler of Shamokin, wants to be with our fishermen this week a day or so. Ike will be the life of the party. Prof. Henry F. Derk a stenographer of the city of Philadelphia called on friends on Saturday. The Prof. is always welcome. Parties wishing to enjoy several day's fishing at Penns Creek need not fear of not receiving good accommodations while at the Jackson house. Mr. Herner's bar and table speak for themselves and the town extends a welcome to all visitors while stopping at his house. CAESAR.

LETTER FLICKER! You are your self to blame. You bought a cheap pair of shoes from an irresponsible dealer and the first time they got wet the paper soles came off. Go To Garman's, Middleburgh, and get a pair that will last you, and depend upon it, they are the cheapest in the end. In this world a man generally pays for what he gets, and the only safeguard against robbery is to buy of a responsible dealer who holds his trade by fair dealing.

N. A. BOWES, FASHIONABLE TAILOR!
Middleburgh, Pa.

It matters not how inferior the quality of goods, if a suit fits well it looks well; and "visa versa," if it don't fit you may take whatever goods you please and it looks cheap. Then why buy ready made clothing that fits like a coffee sack on a bean-pole and falls to pieces from looking at it, when you can get a suit of better material, lasts twice as long and fits like the paper on the wall for almost the same money by simply calling on your local tailor and leaving your measure? My rapidly increasing trade convince me that the people are "catching on," and although I have plenty to do, I, with the rest of the world, still want more. Come and see my

GUNS, AMUNITION, AND FISHING TACKLE.

Rods, Lines, Hooks, Reels, Flies, &c

If you want to catch big fish you must be provided with a good rod, strong line, a sharp hook, and plenty of bait. No matter what kind of bait you use, just so you catch the fish. The wriggling worm is a tempting bait, but the artificial bait, though less palatable to the fish, is equally alluring and oftentimes more successful. This is why we keep everything in the line of
