P. R. R. Excursions to the Coast.

On August 19th and 24th the last two of the popular summer series of seashore excursions will be run. A choice of four destinations is allowed—whether Atlantic City, Cape May, Ocean City, Sea Isle City. The success of these remaining excursions is assured by the patronage accorded the preceding two of the same series. Great satisfaction has been expressed on all sides at the company attended these attractive trips, everything possible being done for the convenience of its patrons. The special train will leave Pittsburg at 8.50 A. M., arriving in Philadelphia a little after seven in the evening. The night train may be spent in the Quaker City and any regular train taken the next day for the shore. The rates apply on regular trains leaving Pittsburg at 4.30, 7.00, and 8.10 P. M., or on special trains leaving at 8.50 A. M. on the above mentioned date.

TROXELVILLE.

Willoughby Ocker of near Laurelton, Union county, was a welcome visitor to his sister, Mrs. Kate Matern, over Sunday. Twenty years ago Mr. Ocker left this place, and revisited it only once in all these long years. Mr. Ocker is a hard worker, and time is telling fast on him. On Saturday morning we had a nice little shower of rain, but by Sunday evening old mother earth seemed to be furnishing again. The farmers are busy at their oats. Some have finished while others only commenced this morning. The complaint comes in now that we will have very few apples this fall. Geo. Jordan, while working at Dreese's stove mill, came in contact with a circular saw and got all his fingers on one of his hands so badly lacerated that the doctor thinks it will be necessary to amputate the index finger. The other week while Geo. I. Kline was working in the harvest field with his binder, a deer jumped up so close to Thos. Martin and bounded away that the dust from the antlered monarch's heels flew into Martin's eyes. I am told that there is still somebody dynamiting the trout in Swift Run. I hereby offer a reward of $25 to any person who will furnish me with sufficient evidence to convict the dirty rascals. If I can discover any one who does dynamite fish in any one of our streams I will promise to make a pretty example of him. I have been getting trout fry from the State Fish Commissioners for the last fifteen years, and put them into our mountain streams for the benefit of the public, but not to be murdered indiscriminately with dynamite. Take warning. I am not "blowing." I mean business. On Friday, the friends of Mrs. (Uncle) Rob. Middleburgh to the number of 49 gave her a real genuine surprise. It being the 52nd anniversary of her birth, Uncle Rob. was detailed to do the work which required the skill of a shrewd detective, i. e. to entice her from home so as to give a chance for preparation. He stands second to no one in planning a deer or a bear chase, and you can rest assured that his plan for decoying his wife from home worked like a charm. Mr. Middleburgh had taken his wife over to Michael Amiller's where they spent a very pleasant time, and returned home about 9 o'clock. Pickets were posted to give notice of their return, when all the lights were turned low and all became quiet as a death chamber. Just imagine about 25 women in a very dimly lit room trying to keep quiet. Impossible! After Mrs. Middleburgh had lit her lamp, a side door flew open and a rush for her was made which took her by such surprise that it put her in when he fell into a dry well, and was asked whether he was dead, whereupon he answered, "I'm not dead, but speechless." After a tremendous shower of congratulations had been bestowed upon her, the women prepared a lunch, under which the tables fairly groaned, and to which all—except Michael Hains, (who dislocated his left lower jaw eating pickled cucumbers to sharpen his appetite) did ample justice. Mrs. M. was the recipient of quite a number of presents for which she thanked the donors, not so much for their intrinsic value as for the evidence of esteem in which she is held by her many friends. After a very pleasant time spent together in recounting reminiscences, to which four generations listened—and time had passed the mid-night hour, all returned to their respective homes

CAL JOE.

CENTREVILLE.

Moon light nights are here again. Farmers are beginning to cut their oats. The price of butter has an upward tendency. John Mohn and wife were to Laurelton on Tuesday. Quite a number from this place took in the sight at Shikellamy on Wednesday. Miss Sallie Spaid of Middleburgh visited friends here recently. Jas. F. Spangler who was employed the last four months at Bellevue Ohio, returned on Friday. Isaac Shirey of McClure, candidate for county commissioner, was here seeing his friends on Thursday. Druggist J. E. Mohn of Jersey Shore, accompanied by his wife and child are visiting parents and friends here. Mrs. Esq. Shinkel visited relatives in Millinburg several days last week. There is no religion in saying that other people are not as good as you are. Show them your goodness by acts of kindness. Say, young man, you should not come to see your girl so often as she can hardly keep awake during the day. Our village was quite lively on Saturday evening. A festival being held at the west end of the town, and it was pretty well patronized by the young of both sexes. The girls bless 'em, looked awful sweet. They appeared in all their Sunday finery and feathers, and were fully equal to make the town as pleasant as possible. Among the Sunday visitors we noticed James M. Vanzant and wife at J. H. Hartman's. Dr. G. C. Mohn and wife of Laurelton at John Mohn's. S. A. Stine and wife of Swineford at P. Hartman's. Miss Annie Stine of Millingburg with parents. Dept. Collector A. C. Strode of Lewistown was in town on Monday.

KRATZERVILLE.

Saturday morning's rain was quite refreshing. The farmers have commenced cutting their oats and report a fine crop. Our threshers report the wheat crop a pretty fair one. Jolly Ike Seiler and D. K. Haas and brother of Shalokin, Pa., spent several days last week with our fishermen, and went home well pleased. Ike's phrase is taken by every body; "Come here Bill." Mrs. Polly Beaver on Friday morning had the misfortune to slip on the board walk in her yard and break her left arm below the elbow. She is getting along as well as can be expected. Miss Annie Dauberman, one of Northumberland's most accomplished young ladies is visiting her many friends at this place. Annie is always welcome. Prof. J. O. Ritter of the Middleburgh Normal class was home over Sunday to see his best girl. Ex-Couuty Supt. C. W. Herman Sundayed with his parents. J. S. Yearick and his two sons on Saturday afternoon caught over fifteen pounds of bass in about three hours' fishing, five of which weighed eleven pounds and fourteen oz. Who can beat that. The boys and girls who were to Shikellamy on the 27th ult. to see the grand encampment of the 12th P. N. G. are well pleased, and report Gov. Pattison and his staff fine looking gentlemen. Rev. Smith preached a valuable and well selected sermon on Sunday evening in the Evangelical church. Let us all try and follow his teaching. Charles Herman one day last week caught the finest lot of bass that we have seen yet this season. Charles understands fishing as good as his father.
