TRONELVILLE.

Our farmers are about done plowing and some have commenced sowing. The storm last week blew down and entangled the corn in such a manner that it will be a real picnic cutting it off. On Saturday evening while John W. Swartz was repairing a loaded rifle, he caused the weapon to explode, terribly lacerating his left hand. The gun was a borrowed one, and being told it was not loaded, he cleaned it and then exploded a cap to clean out the tube when the accident happened. J. O. Goss is afflicted with rheumatism. Last Thursday Perry D. Getz—who moved to Juniata county last spring, brought one of his children to this place for burial. The child was aged 4 months and 2 days, and had died of cholera infantum. Wm. Weader has the rough wall finished, and the lower timbers in place for his furniture store and...

DR. MILLER will build a house in this place. I hope it will come true. Uncle Rob. Middleworth bought himself a new Winchester repeating shot-gun, and I would now advise the squirrels and rabbits to say their prayers in a hurry, for if any of them escape it will be by special providence, like Washington, they must be lead-proof. Geo. M. Getz will give the new school house a coat of paint. Last Friday the squirrel season opened, and, judging from the shooting that was heard, not one of the little animals escaped. It appears that the quail which I fed over last winter have repaid me well for my trouble as there is a large covey in nearly every one of my fields. ## KRATZERVILLE.

Our farmers have begun their fall seeding. The recent storm blew down nearly all the pears and apples. Everybody is wishing for rain as many of the wells in town are running dry. What is the matter with our fishermen? They all come home in the evening empty-handed. Has Penns Creek no bass any more? Mr. Oliver Trutt, of the "City of Brotherly Love," is visiting his father, Mr. Daniel Trutt. Mr. Daniel Good raised nearly two hundred bushels of potatoes from one acre of ground. Who can beat it? Jos. Klingler will soon leave us. He will attend Central Penna. College, where he expects to get his "sheep skin" at the next commencement. Mr. John Ritter and Mrs. Y. H. Wagner will leave next week for the West. They expect to visit the World's Fair. Robert Bower and wife were visiting her brother-in-law, Mr. Jackson Klingler, over Sunday. Miss Jane Kline, who was visiting friends in the West, has returned. Miss Clara Good is visiting her grand-parents in Union county. Tom, every body asks, why does the Post come on Thursday. Will you please explain the cause? [That's the day we issue.—Ed.] Our band furnished music for the Erdley's Sunday school picnic last Saturday. They report having had a nice time. The Kratzerville Lutheran and Reformed Sunday school will hold its annual picnic in the church park on Saturday, Sept. 9. Able speakers will be present. Music will be furnished by the Kratzerville cornet band. No huckstering will be allowed on the ground. CESAR.

SELINGROVE.

Mrs. Harry Noll, of Myerstown, Pa., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gemberling, on High St. A boat load of Sunday school picnickers from Port Trevorton went up to Clement's Park last Saturday morning. The 35th anniversary of the laying of the corner-stone of Missionary Institute was celebrated on the campus last Friday afternoon. Addresses were delivered by some of the professors who were present when the corner-stone was laid 35 years ago. Rev. E. B. Killinger, of Central Illinois, a former graduate of the theological department of Missionary Institute and son-in-law of the late Wm. F. Wagenseller, is on a visit to friends in town for a few days. Mrs. T. M. Campbell, a very estimable lady of Sunbury, made a two days' visit to her friends, Mrs. Kate Kantner and Mrs. Rose Wallace, last week. Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Bolig visited their daughter, Mrs. Klöse, at McClure over Sunday. The number of students in the classical department of the Institute is now up in the nineties. Eighty-seven students responded at the first roll-call, while a number have come since. Rev. E. B. Killinger will deliver a lecture in the town hall on Saturday evening on a secular subject. MENTON.

PAXTONVILLE.

Mr. W. D. Harner, who was working at Shamokin, came home on account of not having employment. Melvin Harner and John Weidenmoyer, who were working at McClure this summer, came home to stay. Mrs. B. C. Dillman, of Milton, spent a week among relatives and friends at this place. We are always glad to see her. Some of our young people took in the sights at Millinburg last Saturday. Mrs. Samuel Stetler and Sallie Gill made a flying trip to Danville on Monday. Jonathan Boardman and wife, Madison and Evora Attig and Fred. Bufon spent a few days last week at the Grangers' Picnic and Gettys-

A Good Thing to Keep at Hand

From the Troy (Kansas) Chief. Some years ago we were very much subject to severe cholera morbus; and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually precede that ailment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhoea, etc., we become scared. We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the very thing to straighten one out in such cases, and always keep it about. We are not writing this for a pay testimonial, but to let our readers know what is a good thing to keep handy in the house.

For sale by G. M. Shindel, Middleburgh, and J. W. Sampsell, Penns Creek. Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administered it to her own offspring and always with the best results.

For a lame back or for a pain in the side or chest, try saturating a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and binding it onto the affected parts. This treatment will cure any ordinary case in one or two days. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism. 50 cent bottles for sale by G. M. Shindel, Middleburgh, and J. W. Sampsell, Penns Creek.
