

MONROE TOWNSHIP.

Harris Row repaired his dwelling house and Henry Kreiter his barn... Franklin Sholler is preparing timber for a new black-smith shop... John A. Lenig and Isaac Bilger were the guests of P. R. Lenig's. They presented Mr. Lenig with a dog of the same breed that Christopher Columbus brought from Italy to this country, and two monster eels. Samuel Bulick and family visited friends in Northumberland... P. R. Lenig and family were the guests of their daughter, Mrs. John Gross, of Northumberland, on Sunday... A daughter of Philip Moyer, of Flint Stone Valley, Washington township, died in Shamokin after an illness of one week. Her remains were brought home on Monday. The deceased was a grand-daughter of the late Rev. Erlenmeyer of Freeburg... Saturday, the 9th, inst., was Kratzerville's greatest day—the picnic. It was a nice, cool day, and everybody seemed to enjoy himself. Some got a little "full" and wrothy, but those who came to learn the truth and enjoy themselves, no doubt, thought like the old Indian did when he saw the bear and panther fight, viz: "Let them fight it out." Over 2,000 people and 250 rigs were on the ground. Rev. Oschenford was one of the orators of the day and delivered an impressive oration on the Bible to the young, urging them to become Bible readers.

A terrific thunder-storm, accompanied by hail as large as hickory-nuts, passed through here last Thursday evening about dusk, destroying almost everything in its path, which was almost direct south. Trees that weathered the blasts for more than a hundred years were blown down or broken and twisted off in mid-air and carried from fifty to one hundred feet away. A house in Sunbury was blown down. Jonathan Hummel's barn was unroofed and Wm. Ritter's was badly damaged. Window panes (as high as thirty in one house) were broken, the corn was stripped of its leaves and but ears and stalks remain. Buckwheat was cut off as with a scythe, late potatoes, young strawberry patches, and, in fact, everything that was not garnered suffered severely. The most regrettable and which takes a long time to re-place are the many apple-trees that were blown down or delinbed. It is with sadness that we can say that Mrs. A. W. Bickel, of Freeburg, in the loss of one day... Mrs. A. W. Bickel, who has been ill for some time, is convalescent... Franklin Walter, who had been ailing with dyspepsia, is improving rapidly under his new medical treatment... Lieut. George Herrold and family, of Chapman, and his son Charles and family, of Herndon, North'd Co., mingled with relatives and friends at Kratzerville. V. T.

KRATZERVILLE.

Thursday night's rain and hail storm did considerable damage in this section. The hail-stones broke as high as forty window-panes in one house and the corn is entirely stripped of its leaves. To-day (Monday) B. F. Herman and son, H. M. Dork and J. S. Yearick will leave for a week's fishing in the Susquehanna at McKees Falls, where they will be joined by Lieut. Geo. Herrold, of Chapman, and D. K. Haas and I. G. Seiler of Shamokin. We wish them a pleasant time while in camp and hope they will catch an abundance of fish... Mr. H. F. Dauberman fell on Saturday and cut an ugly gash in his head. Hugh has our sympathy... Prof. Newton Cornelius, of Denver Springs, Colo., was seen at our picnic in company with our townsman, Peter Klingler, who knows how to entertain his old teacher... Dr. J. Q. Wagner, wife and little son are Sundaying at his father's Squire Wagner's... Rev. Martin Lopley of Connecticut paid our town a pleasant visit on picnic day. The Rev. is always welcome among his old acquaintances... The Lutheran and Reformed picnic was well attended. The fore-noon was devoted to speech making, and able addresses were delivered by Rev. Oschenford and Prof. Wm. Moyer. The afternoon was devoted to singing the praises of Bingo. Between 1,500 and 2,000 persons were in attendance. They all came as pleasure-seekers and no doubt found what they sought... The flattering accounts brought back from the World's Fair by Messrs. Reichly and Pontious have inspired some of our boys with the idea that they should go too... John Walburn, our jolly blacksmith, is working for B. F. Duck at Dry Valley X Roads. CAESAR.

Water from the Jordan River.

Of all strange articles that pass through the U. S. Custom House from time to time perhaps none has, of late years, attracted so much attention as seven barrels of water from the baptismal pool of the Jordan River. This remarkable shipment was consigned by United States Consul at Jerusalem to the Jerusalem and the Crucifixion Panorama, on Wabash Avenue, Chicago, where it has just been delivered.

Eight large casks started by camel train overland from the Jordan to Joppa, the Joppa of Bible days, but one camel with its burden was lost by falling over a rocky precipice, so but seven barrels reached their destination. The announcement of the arrival of this shipment by the New York and Chicago papers brought scores of people to the great Panorama, all anxious to procure some of this remarkable liquid; some wanted it for healing purposes, some as souvenirs, others for baptismal ceremonies. Mr. Gross, the manager of this remarkable and enterprising religious exhibition, said the idea of the importation was to present at stated time small bottles of this water to visitors to this magnificent, religious Exhibition, which comprises not only the panorama of Jerusalem and the Crucifixion, but also the world famous painting, "Christ's Triumphal Entry Into Jerusalem."

Cost of an Ex-President's Manuscript.

As an illustration of the money paid to writers as soon as they acquire a reputation, the September Commonwealth contains less than eight thousand words, for which the sum of sixteen hundred and sixty-six dollars was paid. Ex-President Harrison, Mark Twain and William Dean Howells are the three whose work commands such a price.

The September number has more than one hundred illustrations, giving the chief points of interest in the Columbian Expositions, and the Fair is treated by more than a dozen authors, including the famous novelist, Walter Besant; the Midway Plaisance, by Julian Hawthorn; Electricity, by Murat Haistead; the Liberal Art Building, by Kunz, the famous gem expert of Tiffany & Company; the Department of Mines, by the chief of that department, etcetera.

A feature of this number is a story by Mark Twain entitled "Is He Living or Is He Dead?"

LET 'ER FLICKER! You are your self to blame. You bought a "cheap" pair of shoes from an irresponsible dealer and the first time they got wet the paper soles came off.

Go To Garman's, Middleburg, and get a pair that will last you, and depend upon it, they are the cheapest in the end. In this world a man generally pays for what he gets, and the only safe guard against robbery is to buy of a responsible dealer who holds his trade by fair dealing.
