

Unlucky Days.

To be struck by lightning on Monday. To sit on a circular saw in motion on Tuesday. To fall down stairs with the coal scuttle on Wednesday. To get wet when you fall overboard while boating on Thursday. To see a tax collector over your right shoulder on Friday. To marry on Saturday a girl who practices with ten pound dumbbells. To be one of sixteen at a table on Sunday where there is only food for six.

SELINGSGROVE.

The body of Mrs. Jonathan Gemberling, who lived out West—near Elkhart, Ind., was brought to her former home near Salem, last week. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon at Row's Church. Mrs. Rev. Leply of Sullivan, (nee Glover,) who was visiting friends in town left last Tuesday for home again. David Reitz, who lives in the West, a former Selingsgrove boy, visited relatives and friends in town last week. Mrs. Kate Kantner had her Semi-annual festival last Friday and Saturday evening at her rooms on Snyder street. We are informed that she was well patronized. The Lutheran Church had harvest home services last Sunday morning. The products of the soil were copiously and tastefully displayed in front of the pulpit; and the rector preached a fine sermon. Veterinary Doctor Petteiger of our town, was serenaded by the boys last night—he having taken unto himself a "better half."

KRATZERVILLE.

Friday afternoon's rain did considerable damage to the sown fields. Prof. J. O. Ritter will accompany Mrs. Squire Wagner on a visit among western friends. Rev. Bateman of Salt Lake City, will deliver a sermon of the mission in Utah among the Mormons at 2 p. m. Sunday, Oct. 1st. Let everybody come and hear him. Rev. Oehsenford preached his harvest home sermon to a large congregation on Sunday morning. Rev. Oehsenford started the ball on Sunday afternoon to organize a Christian Endeavor society among our young folks. It is a move in the right direction. We are glad to see Master Willie Fisher, who was down with diphtheria, out again. Quite a number of people passed through town on Sunday afternoon. A colored camp meeting at Clement's Park. On coming Saturday three of the Sunday schools of New Berlin, will picnic in G. B. Benfer's grove 1 1/2 miles west of town. Let our full brigade turn out to see the New Berlinites. The fishing party that camped at McKees Falls came home on Friday night and report enough fish and fun to make the leanest man fat. Rev. Deobler preached an excellent sermon on Sunday evening in the Ev. Church, in German.

ADAMSBURG.

On next Saturday afternoon and evening the members of the Ladies Aid Society of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of this place will hold a fair and festival, at which time they will offer the quilt for sale containing over 1200 names. The Adamsburg band will enliven the occasion with their choice music. All are cordially invited to attend. Mrs. Dr. Frank of Millheim, is visiting here. On last Friday afternoon the widow of John B. Smith fell off the porch, a distance of about 7 feet and was picked up unconscious and carried into the house. She expired in about 10 minutes, supposed cause, apoplexy. The interment took place on Sunday forenoon, Rev. Landis officiating. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Aurand and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dreese left for Chicago to take in the World's Fair. Our thanks are due to W. H. Ewing and family for the excellent water melons furnished us. Dogs killed some of Anis Gross's sheep. Howard Shambaugh returned home from Milroy where he was acting section boss. Our inventor of the Car Coupler is positive that he will have a sale in the near future. Mr. Gemberling of Ind., is visiting J. G. Moyer and family. The wedding referred to some time ago, took place. Who will be the next. Misses Estella Romig and Emma Mitchell visited in Lewistown. The picnic season of 1893 will soon close and be a thing of the past. Peaches are plenty and of good quality. Our public schools will open on October 2nd. Rev. Fred. Aurand's are visiting here.

JACOB H. HETRICK, 4w. 1 mile west of Beavertown.

"This is a practical demonstration that every man ought to have his name printed on his envelopes," said the postmaster, pointing to two or three letters held for postage. "Any man is likely to put a letter in the postoffice without stamps on it. With a card on the corner of the envelope, we can stamp it and collect the postage when the writer comes in. We don't know who dropped those letters into the box and must hold them until we write to the persons addressed and they send us the necessary postage. That is the rule of the postoffice department."

The girl that gives away to a desire to gad about the streets to cultivate the acquaintance of young men and act the simpering simpleton, is laying the foundation for a useless after life. Ten to one, when married she will develop into a slatternly gossip, if no greater misfortune befalls her. It is the girl of good sound horse sense, the girl that loves home and helps her mother, that wins the model man and becomes an ornament to womanhood. The girl that does this and devotes some of her spare time to reading and strives for the graces of mental culture, commands the respect and esteem of everybody, while gadding street ornaments only win the admiration of those whose attention is not worth having.

I feel like saying something BAD. A man sitting in a chair, looking unwell. Suffering from a headache or other ailment.

LETTER FLICKER! You are your self to blame. You bought a "cheap" pair of shoes from an irresponsible dealer and the first time they got wet the paper soles came off. Go To Garman's, Middleburgh, and get a pair that will last you, and depend upon it, they are the cheapest in the end. In this world a man generally pays for what he gets, and the only safeguard against robbery is to buy of a responsible dealer who holds his trade by fair dealing.
