A Striking Coincidence.

The platform of the Democratic State Convention held at Harrisburg, last week says : "We declare that the disturbed financial condition of the country has followed Republican administration, and that the business depression has resulted from vicious legislation for which the Republican party is wholly responsible.'

Possibly so-at least it is not absolutely necessary to go into any elaborate controversion of these very mitions. - nd very flippant juse at this time. It may, however, be casually remarked that it is at least a striking coincidence that these "business depressions" always attended periods of Democratic control, and that the "vicious legislation" referred to did not develop its perdicious effects as long as the Republican party was in control of legislation and administration.

	Granger's Hollow has not been heard of lately. Nobody is sorry. James Lesher and family, of Ne- braska, were visiting in this place last week. A party of young folks from Lewisburg, whose names we were unable to learn, were visiting at Van Devender's last week. The gun of the hunter can be heard in every direction, Sundays. If this is repeated we will not withhold their names. Sad Straits in Kansas

The condition of the farmers in Kansas who have mortgages on their lands which are maturing is far from enviable. Most of the mortgages are owned by Eastern investors and capitalists who are calling in their money as fast as they mature. The large companies in the East which deal in Kansas securities find that there is no call for them. Most all companies doing business in Kansas are pulling out as fast as they can, not for want of business, but for the reason that the legislation sentiment him. and general antagonistic feeling toward a loan company is vicious and that has been expected for some time, and it causes no surprise in financial or well informed circles. The foolish, yet dangerous senti-REAL ESTATE ments promulgated by Kansas upon finance and money, have convinced the business men and investors in the East that such ruinous legislation as proposed, much of it being in actual operation in that State, merits the severest rebuke and, as a consequence, financial centres in the East will do as little business with Kansas as possible until the financial cranks in Kansas are relegated into the oblivion from which they unhappily came. What Kansas need to do is to get their State into its former reasonable condition and have its laws in future made by men of sense.
