CENTREVILLE.

We had quite a storm last week and what worried the small boy was how he could gather all the chestnuts... Uriah Weirick and Valentine Walter returned from their World's Fair trip on Wednesday... Lincoln Bowersox, of Dayton, O., was here a few days, attending the funeral of his father... Miss Ella Shinkel visited in Millinburg last week... John Showers and wife, of Lewisburg, spent a few days in town among relatives and friends... Gossiping and lying go hand in hand... D. R. Smith and G. W. Sheary were in Adamsburg on Sunday... The Reformed congregation will celebrate the Lord's Supper next Sunday forenoon. Preaching also on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of this week. Communion services will also be held by the Lutheran congregation on Sunday, Oct. 29th. Services also on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings during the week previous.

SELINGSGROVE.

Last Saturday evening while Mr. N. Kantner, accompanied by his grand-son, Willie Kantner, drove home from Northumberland a two-horse team collided with his buggy, broke it to pieces and threw him and the little fellow out. Fortunately they escaped with a few bruises... Rev. Yutzy had his fall communion last Sunday. He was assisted by Dr. Zeigler... Rev. Dr. David A. Day, General Synod Missionary to Africa, lectured to a large audience last Friday in the 2nd Lutheran church. Dr. Day leaves for Muhlenberg Mission again on the 21st, inst... The storm last Friday night did considerable damage in town and this vicinity. Trees and fences were leveled to the ground... Rev. Haas, pastor of the Reformed church of this place, returned from the World's Fair latter part of last week. Sunday evening last the Reverend gentleman gave his congregation a sample of Mr. Moody's preaching, giving them as near as possible the same sermon he heard Mr. Moody preach in the Haymarket Theatre while in Chicago... Charles Gemberling, of Williamsport, a former Selingsgrover, is visiting his father on South Market St. MENTOR.

KRATZERVILLE.

Friday night's storm played havoc with fences and corn-shocks... Our public schools are in full blast with a complete series of new text books. Prof. Sam Reichly of Northumberland was in town Sunday—the guest of his better half... J. C. Klingler of Central Penn'a College was home over Sunday. The Senior class has no effect on him... The sale of Benj. Herman, dee'd, was well attended, Saturday, and the articles brought a good price... Benj. Kline has a full force of plasterers at work on his house this week... James Erdly, the Republican candidate for Commissioner was in town last week looking after his political fences, but as he is very popular in this end of the county they needed no repairs... Daniel Trutt will again move out of town back to his farm in Union Co. Mr. T. was one of our boss fishermen and I suppose we are all sorry to see him go—even the bass will regret his departure as he used to feed them but couldn't catch them... Aaron Stahlnecker and wife, were the guests of B. F. Herman on Sunday. Rev. Swengel preached a very able sermon at the funeral of the child of Mr. and Mrs. Littington.
