Justice Before Charity.

Some of our Democratic candidates are asking for complimentary votes from the Republicans. We regret very much that we cannot agree with them and consider their claims justified. The fact is every Republican owes something to his party—that something is his vote for its nominees. As long as you have no more than one vote you have no right to become charitable and give that away which belongs to another, and which you are almost in duty bound to deliver to the proper person because of your promise at the primary.

No sir. Pay your own obligations before you liquidate the obligations of others. That is mainly, honorable, upright. Be just before being charitable.

Z. Taylor Gemberling, our Republican candidate for Associate Judge, is out every day calling upon his many friends throughout the county and making assurance doubly sure of their support. Mr. Gemberling has not only been a faithful supporter of Republican principles, but a hard worker for the party, and a candidate more deserving of the hearty and united support of the whole Republican ticket cannot be found in the field. Voters, you know your duty. Let nothing induce you to waver or fail.

J. C. Bowersox and C. F. Moyer, the Republican candidates for Auditors, are entitled to your hearty support. Mr. Bowersox's efficiency to fill the requirements of the office has proven itself by the services already performed in the office to which he now asks a re-election. Mr. Moyer is editor of a newspaper—hence his ability is not questioned; and while editor of that paper he has always been faithful to the party and responded promptly to its calls, which entitles him to the support due a true blue Republican.

Fell and Jackson, the Republican candidates for Supreme Judge and State Treasurer, should receive a large Republican majority in this county, as their vote in the State will be the political straw that shows the current of sentiment in the politics of the country. The endorsement of the Republican party is sufficient evidence of the good character of the gentlemen, and your vote on the 7th of November will show whether you endorse the course pursued by the Democratic administration or not. This is the opportunity for the poor but independent man to slap back at the Democratic administration and show by his vote on the State ticket that, although a Democrat, he does not endorse the course pursued by the present President. This is an opportunity that comes only once a year, and it is the only time the politicians give heed to your voice. Send one home right from the shoulder.

Vote for Marand Rothrock, the Republican candidate for Coroner. He is an experienced and successful physician, a consistent party man, and has filled one term of the office to which he aspires with great credit. He is the last man on the ticket, but by no means the least important. Vote for Doc. Rothrock.

There is probably not a man in the county better suited for the office of Sheriff than Alfred Specht, our present candidate, and there probably never was a man out for office who was as sure of getting it as he—nevertheless, no one has ever heard him express such assurance. This is due to his extreme reservedness. Careful of words is an important quality in an officer, and this coupled with the other sterling qualities he possesses will make him a typical Sheriff for Snyder county.

The world forgives a man everything but failure. There is nothing that succeeds like success, and people admire perseverance, pluck and push. This is what has brought C. C. Seebold, our candidate for Treasurer, so prominently before the people. He asks for nothing but what he thinks he ought to have, and then he goes for it in a manner that shows that he is in dead earnest, and the result is that he generally wins. He is the "nonpareil" in the political arena—having never been defeated, and there is no danger of his not making a neck and neck race in number of votes with the most popular candidate on our ticket.

The Snyder county Republican ticket this year has only three veterans of the late war on its face, thus showing that they are growing fewer in number at each succeeding election. Two of these veterans are applicants for the same office—that of County Commissioners. Their names are Thomas Herbster and James Eddley—and they will, of course, be elected, for what crooked paths in politics could lead to other results? They are gentlemen of unquestioned honor, and are above the average in intelligence. They have good judgment, and, above all, they have doubly earned the recognition they have received from the party by their long years of loyalty and faithful work for the same. Stand by them and don't trade—inasmuch that in such a trade the Republican party has all to lose and nothing to gain.
