

PAXTONVILLE.

Chas. Boyer went to the city this week to buy his fall and winter goods. H. W. Felty treated his horse to a coat of paint last week. Emery Ernest came home last week from the lumber woods and expects to stay at home this winter. Austin Gift took in the sights at the World's Fair last week. Miss Alice Weidenmoyer who was living at Lewistown, came home on account of sickness. Simon Decker moved to Glen Union last week. Howard Shambach spent Sunday at Port Trevorton. Next Sunday evening we will have communion service in the Evangelical church. Mrs. Elizabeth Dersham, who was visiting at Watsontown, returned home last week. DOXIE.

LOWELL.

Some of our old veterans took in the re-union of the 49th held last week in Lewistown, and they say it was a success in every way, especially the free supper gotten up by the ladies of the town. At this writing some of our farmers have not shucked any corn yet, others are done and a half a crop was the result. Emanuel Peter is talking of holding a shooting match for his two educated bears. Johnny Wagner & Co. attended the market in Lewistown and report market good, onions brought 90 cents. Corn was sold at Treaster's sale last week at 8 cents per bushel. Any person having pigs to sell that will not get fat, can find a purchaser by calling on J. P. Fisher. Some of the candidates are visiting this end of late and report all having nice babies. U. No.

ADAMSBURG.

Communion services were held in the Lutheran church on Sunday. Two were received into Church fellowship. Misses Ella Weidman and Chrissie Steinger were to Philadelphia to buy their stock of fall millinery goods. George Laub and J. O. Wagner have returned from Chicago. J. G. Moyer started for the World's Fair on Saturday. W. F. Haines, who, in company with Mr. Geise, had gone to Philadelphia to buy a carload of horses, has returned and will this week make sale of the horses at Paxinos. P. S. Bingham and wife, of Paddy Mountain, spent Sunday with friends at this place. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Aurand spent a week with their son, Rev. C. M. Aurand, at Berwick. Dr. A. M. Smith and wife took in the re-union of the Pa. Volunteers at Lewistown. H. O. Smith has purchased a lot from W. H. Dreese and has already dug the foundation for a new house. Elmer E. Shannon, our plasterer, has a contract to plaster three houses at Painterville this fall. Miss Aggie Zong is home from Milton. Prof. J. E. Sprengle Field, secretary of the State S. S. Association, will hold a district institute on Nov. 13 and 17. Place of meeting will be made known next week.

PORT TREVORTON.

Jerry G. Snyder of this place is spending a vacation with his brother in Philadelphia. The river is full of wild fowls and almost all the boys have the duck fever, but thus far John D. Bogar is the only man that can boast of having had a duck pot-pie. At the foot of the old coal basin, on the berme bank of the canal, stands an odd contrivance, which daily excites the curiosity of the curious. Yet it is but a common threshing engine connected with a rubber belt to a reel of fair proportion, which when in motion winds coil upon coil of a strong steel rope. The purpose of it all is to drag logs from the river into the canal. Just a few rods below the Silver creek aqueduct lay Rife's boats. In the cabin were four boys concerning whom some very vague suspicions were being entertained. But who could be sure? The overflowing water of the aqueduct destroyed all possibilities of an explanation by hearing, while windows heavily curtained, baffled the vision, yet, secrets will out, and the sweet scent of roasting possum which shortly permeated the keen frosty atmosphere, satisfied the wonderers and exploded their false notions. Soon three more boys entered the cabin only to behold a table well set and to see one of the four who had been elevated to the huge knife and catering to the appetites of the rest with all the original etiquette of a primitive love feast. The possum, needless to say, was soon disintegrated, and nothing remains to tell of his existence, save his hide of which he was carefully divested before the process of barbecuing set in. WAVEBLY.

SELINGSGROVE.

E. Dentz, the jeweller on Market street, had a slight stroke of paralysis last Thursday morning. Mrs. Norman, relic of the late Wm. Norman, died last Thursday morning. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon. Rev. W. A. Haas of the Reformed church officiated. B. F. Bolig, living about a half mile out of town had a severe attack of cramp last Saturday evening. Medical aid was summoned which relieved him. Mrs. Burns, widow of the late Jacob Burns was stricken with paralysis last Saturday. At this writing we are unable to report her present condition. Dr. B. F. Emerick of Mt. Carmel, visited his sister, Mrs. Jno. M. Boyer over Sunday on High street. Col. Holtzworth, of the Market street bakery, had the misfortune last week of losing another horse. Rev. Samuel J. Ulrick left yesterday morning for Cauby, Pa. to attend the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, of which he is a member. Mrs. Franklin Schoch last week one day while assisting her hired help cleaning house, fell off a stepladder and was severely injured. We are pleased to say that she is pretty well again. MENTOR.
