OUR CRACK WARSHIP.

The Oregon, the Most Powerful Vessel In the American Navy is Launched. Shortly before noon the battleship Oregon first vessel of her class contracted on the Pacific slope, was inunched from the ways at the Union Iron Works, San Francisco, in the presence of one of the greatest crowds of people that ever assembled there to witness a similar event. The launch was entirely successful, and the new battleship now lies in a little lagoon in front of the 'nion from works awaiting her completion, which will be pushed as rapidly as possible.

The Oregon is what is technically known as a sea-going coast line battleship, and is the most powerful ship in the United States Navy. Her dimensions are: Length over all, 348 feet; load water line, 320 feet; breadth. 39 feet 3 inche-, draught, 24 feet; displace ment, 10, 278 tons: maximum horse power 9,-000. She will have a maximum speed of 16,2 knots and will carry a crew of 460 men. Her cost, exclusive of armament, is $4,000,

The armament consists of four 13-inch. eight 8-inch and four 6-inch breech-loading ritles also a secondary battery of one 26-pounder and six 1-pounder rapid firing gans, two gatting gans and six torpedo tubes. The 13-inch and 8-inch gans are mounted in

BRIGHT HOPES FOR BUSINESS The Promise of the Early Passage of the Silver Repeal Bill Injects Fresh

Life Into Trade. R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Frade says:

Port is in sight after a long and stormy voyage, and the prospect of a speedy end of the struggle over silver repeal has brought bright hopes to business. Stocks climbed rapidly for three days, banks relaxed restraints, commercial loans are more freely sought and made, and reports from all quarters show the prevalence of a more hope; al feeling. This of itself tends to produce some revival of consumption and of industry, which, nevertheless, has made but moderate progress as vet-

It is still too soon to expect much effort in trade and manufactures, and though monetary obstacles are to a large extent removed. there still remain other legislative questions tinued unusually strong.

As yet there is seen only a continuance of the faint and slow increase in distribution of products which has been noticed for ome weeks Nor does even this gradual revival to demand extend to all branches

The New York banks still accumulate money, and commercial loans are more larrely asked and obtained. This enables merchants to take goods out of bond and may increase customs receipts, which hav amounted in 25 days of October to $10,238. 1891, against $16,295,559 for the full month last year. # THE MAYOR MURDERED.

CARTER HARRISON, OF CHICAGO

Shot in Bis Home. Crime of a Crank A Disappointed Applicant for Office the Assassin.

CARTER HARRISON, world's fair mayor of Chicago, lies dead in his palatial home in that city killed by an assassin's builet just as the great exposition, in which he took ac much pride, was closing. He was killed by a disappointed applicant for office.

At 7:15 Saturday even ng a man ran np the steps of Mayor Harrison's residence, 231 South Ashland boulevard and rang the bell. A woman servant answered the bell. and the man asked for Mr. Harrison. She said she would call him. She passed back through the hall leaving the outside door open. A moment later Mr Harrison stepped from the parlor into the ball. In an instant the man had drawn a revolver and fired, the shot entering the addomen just above the navel. Two more shots rang out, the first entered Mr. Harrison's body just under the left arm and pen-ctrated the heart. When the first shot was fired Mr. Harrison had started toward the door and was within a few feet of his assassin when the second shot struck him. He was so close when the bullet left the gun that the leaden missile shattered on the knuckles of the left hand and the powder burned the flesh. After the last shot was fired the mayor stepped into the parlor and started towards the dining room. He had taken but a few steps, however, when he fell into the butler's arms. The servant led him to the rear of the house, His son, Preston Harrison, who was upstairs at the time of the shooting ran down and was at his father's side in an in-

Mr. Harrison said: "I am shot, Preston, and cannot live."

The assassin was soon caught and gave is name as Patrick Eugene Prendergast. He is probably insane. He was employed as newshoy for the evening Post and Inter-Ocean and lives at 609 Jane street with his mother and brother John.

When asked why he killed the mayor, he epited: "Because my conscienc so dictated le promised to make me corporation connbut kept putting me off after he found out that I was in favor of elevating railroad tracks. Harrison stands in with the railroads, and I considered it to be my inty to remove him before any more people were slaughtered by the railroads.

Mayor Harrison was conscious to the last. His death occurred 15 minutes after the shots were fired. His last words were farewell to his children and a message to Miss Annie Howard, the young lady who was to have been his bride on November 16 At midnight the police removed Prender-cast over on the North Side to the country all under a heavy guard. Miss Howard was in the house at the time the fatal shot was fired. In accordance with the wounded man's request she was at once sommoned to his side and was present when the end came. When it became evident that Mr. Harrison could not survive his njuries and could not live but a few min-ites at most. Miss Howard's grief was pitiable She was completely overcome and was led away by freeds who feared for the effect upon her or her grief. She was taken in a closed carriage to the home of Carter H. Harrison, Jr., where she spent the night.

The question of Management we correct to the mayoralty is in some doubt although according to the law the corporation counsel will undoubtedly take charge for the present.

Early Sunday morning a coroner's jury was summoned and an inquest held at the Harrison residence. The jury found that death resulted from shock and hemorrhage caused from bullets fired from a revolver in the hands of Patrick Eugene Prendergast. The verdict recommended that Prendergast be held for murder.

During the inquest Deputy Coroner Kel-ley asked Prendergast if a he had a statepent to make, but the prisoner retused to Carrier Henry Hangison was born in Favette county, Kentucky, February 15, 1823, gra-cated at Yale in 1846, read law, engaged in farming, traveled for two years in foreign cities, and after receiving his degree from Transylvania law school. Lexington, Ky., settled in Chicago, where he engaged in real estate. After the great fire f 1871 he served as county commissioner for three years.

Returning frem a second European journey in 1874, he was elected to congress as a Democrat by so close a vote that his competitor, who had defeated him in the pre-ceding contest gave notice of a contest. He was re elected and in 1879 was chosen mayor of Chicago, which office he filled for iour terms. He left the office to take a trip around the world accompanied by his two sons, but as soon as he returned te again began to dabble in politics and in 1891 ran for mayor as an independent against he Witt C. Creiger, the regular Democratic nominee, who was standing for re-election and Hempstead Washburne, Republican. The three cornered fight resulted in the election of Washburne.

Again he trad for the mayoralty this year, his great ambition being to be the world's fair mayor. In preparation for the campaign he purchased the Chicago Times and acked by this journal and the machinery, secured the nomination, Sam W. Allerton, a respectable real estate dealer, was put up as the citizen's candidate, but Harrison triumphantly elected by a majority of nearly 50,000.

Last summer his engagement to Annie Howard, a wealthy New Orleans belle, belonging to a prominent southern family, was announced and their wedding day had just been fixed She is the daughter of the late Charles Howard, one of the organizers of the Lou-isiana lottery. He died a few years ago, leaving Miss Annie over $4,000,000. She was born at Biloxi, a watering place in Mississippi, toward the close of the civil war. She received a careful education at her father's home on the Hudson, has traveled extensively, and is an altogether charming, cul-

She has given over $1,000,000 to charity.

Through Mrs. Harrison, Jr., who was a girlhood friend she first met Mr. Harrison. and last spring shortly after the fair opened she was woosd and won by his henor, and accepted. The wedding was to have taken place in New Orleans, and would have been ne of the most brilliant affairs ever held in the south.

All arrangements had been made to take a large party of posttical and personal friends south by a special train and return after the ceremony. An extended wedding trip had been planned.

THE MURDERER PROMPTLY INDICTED. Patrick Eugene Prendergast's indictment for the murder of Mayor Carter H. Harrison for the murder of Mayor Carter H. Harrison aturday evening followed quickly after his crime. Police Inspector Shea was called into the Grand Jury room at Chicago, shortly before noon Monday. He testified briefly to the circumstances in the case and the Grand Jury promptly returned a true bill against Patrick Eugene Prendergast for murder.

EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS

SENATE—The dilatory debate on the silver repeal bill was continued and after a brief ression the Senate took another recess until

o-morrow. House-In the House after some routine ousiness, the debate on the bankraptcy bill was resumed and the bouse adjourned without final action on it.

SENATE—The Senate to-day relapsed into be usual drowny, semi-comatose condition. sensior Jones, of Nevada, finished his real-ly able argument for silver. He is acknow-edged to be the best informed statesman on that question in the world and his speech in the Senate, while it spread over agris of five days, was listened to as no other effort on that side of the question has been. Senator Stewart continued his remarks and was followed by others, after which the Senate went into executive session and later took a recess until 11 o'clock o-morrow morning. House.—The debate on the bankruptcy oill was continued in the house to-day. Mr. oombs, Democrat, of New York advocated and Mr. Lane. Democrat of lilingis, and Mr. Kilgore, Democrat, of Texas, opposed he measure. The house adjourned without final action.

SEVENTIETH DAY.

SENATE—The Senate spent nearly seven hours in session to-day, but did not reach the end of the legislative day of Tuesday. October 19. Aimost the whole time was consumed in discussing the silver purchase repeal bill. The House bill authorizing the construction of a bridge across the Hudson river between New York and New Jersey. was reported from the committee on Con-merce and paced on the calendar. The Irgency Deficiency appropriation bill was reported back from the Committee on Ap-propriations and ordered printed. At 5:45 he senate took a recess until 11 o'clock tomorrow.

House—The bankruptey bill was again the principal feature of the proceedings in the House to- ay, but no action was had when adjournment came.

**EVENTY FIRST DAY.

SENATE—Voting on the amendment to the repeal bill has at last begun. The Peffer free coinage amendment, the pending one, was laid to rest by a vote of 15 to 28. Upon motion of Senator Voorhees, the substitute reported by the majority of the Committee on Finance was adopted instead of what is known as the Wilson bill, or House bill, No. 1, by a vote of 58 to 9, which, of course, was a mere formality. The amendment of Perkins of California providing for the free comage of the American silver product and the retirement of the smaller denominations of paper currency, was then taken up and short speeches were made by White.
Alien and Teller and Wolcott had risen to say a few words, when it was thought best at 5:30 to taken recess until 11 o'clock to morrow when Volcott will have the floor.

House,—Mr. Wendock, Democrat, of Michigan raised a storm in the house by introducing a memorial from Henry M. Youmans, a member of the Fifty second Congress from the Eighth Michigan district and a gandalase for reselection, praying and a candidate for re election, praying that the house investigate the circumstances attending the election of the present representative from that district. The memorial alleged that the election was brought about by the machinations of the American Protestant Association, 'a politico religious organization in Michigan and other Western states, and went on to arraign the society in very severe terms. A heated discussion followed, but without disposing the matter the house at 2 p. m. adjourned until Mon

SEVENTY-FELOND DAY. SENSITE.-Voting on the various amend-ments to the silver repeal bill was carried on to-day, and one after the other were re-jected, making it apparent that the m joity had determined to vote down any and all amendments to the bill. All the amendments were voted upon except that of Sen-stor Harris, who concluded he would not press it for a vote. On the other amendments the majority against them stood just about the same as the vote on previous amendments, the vote in their favor ranging from 28 to 32, while the vote against them ranged from 40 to 42. The last vote taken was upon one of Senstor Peffer's amendments, after which the committee mendment to the enate and an adjournment was had ing the amended bill the regular order for
