PORT TREVORTON.

Winter has been with us for a few hours. We have had snow flakes that were no fakes; and ice on the river that closed traffic for a while. Yet old Sol righted matters again much to the disgust of the boys who were spinning about on the gravel-bars. Mumps are prevailing in our town. In almost every family of children one or more are ailing, consequently there are vacant seats in the school room to the number of twenty five. We believe that one of the most appropriate sermons that could be preached in our churches might be drawn from the verse, "The Lord is in His Holy Temple; let all the earth keep silence before Him." The church should be the house of worship not of amusement. Boisterous laughing and loud talking, and chewing tobacco within its walls, are indeed a light reverence. We have due respect for the good intentions of the members, but we must attribute the serious neglect of good order during services to their toleration. We say firmly, down with it; and the credit is yours.
