KRATZERVILLE.

We can not tell at this writing who has the largest porker... Dr. Herman made use of the snow on Sunday morning. He took the sleigh to go out to see his patients... Rev. W. A. Haas preached an able and well chosen sermon on Sunday afternoon... Peter Klingler dined at B. F. Herman's on Sunday, and speaks in the highest language how good Frank's venison tasted that he brought home from Little Valley... The parties that stole Francis Naugle's ax and tore up things one night last week would better be a little careful as Francis bought himself a fine revolver, and anybody found out of the way where he has no business will learn what powder and lead will do on such occasions... Miss Annie Dauberman, one of Northumberland's fairest young ladies, called on Grand-pap Dauberman over Sunday. Annie is always welcome when in our midst... Our Sunday Schools are practicing for Christmas entertainments and will give the community a rich treat... J. C. Klingler of Central Pennsylvania College, was home over Thanksgiving, and gave us the sad news of Mr. Bowersox, one of the students, shooting himself on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. K. was the first to enter his room after the shooting. He died shortly afterwards as the ball passed through the stomach and lodged in the spinal cord. We learn that Mr. Bowersox was a fine, industrious, christian young man, and that he shot himself accidentally is the belief... This is County Institute week and the children are all glad for the week of play as they call it, but I hope our teachers will attend all the sessions and bring home the good seeds that are sown there and make good use of them when they enter their respective schools again.

McCLURE.

The revival meeting in the Evangelical church is what may be termed a grand success... Marcy & Co. are having a Wilkesbarre civil engineer survey their timberland, it is supposed, to locate the line between their tract and the Hoffman tract... McClure was treated to a novelty Tuesday morning about 6 o'clock in the shape of a freight train wreck. Several cars were smashed but no one was hurt... Who is the happiest man in town? Enterline. It is a girl... D. K. Haas of Shamokin, passed through here Saturday on his way to Jacks Mountain after deer... J. B. Kurtz had a new radiator put into his creamery here... Henry Ush and Harvey Smith are on the sick list... The failure of contractors Edgecome and Howell to pay their men places our town in straitened circumstances. The shortage in wages is about $2200... Isaac Dreese has taken the contract of cutting the timber off the Martz tract south of Raub's Station... Our Sunday schools are actively engaged in preparing for Christmas entertainments.

TROXELVILLE.

Owing to the scarcity of news items and several weeks' absence in the mountains (for the good of my health) I remained silent for quite a while. I expect to make up for lost time... John F. Zechman, who is down with typhoid fever, is slowly recovering... Dr. Miller's new stable is completed, and is the handsomest and best arranged stable in town... Uncle Rob. and a small party spent several days at the "Taylor" House in the "Kettle" last week; but all the good luck went against them... All of our Sunday schools, except the St. Luke's, will have Christmas entertainments... Everybody who has a gun and a dog, or who can borrow a gun and steal a dog, is out for rabbits. Boys, I want it positively understood that my dogs are not for "take," and I remember this... Our high stable, James A. Wagner, shot a wild turkey last week that weighed 48 pounds. That is what Jan. said he judged it—but since he once judged a 5 week old calf and missed it 150 pounds, I think he is a little too high. The rabbits are safe this Monday morning, cause the snow had a shell... Ich woenner dar Boonastiel shunt ga-butcher-but I Ich date glicha eme amole lha tsu shlochta. CAL. JOZ.

SELINGSGROVE.

Mr. Daniel Musselman, who formerly lived for many years on the Isle of Que, died the latter part of last week and was buried Monday forenoon. Rev. Haas of the Reformed church officiated at the funeral... Peter H. Snyder, one of Sunbury's capitalists, was in town last week on business... Rev. Eckersly of the Methodist church took a trip to Georgetown last Tuesday evening... Mrs. H. S. Boyer, wife of civil engineer Boyer of Sunbury, ate her Thanksgiving turkey in Selingsgrove, last week... Rev. A. K. Zimmerman made a business trip to Sunbury last Wednesday... Mrs. Kate Kantner is visiting her brother, Wm. Melick at Shamokin... The Grand Army Post of this place were presented with a memorial volume in the Town Hall last night... Rev. S. J. Ulrich preached at Montoursville last Sunday... Theatrical performances were given in the Town Hall last Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings... The beautiful snow, about three inches, is on the ground, but the sleighing is not good.

MESTOR.

Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of that state during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful. For sale by G. M. Shindle, Middleburgh, and J. W. Sampson, Penns Creek.

Here's the Idea

Of the Non-pull-out Bow. The great watch saver. Saves the watch from thieves and falls—cannot be pulled off the case—costs nothing extra. The bow has a groove on each end. A collar runs down inside the pendant (stem) and fits into the grooves, firmly locking the bow to the pendant, so that it cannot be pulled or twisted off. Can only be had with cases stamped with this trade mark. Jas. Boss Filled Watch Cases are now fitted with this great bow (ring). They look and wear like solid gold cases. Cost only about half as much, and are guaranteed for twenty years. Sold only through watch dealers. Remember the name.
