The great strike on the Lebich Valley railroad was declared off at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning, both sides making concessions. The action was the result of a conference between a joint committee, composed of members of the boards of arbitration of New York and New Jersey on the one hand, and President Wilbur, of the Lehigh Valley Company, on the other.

The conference, which lasted three days was also participated in by the chiefs of the local and national labor organizations which took part in the strike. The terms of agreement are embodied in the following correspondence which was made public after the announcement that the strike had been declared off

South Bethlehem, Pa., December 5.

"E. B. Wilbur, President of the Lehigh Valley Ratiroad:
"Dear Sir.—The State boards of arbitration of New York and New Jersey desire to know whether, if the existing strike is declared off, the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company will agree to take back as many of their old employes as they can find places for, without any prejudice on account of the fact that they struck or that they are members of any labor organization, that in members of any labor organization, that in re-employing the men formerly in its service the available time shall be so divided among the men so re-employed that they may feel that they are again in the employ of the company and self-supporting, that in making promotions hereafter the company will make no distinction as between the new men now in its employ and those so re-employed on account of seniority in so re-employed on account of seniority in service or otherwise; that when in the em-ploy of the read committees from the various classes of employes from the branches of the service in which the ag-grieved party is employed and their gilev-ances considered and justly treated, and in the employing of men in the future, the in the employing of men in the future, the company will give the preference to former employes when the strike is declared off.

"We further think that, to prevent misapprehension, the Lehigh Valley Railroad ompany should contirm the rules posted by Mr. Voorhees on August 7 last, as first vice president of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company. We believe that these suggestions are reasonable, and if they are accepted by your company the present strike will be at once terminated.

The letter is signed by G. Robertson, Jr. of the New York State Board of Arbitration and Mediation, and J. P. McDonald of the State Board of Mediation and Arbitration of the State of New Jersey.

To this communication President Wilbur replied as follows:

South Bethlehem, Pa., Dec. 5. "Gentlemen:—I beg to acknowledge your communication of this date. The Lenigh Valley Railroad Company agrees to the suggestions contained therein and in the event of the strike being declared off wil abide by them. We recognize and willingly respond to your modification of our former the Lehigh Men Will Wait For Work, Which Will Be Given Them as Fast as Possible.

Strikers were put to work on the Lehigh Valley railroad on Thursday wherever men vere needed, but a large number of them tre yet idle. While some of the men are lissatisfied and talk of striking again, most of them accept the situation and will wait or work.

The annoucement by the company, that xaminers would test the fitness of the new uen, is good news to the Brotherhood, it s the general belief that this examination sa pretext to get rid of the new men and nake room for as many old men as pos-

The men were told by the company officials that as soon as the main line demor-lization had been supplanted by systematic rain running whereby the branch road raffic could be handled uninterruptedly, hen the call would be made for as many of he old men as could be used. The strike has ended in a complete victory

'or the Lehigh Valley railroad and the men who were led to believe that they had won now admit their defeat.

While the officials deny all knowledge of meh action, yet there is no doubt whatever hat regular and extra. Philadelphia and Reading railroaders are being gathered together at Pottsville, Pa. for duty on the Lehigh Valley system. What this move means the strikers do not know.

WILL FIGHT TO THE END.

The Restoration to the Throne of the Queen of Hawaii Can Not Be Accomplished Without Bloodshed. A dispatch from San Francisco says: The brig W. G. Irwin, just in from Honolulu, having left there November 22, brings word that the on y way Queen Lilicukulani can be restored to the throne is by superior force of arms of the United States troops. The provisional Government proposes to fight as long as there is a chance of holding the control of the islands.

The Queen, at her request, has been furnished a guard by the Provisional Govern-

Minister Willis evidently sees that the reenthronement of the Queen cannot be accomplished without bloodshed and for that reason is awaiting further instructions from the United States Government.

November Fire Loss.

The fire loss of the United States and Canada for the month of November amounts o $11,493 000. Although this is less than the sums chargeable against the same month n 1891 and 1892, the current year promises a make a record of fire waste unparatieled once the year of the Chicago tire and out of all proportion with the country's growth. The losses in New York City for the nonth just closed show a total of $231.—

The losses for the entire year of 1890 were 106.998.345; for 1891, $137.716 150; for 1892, $132,704.700. As 1893 has already piled up a total of $144.340.400, it is probable that the sompleted , ear will make a total of over $156,000,000.

A PARIS DYNAMITE OUTRAGE. Anarchist Aug. Vaillant Throws a Bomb In the Fre 1ch Chamber of Deputies, 100 Persons Wounded.

August Vaillant, alias Marchal, a resident of the suburb Choisy le Rol, threw a bomb In Broad Daylight. While the Casisier in the Chamber of Deputies at Paris on Saturday. He made a confession Sunday morn-

The bomb was thrown while the Chamber was engaged in contine proceedings. The floor was filled with Ministers and deputies, and the galleries were crowded with spectators. The bomb, which, in addition to the nails and scraps of Iron, was dropped from an upper gallery and was exploded by a time fuse before it reached the floor of the Chamber, hurring its deadly contents in all directions. A shrick of horror arose in unison from the members and spectators, and amid the blinding smoke and the cries and groans of the injured, the thousand people in the Chamber made a wild rush to reach the outer rooms.

Nobody was killed, but about 100 people were more or less injured. Many will bear the marks of their wounds for life, while several have been incurably crippled. President Dupuy was cut in the cheek and SenatorBillot received several flesh wounds. Although injured, M. Dupuy retained his presence of mind and after the first wave of excitement was over, he rang his bell, restored order and said:

"Such outrages cannot disturb the chamber. We shall continue our labors, and, after we exhau-t the order of the day, the Chamber's officials will do their duty in re-

His speech was loudly cheered, and following his courageous example, Mr. Montfort ascended the tribine and in a perfectly steady voice took up the discussion of the question before the flouse as if nothing had happened. When the discussion closed M. Meanwhile the wounded were removed to the ante chambers and their wounds When the exp'osion occurred, with admirable discipline the soldiers at the en-trance to the gallery closed the gates and allowed none of the panic stricken specta-tors to escape. They carefully examined all of them before they would allow them to depart. Three men were detained, among them Vaillant. His right arm was shattered by the explosion. his nose was blown and his neck and chest were lacerated. I said he suffers much pain. Vaillant will be further examined soon as his condition permits of it. In the meantime the police are hard at work making inquiries and Doubts haverisen as to whether Vaillant is the man that threw the bomb. It is suggested that he was an accomplice and that he simply screened the real throver. When Valilant was examined Sunday evening he declared that he had hoped to kill Casimir-Perier and at least 150 Deputies.

The police say that Valilant has made the "I waited for more than an hour before throwing the bomb, in a hope that a favorable chance would present itself to cast it in the spot I had picked out. TRADE IS WAITING.

No Visible Improvement and the Indiestions Less Satisfactory Than a Week Ago. R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, New York, says: Trade of all kinds is waiting. There is no vis ble improvement and on the whole the indications are a little less satisfactory than they were a week ago. The speculative markets have not moved much. Railroad earnings are fairly encouraging for they show a decline of only 4 per cent compared with last year and in freight earnings the decrease is only 7 per cent. Wheat has risen a shode the Western receipts were only 3.577.281 bushels, against 0.083,180 for the same week last year, while the courts from At antic parts were the exports from At antic ports were only 427,484 bushels, against 1,321,450 for the same week hast year. The receipts of corn were windsually large, amounting to 3,227,-771 bushels against 2,760,760 for the same were list year, and the exports were 889,-08 busicles against 627,500 last year. In the from and steel manufacture there are symptoms of improvement. There is a feeling that the new steel rail combination will result in a decide i increase in the de-mand for rails and a so for pig iron.

The supporting of gold at this time is evidence that l'arope has been selling a large amount of securices in this market and there is a teeling that such sales may easily be posted far enough to cause serious disorder he bank feserves amounting to $ 50,000. 000 are the largest ever known, and there is a feeling that the accumulation of idle money here is somewhat dangerous to legitimate trade.

Heavy

inimals Deceivers Ever.

Swindling and deceit are known among animals. In military stables horses are known to have pretended to be lame in order to avoid going into military exercise. A chimpan-zee had been fed on cake when sick; after his recovery he often feigned coughing in order to procure dainties The cuckoo sometimes lays its eggs in the sparrow's nest, and to make the deception surer it takes away one of the sparrow's eggs.

Animals are conscious of their decelt, as shown by the fact that they try to operate secretly and noiselessly: they show a sense of guilt if detected: they take precautions in advance to avoid discovery; in some case; they manifest regret and repentance.

Thus, bees which steal often besttate before and after their exploits, as if they feared punishment. Someone described how a monkey committed theft; waile he pretended to sleep the animal regarded him with hesitation, and stopped every time his master moved or seemed on the point of awakening. Such, and many more well-known facts, may be due to fear of punishment, which naturally follows a misdeed, just as is oberved among habitual thieves.
