PORT TREVORTON.

The present aspect of the rivers marks a very unusual occurrence for mid winter. Large quantities of heavy ice and new timber are afloat in the turbulent stream, while the stage of water is steadily increasing, apparently the head waters had been solidly frozen over but were broken up by the recent rains and thawing winds. Protracted meeting has been in progress in the Evangelical church, for some time. Rev. Hollenbach of Williamsport assisted in forwarding the good work with a series of excellent sermons. Prose-lytes are quite numerous. Since J. D. Bogar's fine flour has almost revolutionized the administration of the loaf in our community, some one has been wondering whether the fifty barrels sent to Rio de Janeiro might not probably be the cause of the Brazilian insurrection. With the present weather variations it is far from uncommon to see victims of grip, mumps, carelessness and ignorance stalking about with cotton in their ears and a yard of red flannel saturated with kerosene about their necks. But while this is amusing it is terrible to think that in every household there are sick. Physicians are laboring heroically day and night to restore health, and quackery with no less ardor is offering its pow-wows, patent medicines, lotions, potions, notions and catnip, hideously mingled and harmful, while the urechin continues to slide down the canal bank on chips, rye-straws and other toboggans unique for their diminitiveness, and then wonder where he caught that cold. We wish the Post and its patrons a merry Christmas—the editor a tuff turkey.

KRATZERVILLE.

The ice left Penns Creek last night and our skaters are sorry. Constant Derk received a severe kick on the thigh last Friday morning from one of A. W. Pontius' horses. A. W. Pontius was the guest of J. S. Yearicks on Sunday. Rev. Smith preached an able and well chosen sermon in the Evangelical church on Sunday evening. Our boys attended the debate at Hill-end school-house on Friday night and report having had a very pleasant time. Miss Fietta Fetter, who is down with scarletina, is slowly improving. La Grippe is again making his annual round and J. S. Yearick says that he had his share of it this time and does not wish to have it call on him again. Mr. Henry Miller will move into A. A. Hummel's house, but we have not learned whether he will engage in the drug business. We certainly need a druggist. Our Christmas entertainments will all be on Christmas night. The Evangelical church has added something new to their program. They secured the paraphernalia of the "N. P." and will show our people the different nationalities of the world. Let there be a full turnout for you may never have another opportunity to see it.

Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of that state during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful. For sale by G. M. Shindle, Middleburgh, and J. W. Sampson, Penns Creek.
