GO DOWN WITH THE BRIDGE.

MORE THAN 20 MEN MEET DEATH

By the Collapse of a Steel Structure in Course of Construction at Louisville.

The middle span of iron and timber falsework of the bridge now under construction between East Louisville and Jeffersonville, Ind., collapsed Saturday morning, crushing to death or drowning between 20 and 30 men, and injuring about 20 more...

The injured were: Albert Moore, both arms broken; G. W. Brown, Irvington, arms broken; B. B. Sheehan, Greenup, Ky., G. F. Hall, Bristol, Tenn.; Harry Pugh, Mercer, Pa., both arms broken, back hurt and internally injured; Harry Lee, Jeffersonville, cut about head and injured by shock; Edward Haben, Chicago, slightly injured; T. N. Gallaway, Louisville, cut about head; John Meyer, Lexington, Ky., leg amputated; Edward Scheer, Pittsburg, Pa., will die; Edward Hildebrand, Northampton, Pa., spinal injury; G. Thorpe, injured about knees and side; D. R. Earl, G. W. Earl...

There were 51 men on the bridge. A few succeeded in climbing to places of safety and were quickly rescued. Others struggled helplessly and were carried off by the current to sink almost as rescue was at hand. The ferryboats City of Jeffersonville and C. W. Witt and the life saving crews were soon at the wreck, which completely blocked one end of the river. Several broken arms and legs were found floating in pieces of timber. They were pulled into boats and hurried to hospital.

After the crash the steamer Hovsner ran up to the wreckage and the crew saved nine men who were badly hurt. The bridge could not have kept about five minutes. The lives of the workmen were insured for $1,500 each.

To whom must be laid the responsibility for a series of disasters? No less than 50 men have been killed and injured in its construction before the present accidents. Three years ago the Masonic Savings Bank, one of the largest financial concerns in the city, was wrecked by a flood of water...

A HAND-TO-MOUTH BUSINESS. Trade Still Waiting as Much as It Can. Although the Volume a Few Years Ago Would Have Been Called Large.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: It is proof of the enormous vitality of the country that, while mills are stopping in every direction, and the army of unemployed is larger than it has been for many years, other mills are constantly starting up to answer the demand which a single year of unprecedented disaster has only diminished.

The Police and county officials who have been hard at work since Leher's confession, have arrested several of the gang, all of whom are Hebrews. One is a woman. The officials refuse to give any names, fearing that it would warn others of the gang who are now being hunted for. Prosecutor Marsh expects in a few days to have under arrest all of the members of the gang.

By walking from New York to New Orleans in sixty-eight days, without spending a cent Edward A. Williams won a $1,500 wager.

LATER NEWS.

TIME AND WAGES CUT. The Pennsylvania Retching on its Divisions North of Philadelphia. There has been a general cut along the New York division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, which extends from New York to Philadelphia, in the time of all its employees who work by the hour, such as carpenters, mechanics and laboring men.

Catering to Woman's Vanity.

A flourishing establishment in New York derives most of its income from renting jewelry, instead of selling it outright, to women who cannot afford to buy. The business is a perfectly legitimate one. Only a fair amount of interest is charged for the use of the goods and nothing is ever attempted in the way of deceiving customers as to the actual value of the jewelry they hire.

Primitus—I won't ride on the street cars on Sunday because the employees have to work. Secundus—And I don't go to church because the preacher has to preach on the day of rest.—Judge.

Once let us deal with virtue and we are moving in a spiritual world; a world as different from materialism as is wine from the cup that holds it. By moral greatness we are not in rapport with better things. Mal'ock, in "Dooms, Reason and Morality."

"That man made money just by his sand." "What? That undressed, miserable little specimen?" "Yes; he's a brick maker."

There is more to a man in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors prescribed a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven to-day that a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment.

Now comes the season when dainty and delicious cake and pastry are required.

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable in their preparation. For finest food I can use none but Royal.—A. FORTIN, Chef, White House, for Presidents Cleveland and Arthur.

A Boy's Essay on Breathing. We breathe with our lungs, our lights, our kidneys and our livers. If it wasn't for our breath we would die when we slept. Our breath keeps the life a-going through the nose when we are asleep. Boys who stay in a room all day should not breathe. They should wait until they get out in the fresh air. Boys in a room make bad air called carbonic acid. Carbonic acid is as poison as mad dogs. A lot of soldiers were once in a black hole in Calcutta and carbonic acid got in there and killed them. Girls sometimes ruin the breath with corsets that squeeze the diaphragm. A big diagram is best for the right kind of breathing.—Old Homestead.

A Reward of Merit. "I bought four dozen eggs of you the other day," he began, as he entered the grocery, "and I found..."

Mrs. Scott. "Not a bad one in the lot." "James, put him up another dozen as a reward for lying!"—Detroit Free Press.

CURES OTHERS. M. W. Scott, Esq., of the U. S. Marshall's Office, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "For many years my wife has been a constant sufferer from indigestion, sick headache, nervous prostration and all other complaints that the female sex is heir to, and after trying many remedies and doctors with but little or no result, I persuaded her to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' She was so out of heart, she returned the answer that it would be like all the rest of no good; but on my account, she said she would try it, so I got one bottle each; and before she had used half of a bottle she felt that it was benefiting her, and she has continued to improve ever since, and now thinks it the most wonderful remedy on earth for her sex, and recommends it to all suffering females. She has not been so well in ten years."

Why Not You? "COLCHESTER" SPADING BOOT. One bottle for fifteen cents, twelve bottles for one dollar, by mail.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION. "After a sunstroke I suffered with nervous prostration, lost all appetite, and my strength failed me. I was so weak that I could not get up. The doctor told me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I did so. It did me more good than any other medicine I ever took. It cured me of my nervous prostration, and I feel like a new man."

BLOOD POISON A SPECIALTY. If you are afflicted with blood poisoning, you should use Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is the only medicine that cures blood poisoning. It is sold by all druggists and chemists.
