BEAVERTOWN.

The New Year is with us and we hope all who have formed good resolutions will abide by them. Young women, as well as young men, should remember the editor's remarks on the subject "read" in THE POST of Dec. 21st.

McCLURE.

The new year was ushered in with a good deal of noise... The shooting match passed off pleasantly and some of our "crack shots" went home with happy hearts.

PORT TREVORTON.

Joseph Leshar of the Times was in town a few moments last week... Our Christmas festivities afforded greater enjoyment than we, under the prevailing circumstances, had a right to expect.

SELINGSGROVE.

During Christmas all four of the churches in town had Christmas exercises and gave presents to the Sunday school scholars. In our opinion the decorations and exercises in the Reformed church were the most interesting.

KRATZERVILLE.

Did you get a Christmas present? is the question of the day among our young people... Prof. J. O. Herman, of Edwardsville, Pa., is home on a fortnight visit to his mother.

Caesar.

An unmarried lady during a recent call at a lawyer's office, expressed indignation toward a gentleman, a widower for over a year.

La Grippe Again.

The re-appearance of the "Grip" calls to mind the experience of Jas. O. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas.
