

PAXTONVILLE.

(Deferred from last week.)
The entertainment on Christmas night was a success. Old Santa Claus was rather liberal in treating the little folks this time. Ira Harner who had been working at Scranton, came home to stay awhile. Wm. and Grant Brunner of Glen Union spent a week at home. Miss Kate Bowersox of Carlisle, spent Christmas at home. She likes her work of teaching the Indians very much. The C. E. Society of the Evangelical church purchased a reflector last week for the church. Quite a number of our young people sat up on Sunday night to watch the new year come in. Mr. Houtz and Mrs. Weirick are on the sick list but are both recovering slowly. Miss Jennie Brunner of Union county, is home for a few weeks. Miss Laura Harner of Shamokin, visited her parents over Christmas. Harry Frantz spent Christmas at Selinsgrove. DOXIE.

LOWELL.

Our weather prophet, C. W. F., has calculated that we will have thirty-four snows this winter. His calculations generally hold good, but the snows must come oftener or we can look for some in harvest. John Kaley, of Washington City, has been visiting his parents and friends in Snyder county. John reports that business is booming in the Capitol city. Any one visiting Middleburgh will always find Tom, editor of the Post, with a pleasant "How-do-you-do" and a shake of his right paw. Our streets are in a bad condition from the effects of the late rains. Enoch Baker has been adding improvements to J. J. Stealy's new house for the past week. Our sick folks are all improving slowly. Alexander Knepp has taken the contract to deliver the mails between McClure and Bannerville. Alexander is an old hand at the business and you can depend upon it that it will be done O. K. U. No.

TROXELVILLE.

Jeremiah Moyer bought the Jacob Nerhood farm at administrator's sale on Saturday last for $3,210. The widow bought Tract No. 2, 77 acres of mountain land, for $19. John D. Sipe bought Tract No. 3, 10 acres of woodland, for $22. Last week, George Mattson took an inventory and found they had $4,976 worth of stock in trade. Some of our farmers are plowing their corn ground. The sick people are too numerous to mention. Another plague, worse than the Egyptian, will now be visited upon the people of the county—the office-seekers' plague. The St. Luke's S. S. on last Sunday re-elected Chas. P. Fiss superintendent, D. J. Bingham ass't superintendent and W. H. Herman secretary. J. Y. H. Moyer was elected treasurer and Isaac Lepley ass't secretary. It is now time for the members of the Standing Committee to issue a call for holding a convention to nominate candidates for the various township offices. The Spring election will be held on the 20th day of February.

CENTREVILLE.

And now we write 1894. The mild weather we have had so far is not very favorable. More snow is anxiously looked for. The doctors are kept on the go. Nearly everybody has the "grip". On Saturday evening, between 9 and 10 o'clock, the stable of J. W. Keister of this place was destroyed by fire, together with the pig-stable adjoining. The fire spread so rapidly that nothing was saved but the cow and two shoats. The cause of the fire is not known but is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. Mrs. Sadie Dreese, of Beaver Springs, visited parents and friends here last week. Messrs. William and Jacob Sampsel, both of the State of Michigan, are here visiting their aged father and relatives at this writing. Mr. Winey Custer, of Swineford, was in town to see his lady friend, Saturday evening. Mrs. Alice Rohland and Miss Mabel Marshall, both of Shenandoah, are the guests of Valentine Walter's family. J. H. Hartman has accepted a position as sawyer on a steam saw-mill at Gordon Heights station. Samuel Bowen, of Swineford, and Samuel Simonon, of Middleburgh, agents for nursery stock, were in town on business on Tuesday. Are you insured? If not, why not?

By the way, if more parents would bear in mind that a good cook adds more happiness to a home than a poor musician the divorce lawyers wouldn't have enough to do to keep their lungs from growing mouldy.

"During the epidemic of la grippe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy took the lead here and was much better liked than other cough medicine." H. M. Bangs, druggist, Chatsworth Ill. The grip is much the same as very severe cold and requires prompt relief.

Relief is prompt and effectual and will prevent any tendency of the disease toward pneumonia. For sale by G. M. Shindle, Middleburgh and J. W. Sampsel, Centerville.

The persistent cough which usually follows an attack of the grip can be permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. W. A. McGuire of Me Kay, Ohio, says: "La Grippe left me with a severe cough. After using several different medicines without relief, I tried Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which effected a permanent cure. I have also found it to be without an equal for children when troubled with colds or croup. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by G. M. Shindle, Middleburgh, and J. W. Sampsel, Centerville, Druggists.

About one year ago I took a violent attack of la grippe. I coughed day and night for six weeks; my wife then suggested that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. At first I could see no difference, but still kept taking it, and soon found that it was what I needed. If I got no relief from one dose I took another, and it was only a few days until I was free from the cough. I think people in general ought to know the value of this remedy, and I take pleasure in acknowledging the benefit I have received from it. Madison Mustard, Otway, Ohio. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by G. M. Shindle, Middleburgh, and J. W. Sampsel, Centerville, Druggists.

La Grippe Again.

The re-appearance of the "Grip" calls to mind the experience of Jas. O. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. He was sick in bed for ten days with the grip during its prevalence a year or two ago. Later in the season he had a second attack. He says: "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and with considerable success. I think, only being in bed a little over two days. The second attack, I am satisfied, would have been equally as bad as the first, but for the use of this remedy." It should be borne in mind that the grip is much the same as a very severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. When you wish to cure a cold quickly and effectually give this remedy a trial. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by G. M. Shindle, Middleburgh, and J. W. Sampsel, Centerville, Druggists.
