KRATZERVILLE

Blue-birds were heard on Sunday ... Dr. Herman is kept busy attending the sick ... Dr. J. O. Wagner, of Beaver Springs, paid his father a flying visit one day last week. Prof. A. J. Herman has resigned his position as teacher in Monroe town ship and has accepted a position as teacher in the High School at Kingston, Pa ... Mr. Daniel Ritter, an aged gentleman of Monroe township, died on Friday night and was buried on Tuesday at Kratzerville, Mr. Ritter was a good neighbor and a prominent member of the Church. The protracted meeting in the Evangelical church is still in progress, The meetings are well attended and we hope the labors of the paster are not in vain.

BEAVERTOWN.

Mrs. Laster E. Specht is visiting parents and friends at Keating ... Mrs. W. H. Gill, of Elkins, W. Va., is here to spend some time with her parents.... Miss Ellen Beaver, who spent several weeks at Lewistown, has returned home ... Mrs. Sabine Freed is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Rearick, at Lewistown ... Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Specht are off to Watsontown to spend a week with friends . . . Mr. and Mrs. Chas, Sampsell, of Centreville, visited Henry Kern, the latter's grand-father, over Sunday....Prof. Gilday gave a phonographic entertainment in the Evangelical church on Tuesday evening of last week ... Dr. J. F. Strohecker is about to embark in the chicken business. John W. Aigler made an incubator for him . Jno. F. Middleswarth caught a fox last WILD ROSES, MONROE TOWNSHIP.

La Grippe is still on the rampage and reports of deaths from the disare frequent ... Isaac Benfer, who was sick with la grippe, is concent..... Last Sunday was a de mitful day. The rays of the sun falling upon the ice on Penns Creek presented a beautiful sight . . Daniel Ritter was buried at Kratzerville on Tuesday of last week, aged about 82 years....The weather last Friday was the coldest we have had this winter.... Irvin Woodling has constructed an ice plow and expects to take the contract to fillice houses ... The literary society of Mechan-iesville convenes at Salem. William Stahl is the champion Penn's Dutch who were down with the grip and typhoid fever, are convalescent The Monroe township teachers' to stitute convened at App's school house last Thursday evening. The house was crowded, and the exercises were very interesting.

SELINSGROVE.

The horrible accident to Conductor Harry Prince last Wednesday morning which happened between Market and Water streets threw our town into a dreadful state of excitement. Mr. Prince was killed by his own train running over him. He was buried last Sunday at Lewistown, a special train was run from Sunbury to Lewistown. He was about 36 years old and leaves a family residing at Sunbury . . . Mr. John Parks an old citizen living on High street died last Wednesday at Williamsport where he had gone on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Dunn. He was about 78 years old. A wife and several children, all married, survive him ... Mrs. Curns, reliet of the late Rev. James Curns, who had her home with her mother, Mrs. Dr. Hottenstein died last Friday. Mrs. Curns was a sister to Mrs. J. G. L. Shindel of this place. Their mother Mrs. Dr. Hottenstine, is still living and is some 90 odd years of age ... Last Sunday the 2nd Lutheran church celebrated Holy Communion. Five new members were taken into church....The poorhouse question is being agitated in our town. We believe it would be greatly to the benefit of the tax-payers to have a building for the town poor to be cared for all in one building Miss Clara Moore went to Fisher's Ferry this morning on business.
