TROXELVILLE.

At present, we are pestered with bad roads and candidates. Talking about candidates, I will try and erase a false impression that has been set up to do our worthy neighbor, J. M. Baker, Esq., an injury. It appears that in some parts of the county it is reported that Mr. Baker is a "new commor." Now, for the benefit of those who have been thus misled, I will say that Mr. Baker was born at Bannerville, this county, where he resided with his father till he was 12 or 14 years old, and then removed with his father to Decatur township, Mifflin county, where he worked on his father's farm until about the age of 18 years. He then came back to our county and taught school for several years. If you deduct the time he spent in school and college, you will find that it was a few years that he was away from his native county. We are under many obligations to Caesar of Kratzerville, for the information concerning our friend Frank Herman. It is a good while until the bass season opens, but if our eyes hold out, we will keep on looking for that "invite" to take a fish with Frank. Who this man Caesar is, I don't know, but if I am allowed to judge the size of his boots from his talk, they will be much too large for me, and will respectfully decline. I never saw a black bass in the water yet, but if my friend will change the specie of fish from black bass to speckled trout, a match is very probable.

DOXIE.

Mr. C. F. Davis, editor of the Bloomfield, Iowa, "Farmer" says: "I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all sufferers with colds and croup. I have used it in my family for the past two years and have found it the best I ever used for the purpose for which it is intended. 50 cent bottles for sale by G. M. Shindle, Middleburgh, and J. W. Sampsell, Centerville, Druggists."

Joseph V. Dory, of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies, but says none of them seemed to do him any good; but finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain. For sale by G. M. Shindle, Middleburgh, and J. W. Sampsell, Centerville, Druggists.

Mr. Albert Favorite, of Arkansas City, Kan., wishes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says: "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me with a hacking cough which I thought I never would get rid of. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some fourteen years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I got through with one bottle my cough had left me, and I have not suffered with a cough or cold since. I have recommended it to others, and all speak well of it." 50 cent bottles for sale by G. M. Shindle, Middleburgh, and J. W. Sampsell, Centerville, Druggists.
